George Lovell,2010-03-01 Though a 1996 peace accord brought a formal end to a conflict that had lasted for thirty six years Guatemala's violent past continues to scar its troubled present and seems destined to haunt its uncertain future George Lovell brings to this revised and expanded edition of A Beauty That Hurts decades of fieldwork throughout Guatemala as well as archival research He locates the roots of conflict in geographies of inequality that arose during colonial times and were exacerbated by the drive to develop Guatemala's resources in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries The lines of confrontation were entrenched after a decade of socioeconomic reform between 1944 and 1954 saw modernizing initiatives undone by a military coup backed by U S interests and the CIA A United Nations Truth Commission has established that civil war in Guatemala claimed the lives of more than 200 000 people the vast majority of them indigenous Mayas Lovell weaves documentation about what happened to Mayas in particular during the war years with accounts of their difficult personal situations Meanwhile an intransigent elite and a powerful military continue to benefit from the inequalities that triggered armed insurrection in the first place Weak and corrupt civilian governments fail to impose the rule of law thus ensuring that Guatemala remains an embattled country where postwar violence and drug related crime undermine any semblance of orderly peaceful life Luis Gonzalez Palma ,1996 Luis González Palma Luis González Palma,1999 Luis Gonzalez Palma s photographs are marked by a rich texture of transcendent symbols and an open armed embrace of beauty Crowns roses and wings appear again and again yet his world is one haunted by grief He has said I live in a country Guatemala where there is mysticism and violence at the same time Where you are enjoying nature and the helicopters are flying overhead to bomb some region where you know that as you are working someone is being killed or someone is being baptized However Gonzalez Palma is no photojournalist His landscape is not Guatemala s but the soul s and it is filled with angels and terrifying mythic beasts The shadows that pervade it stem less from politics than from the sorrow of the human condition For all the pain in his work though he never takes us to the point where we must abandon all hope His subject is grief never despair La Mirada: Conversations Hans-Michael Herzog,2002
