Loosing The Bonds:

Loosing the Bonds Robert Massie, 1997 In the aftermath of World War II South Africa's white government decreed a brutal system of segregation at the very moment when the United States began wrestling with the civil rights movement In Loosing the Bonds Robert Massie recreates the passions and struggles of these years deftly exposing the way politics and personalities money and morality interact in modern America 40 photos National print ads media Between Homeland and Motherland Alvin B. Tillery, Jr., 2011-03-15 In Between Homeland and Motherland Alvin B Tillery Jr considers the history of political engagement with Africa on the part of African Americans beginning with the birth of Paul Cuffe's back to Africa movement in the Federal Period to the Congressional Black Caucus struggle to reach consensus on the African Growth and Opportunity Act of 2000 In contrast to the prevailing view that pan Africanism has been the dominant ideology guiding black leaders in formulating foreign policy positions toward Africa Tillery highlights the importance of domestic politics and factors within the African American community Employing an innovative multimethod approach that combines archival research statistical modeling and interviews Tillery argues that among African American elites activists intellectuals and politicians factors internal to the community played a large role in shaping their approach to African issues and that shaping U S policy toward Africa was often secondary to winning political battles in the domestic arena At the same time Africa and its interests were important to America's black elite and Tillery's analysis reveals that many black leaders have strong attachments to the motherland Spanning two centuries of African American engagement with Africa this book shows how black leaders continuously balanced national transnational and community impulses whether distancing themselves from Marcus Garvey's back to Africa movement supporting the anticolonialism movements of the 1950s or opposing South African apartheid in the 1980s The Theological and Literary Journal, 1861 *A History of Penance, Being a Study of Authorities (A) for the Whole Church to A.
