Riley, 2023-04-04 For centuries the belief that God was directly engaged in our individual lives has comforted untold numbers of people but today that belief is being challenged by many within the community of faith The randomness of violence innocent suffering and inexplicable evil has pushed believers to question whether God is personal in any meaningful way How can we believe that God is involved in our daily lives when so often God appears deaf to our prayers and indifferent to our broken world We in the Shadow explores how or in what way God may be personal Unless this question can somehow be thoughtfully and practically answered faith will be viewed as an option only for those who skim over the incomprehensibly cruel surfaces of life with eyes closed and fingers stuck firmly in their ears

JENNY P DEVA MD,2014-12-17 Changing our hearts through prayer changes things and truly moves the hand of God We often hear other believers sharing about this God s timing is not ours to command If we do not start the fire with the first strike of our match we must try again God does hear our prayer but He may not answer it at the precise time we have appointed in our minds He will reveal Himself to our seeking hearts though not necessarily when and where we may expect The offence causing me to turn away may be spiritual I had imagined that once within His fold I would never again suffer from the stinging winds of temptation Yet it is best for me the way it is for when I endure temptation His grace is magnified my own character matures and heaven seems sweeter at the end of the day There is one thing you can do that can accelerate your spiritual growth more than almost any other thing Learn to take correction from the Spirit of God and from His people Remember that next time someone corrects you Love that person and thank him or her for being concerned for you and helping to speed up your spiritual progress If you ll do that you ll come out ahead every time

Luther's Theology of the Cross Dennis Ngien, 2018-06-11 Luther was fundamentally a preacher, pastor, a care-taker of souls, whose ingenuity lies in his usage of the biblical message as a source of pastoral encouragement. This book seeks to capture the often overlooked pastoral side of the Reformer through an examination of his sermons on John's gospel. The sermons on John show the intrinsic close and causal link between doctrine and consolation. They are an exercise of his vocation as a pastor or more precisely as a theologian of the cross who seeks to inculcate the good news of justification by faith in his people, leading them to experience it within the dialectic of law and gospel. St. John said, Luther is the master in the article of justification. Luther's theological method, namely his theology of the cross, permeates and governs the exposition of the text, and all major themes of his theology. Christology, Trinity, and soteriology appear in his exegesis of John.

Lord, What's Next? Edwin Silié, 2007-11-07 The disciples gathered around Jesus, listening to His every word. They knew He was not going to be with them much longer. They needed to know, above all things, what they were going to do without Him. Jesus could hear their excitement as it cried out, "Lord, what's next?" With a smile on His face, He replied, "Therefore go, I went. Let me tell you about it. I found mountains, oceans, walls, giants, lions, hard times, good times, rocks, endless roads, challenges, storms, impossibilities, blessings, sorrows, the call, and the answer. If you want to read about life-changing experiences and be challenged like you have never been before, open the pages of this book. You won't want to stop reading until you have finished it.
