Copyright Office, 1954 The Collected Letters of Katherine Mansfield: Volume IV: 1920-1921 Katherine Mansfield, 1996-03-28 The letters in this volume cover the eighteen months Katherine Mansfield spent in England France and Switzerland from May 1920 to the end of 1921 It is the period of her finest stories and when her life took its most decisive turn There is a subtle but unmistakable change in her expectations a new spiritual insistence that is both elusive and resolute From her Chekovian acceptance that they are cutting down the cherry trees she derives a tough existential directness the little boat enters the dark fearful gulf Nobody listens The shadowy figure rows on One ought to sit still and uncover one s eyes There is a determined push not always successful towards a necessary honesty as much as to artistic achievement while those qualities of her earlier correspondence remain undiminished the precision and directness the intelligence and wit the dark incisiveness as much as sheer fun Above all perhaps these letters comprise a record of very considerable courage against increasingly adverse odds as they approach the final years of her life Modern Dance, Brass Balls, and.... Homer Johnson, 2025-08-26 In this humorous story set in the repressive 1950s insecure Lars Jonson reveals two deep closely guarded secrets His lifelong dream is to become a professional modern dancer and he believes himself to be homosexual These characteristics are frowned upon and indeed despised in his Southside Chicago neighborhood When in his high school
