Luis Valdez Early Works Actos Bernabe And Pensamiento Serpentino:

Luis Valdez Early Works: Actos, Bernab? and Pensamiento Serpentino Luis Valdez,1990-01-31 This collection includes one act plays by the famous farmwork theater El Teatro Campesino and its director Luis Valdez one of the first fully realized full length plays by Valdez alone and an original narrative poem by Luis Valdez Theatre, Society and the Nation S. E. Wilmer,2002-09-23 Theatre has often served as a touchstone for moments of political change or national definition and as a way of exploring cultural and ethnic identity In this book Steve Wilmer selects key historical moments in American history and examines how the theatre in formal and informal settings responded to these events The book moves from the Colonial fight for independence through Native American struggles the Socialist Worker play the Civil Rights Movement and up to works of the last decade including Tony Kushner s Angels in America In addition to examining theatrical events and play texts Wilmer also considers audience reception and critical response Luis Valdez--early Works Luis Valdez,1990 Print and the Poetics of Modern Drama W. B. Worthen,2005 In Print and the Poetics of Modern Drama W B Worthen asks how the print form of drama bears on how we understand its dual identity The Chicano Index ,1989

Violentologies B. V. Olguín,2021 Violentologies explores how different forms of violence shape identity and political vision in both familiar and unexpected ways using Latina o writers and performers as case studies Borderlands Media David Toohey,2012-03-15 David E Toohey s Borderlands Media Cinema and Literature as Opposition to the Oppression of Immigrants is an in depth analysis which explores the immigrant experience using a mixture of cinema literary and other artistic media spanning from 1958 onward Toohey begins with Orson Welles s 1958 Touch of Evil which triggered a wave of protest resulting in Chicana o filmmakers acting out against the racism against immigrant and diaspora communities The study then adds policy documents and social science scholarship to the mix both to clarify and oppose undesirable elements in these forms of thought Through extensive analysis and explication Toohey uncovers a history of power ranging from lingual and visual to more widely recognized class and racial divisions These divisions are analyzed both with an emphasis on how they oppress but also how cinematic political thought can challenge them with special attention to the philosophy of Gilles Deleuze David E Toohey s Borderlands Media is an essential text for scholars and students engaged in questions regarding the effect of media on the oppression of immigrants and diaspora communities Yaqui Indigeneity Ariel Zatarain Tumbaga,2018-03-27 Examines representations of the transborder Yaqui people as interpreted through the writing of Spanish Mexican and Chicana o authors Provided by publisher Literatura Chicana, 1965-1995 Manuel de Jesús Hernández-Gutiérrez,David William Foster,1997 A collection of essays stories poems plays and novels representing the breadth of Chicano a literature from 1965 to 1995 The anthology highlights major themes of identity feminism revisionism homoeroticism and internationalism the political foundations of writers such as Gloria Anzaldua Lorna Dee Cervantes Luis Valdes Gary Soto and Sergio Elizondo The selections are offered in Spanish English and Spanglish text without translation

Sternbach, 2023-01-10 Latina theater and solo performance emerged in the 1990s as vibrant energetic new genres found on stages from New York to Los Angeles Many women now work in all aspects of Latina theater often as playwrights or solo performers with practitioners ranging from teenagers to grandmothers Alberto Sandoval S nchez and Nancy Saporta Sternbach have previously published a groundbreaking anthology of Latina theater Puro Teatro They now offer a critical analysis of theatrical works presenting a theoretical perspective from which to examine understand and contextualize Latina theater as a genre in its own right This is the first in depth study of the entire corpus of Latina theater based on close readings of works both published and in manuscript It considers a large body of productions and performances including works by such internationally known authors as Dolores Prida Cherr e Moraga and Janis Astor del Valle Applying feminist and postcolonial theory as well as theories of transculturation Sandoval S nchez and Sternbach show how despite cultural differences among Latinas their works share a common poetics by building upon the politics of representation identity and location In addition to covering theater this study also shows that solo performance has its own history properties structure and poetics It examines performances of Carmelita Tropicana Monica Palacios and Marga Gomez artists whose hybrid identities as Latina lesbians constitute living examples of transculturation in the making to show how solo performance has roots in and digresses from more traditional modes of theater With their Latina heritage as a unifying link these women reflect common traits patterns dramatic structures and properties that overcome regional differences Stages of Life reads these eclectic cultural productions as a unified body of work that contributes to the formation of Latina identity in America today Actors and Activists David Schlossman, 2017-09-25 This scholarly work looks at the issue of politics and performance in America today with particular attention paid to performances produced by activists the NEA Four and Miss Saigon

Performing Farmscapes Susan C. Haedicke, 2021-12-06 This book argues that the performance based work in the featured case studies contributes to the construction of food democracy where the public takes back decision making in shaping the food system It explores how contemporary artists translate scientific research about local and global agricultural issues into life stories that inform and engage their audiences and in so doing transform passive food consumers into proactive food citizens The pairing of performing and farmscapes complex webs of farmlands and storylines enables artists to use embodied practices to encourage audiences to imagine a just and sustainable agri food system and to collaborate on making it a reality The book arranges the case studies on a trajectory that moves from projects that foreground knowledge acquisition to ones that emphasize social engagement by creating conversations and coalitions between farming and nonfarming communities to a final one that pairs protest art and political activism to achieve legally binding changes in the agricultural landscape Encyclopedia of Hispanic-American Literature Luz Elena Ramirez, 2015-04-22 Presents a reference on Hispanic American literature providing profiles of Hispanic American writers and their works Redemptive Memory Fran Leeper Buss, 2024-11-12 This powerful last work by pioneering oral historian Fran Leeper Buss examines how painful memories of traumatic experiences can be transformed into positive action for social good In her more than 40 years gathering the life stories of working class women Buss found commonalities in the ways in which her subjects faced structural inequalities of race class and gender as well as sufferings caused by poverty child abuse gun violence and war Some of these women subsequently went on to become participants and leaders in a variety of movements for social change In this wide ranging book Buss shows how her subjects employed storytelling art spirituality and other methods to create sense and meaning from traumatic memories and then make positive contributions to movements for labor rights sanctuary for Central American refugees gun violence prevention peace and other causes Buss also relates her own story of medical malpractice and disability and discusses the work of historical and contemporary thinkers on the concepts underlying her ideas She provides unique and original insights into how women who have endured great trauma are able to redeem their memories through communal action for a better world
