Hungry for Love , Wish-fulfilment in Philosophy and Psychoanalysis Tamas Pataki,2014-04-24 Wish fulfilment as a singular means of satisfying ineluctable desire is a pivotal concept in classical psychoanalysis Freud argued that it was the thread that united dreams daydreams phantasy omnipotent thinking neurotic and some psychotic symptoms such as hallucinations and delusions art myth and religious illusions The concept s theoretical exploration has been largely neglected within psychoanalysis since but contemporary philosophers have recognised it as providing an explanatory model for much of the kind of irrational behaviour so problematic for psychiatry social psychology and the philosophy of mind Although critically neglected in contemporary psychological and psychoanalytic thought the concept remains clinically fundamental under different labels it encompasses the processes of omnipotent phantasy symbolic or substitutive satisfaction actualisation in transference and acting out symptom formation and defenses such as projective identification Wish fulfilment can be shown to be a specifically psychoanalytic compartment of a common sense psychological theory of action that illuminates not just clinical material but also the paradoxes of irrationality such as weakness of will and self deception that preoccupy philosophers The first half of this book develops a comprehensive and novel theory of wish fulfilment explores its radical implications for the structure of mind and locates it against the backdrop of both contemporary psychoanalytic and philosophical thought In the second half the book applies the theory to illuminate important features of self deception and delusion religion insanity defences creative writing and the exclusion of mind and intention in the biological drift of modern psychiatry The book will be essential to philosophers of mind psychoanalysts psychiatrists psychologists social theorists and students in these disciplines as well as readers interested in understanding how the mind works in mental illness self deception religion and creative writing A Concordance to the Poems of W.B. Making Worlds Claudia Breger,2020-04-14 The twenty first century has witnessed a resurgence of economic inequality racial exclusion and political hatred causing questions of collective identity and belonging to assume new urgency In Making Worlds Claudia Breger argues that contemporary European cinema provides ways of thinking about and feeling collectivity that can challenge these political trends Breger offers nuanced readings of major contemporary films such as Michael Haneke s The White Ribbon Alejandro Gonz lez I rritu s Biutiful Fatih Ak n s The Edge of Heaven Asghar Farhadi s A Separation and Aki Kaurism ki s refugee trilogy as well as works by Jean Luc Godard and Rainer Werner Fassbinder Through a new model of cinematic worldmaking Breger examines the ways in which these works produce unexpected and destabilizing affects that invite viewers to imagine new connections among individuals or groups These films and their depictions of refugees immigrants and communities do not simply counter dominant political imaginaries of hate and fear with calls for empathy or solidarity Instead they produce layered sensibilities that offer the potential for greater openness to others present past and future claims Drawing on the work of Latour Deleuze and Ranci re Breger engages questions of genre and realism along with the legacies of cinematic modernism Offering a rich account of contemporary film Making Worlds theorizes the cinematic creation of imaginative spaces in order to find new ways of responding to political hatred
