solipsistically not just as the end of everything for me but as the end of everything absolutely Yet since it is the same for everyone this cannot be Death thus confronts us with an impossible fact something that cannot be but will be The puzzle about death is one of several extraphilosophical puzzles about the self that Valberg discusses puzzles that can trouble everyday consciousness without any contribution from philosophy Nor can philosophy resolve the puzzles Its task is to get to the bottom of them and in this respect to understand ourselves a task philosophy has always set itself Knowledge
