David Gomadza, 2021-04-08 The biggest Mystery But how come in the 21st century a government or authority or even institutions can be regarded as practising structural or institutional racism with all these rights groups and laws People are saying there is no racism while some are adamant that racism exists because the byproducts are exactly those that result from structural or institutional racist structures So is there something that exists that people can t pinpoint but what is causing all this This is the billion dollar question What are we missing Is there something else that is going on that is creating the same effects that people especially young generations born here are complaining about OK first what is similar to racism or what can yield the same effects as racism FORENSICS III Harry A. a nine week old infant who was killed by a dingo at Ayers Rock in Australia George Floyd whose death resulted from police brutality Ron Goldman and Nicole Brown Simpson who were stabbed to death Elisa Lam who drowned in a water tank on the roof of her hotel Michael Faherty whose death in Ireland was attributed to spontaneous human combustion Katherine Morris who died from carbon monoxide poisoning due to charcoal grilling in an automobile Carlos Sousa who was mauled to death by a tiger Sahel Kazemi and Steve McNair who committed murder suicide and Jayne and Corinne Peters whose death was due to filicide suicide among many others Forensics III They Got Fifteen Minutes of Fame from the Way They Died reads like a mystery novel presenting biographical and scientific information that helps readers understand how medical examiners and coroners utilized forensic analysis to determine the causes and manners of death of twenty eight not so famous people

The UK's foreign policy approach to Afghanistan and Pakistan Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Foreign Affairs Committee, Richard Ottaway, 2011-03-02 In this report the Foreign Affairs Committee calls on the British Government to use its influence to persuade the US to engage more fully and swiftly with the process of political reconciliation in Afghanistan if the US wishes to disengage its forces there Although the current international emphasis favours intense military pressure aimed at defeating the insurgency it is clear that military pressure alone is not enough to bring security and stability to Afghanistan The evidence presented to the Committee has suggested that the current full scale and highly intensive ISAF counter insurgency campaign is not succeeding The Committee question the fundamental assumption that success in Afghanistan can be bought through a strategy of clear hold and build The distinction between al Qaeda and the Taliban is crucial to generating appropriate policy responses in Afghanistan The Committee says that despite the significant resources that have been invested in Afghanistan and the enduring wholehearted and admirable commitment and sacrifices of British personnel the UK has not yet achieved its stated goals There is also evidence that the core foreign policy justification for the UK's continued presence in Afghanistan namely that it is necessary in the interests of UK national security may have been achieved some time ago given the apparently limited strength of al Qaeda in Afghanistan The security rationale behind the UK Government's decision to announce the 2015 deadline for the unconditional withdrawal of UK combat forces remains unclear and there are a number of potential risks inherent in such an approach
