

Joyfully Counseling People with New Hearts

"What we need is less head knowledge and more heart knowledge."

"Our main problem is 'idols of the heart.'" (Ezekiel 14)

"Just look into the heart of your counselees to discover what is wrong and correct it."

Have you ever heard such statements? Have you ever made them? Before I learned better, I have said similar things myself. Well, we were wrong—very wrong, because we misunderstood the biblical concept of "heart." In addition, there seems to be little understanding of the "new heart" that God promised through Ezekiel (36:26, 27) and upon which He told Jeremiah that He would write His laws (Jeremiah 31:33).

This volume should help biblical counselors everywhere grasp the true biblical idea of "heart," with the confidence that as they do they will be able to deal with the hearts of their counselees as God intends. This book should also encourage pastors to recognize the necessity of counseling in their pastoral ministry, since it is vital part of the ministry of the Word. Indeed, when understood and practiced biblically, counseling can become one of the most exciting, rewarding, and even joyful activities!

All this begins with understanding the Scriptural truth that Christians are people with new hearts, a truth with implications that will lead you into the inestimable joys of truly biblical counseling.

Beeke, 2018-10-15 Preaching today all too often tragically misses the point We've all heard sermons that sound more like a lecture filling the head but not the heart And we've all heard sermons tailored to produce an emotional experience filling the heart but not the head But biblical preaching both informs minds and engages hearts giving it the power to transform lives By the Spirit's grace biblical preaching brings truth home from the heart of the preacher to the heart of the hearer Joel Beeke a pastor and professor of preaching with over four decades of experience explores the fundamental principles of Reformed experiential preaching examining sermons by preachers from the past and bridging the historical gap by showing pastors what the preaching of God's life transforming truth looks like today Baptist Missionary Magazine, 1903

The London Quarterly Review William Lonsdale Watkinson, William Theophilus Davison, 1908 The Living Church, 1894 A Sermon Preached in the First Parish Church, Milton, Massachusetts, October 27, 1907 Roderick Stebbins, 1908 London Quarterly Review, 1869 The New York Times Saturday Review of Books and Art, 1968

Christian Register and Boston Observer..., 1908 Claude La Colombière Sermons Claude La Colombière, 2014-01-15 This volume presents for the first time English language translations of twelve sermons by St Claude La Colombière Canonized in 1992 by Pope John Paul II Claude was a 17th century Jesuit priest who authenticated the visions of St Margaret Mary Alacoque and promoted devotion to the Sacred Heart Like St Francis of Assisi Claude had been a man of privilege and was a literary figure with a reputation as a master of Christian eloquence He died a martyr at the age of forty one Each sermon in this volume addresses a different issue under the general theme of Christian conduct Together these sermons present the notions central to Claude's preaching and general attitude above all the ideas of habituation and confidence in God Preaching during Claude's lifetime developed under a variety of influences most notably the thematic sermons of the late medieval period and the humanistic retrieval of classical letters during the Renaissance Claude worked within and helped to create the stylistic conventions of the day by drawing on scripture and the Church Fathers in an attempt to convert his listeners Taking a hybrid approach to his craft he brought a balanced use of rhetorical art into the pulpit so as to please as well as to instruct and move his audience hereby promoting the development of French classicism in the second half of the seventeenth century In his commentary on the sermons William O'Brien examines the dynamic vision of the human person that emerges from St Claude's preaching and considers what this might mean for readers of today While offering a historical literary study of his preaching the work is located firmly in the contemporary quest for a new unity between the theoretical and the practical in Christianity What results is a book with a unique appeal General readers interested in their own spiritual growth as well as scholars and students of religious history theology and French literature will find this book to be a valuable resource New York Times Saturday Review of Books and Art ,1968 Presents extended reviews of noteworthy books short reviews essays and articles on topics and trends in publishing literature culture and the arts Includes lists of best sellers hardcover and paperback The Baptist Encyclopaedia William Cathcart,1881 The Christian Witness and Congregational Magazine ,1868 Expository Preaching in a World of Spiritual Nominalism R. T. Johnson Raih,2021-10-06 The spiritual decay of nominalism threatens the established church worldwide While spiritual lethargy is often addressed from the perspective of theology and discipleship little attention has been given to the role of homiletics in revitalizing a congregation s spiritual health In this study Dr Johnson Raih explores the impact of preaching on members of Baptist churches in Imphal Manipur India from 2000 to 2015 He utilizes interviews and questionnaires from pastors church leaders and lay members to assess the presence of nominalism within church congregations along with the effects of various preaching methods on increasing or decreasing spiritual vitality Combining this qualitative research with scriptural and theological insight Raih suggests that expository preaching has the power to confront and even eradicate nominalism within the church He draws on biblical examples along with the methodology of John Stott and Timothy Keller to offer ten practical recommendations for countering nominalism homiletically whether in Imphal India or around the world Vision for the Church Markus Bockmuehl,Michael B. Thompson,1998-08-01 What is the Church Perhaps more importantly what is it meant to be How did its earliest members understand this body of which they had become a part This is a textbook collection of fifteen essays by an international group of New Testament experts They bring together a dynamic range of perspectives on how the early Christians viewed the Church its origins purpose and relation to Jewish Scriptures and to Jesus Christ its place in the world and in God s plan its community life and worship in theory and in practice The Standard ,1903

Homiletical Theology David Schnasa Jacobsen,2015-02-13 Karl Barth famously argued that all theology is sermon preparation But what if all sermon preparation is actually theology This book pursues a thoroughgoing theological vision for the practice of preaching as a way of doing theology The idea is not just that homiletics is the realm of theological application That would leave preaching in the position of simply implementing a theology already arrived at Instead the vision in these pages is of a form of theology that begins with preaching itself its practice its theories and its contexts Homiletical theology is thus a unique way of doing theology even a constructive theological task in its own right Homiletician David Schnasa Jacobsen has assembled several of the leading lights of contemporary homiletics to help to see its task ever more deeply as theological yet in profoundly diverse ways Along the way readers will not only discover how homileticians do theology homiletically but will deepen the way in which they understand their own preaching as a theological task The Evangelist ,1896 The Magazine of Christian Literature ,1891 Christian Literature and Review of the Churches ,1891
