Lyrical Vision Of Mara Luisa Bombal:

The Lyrical Vision of María Luisa Bombal Celeste Kostopulos-Cooperman, 1988 This volume contains an examination of what are described as the most poetic examples of Chilean prose written in the 20th century By adopting Ralph Freedman's conceptual definition of lyrical narrative and using it as her point of departure Professor Kostopulos Cooperman argues that the protean and magical nature of Bombal's lyrical prose transcends the causal temporal and spatial movement that characterizes conventional fiction In her view Bombal's work is rather a narrative that arises in the poetic imagination of a narrator who creates a tapestry of expanding musical and pictorial patterns frequently reflecting the inner lives of her protagonists alienated heroines who withdraw into an illusory world of dreams fantasies and idealized realities where the conflict between self and other is rendered through a suggestive and contemplative network of subjective associations A

Llanos M., 2009 Throughout the literary imaginaries of the twentieth century there is a reiteration of an authoritarian patriarchal pattern that permeates the social arena as well as the female subject revealing the contradictions of the Chilean modernity modernization process The nation appears invariably determined by semi feudal and semi modern structures as well as split female modern subjects Noticing this has led the author to write this book and investigate specifically the ways

the discourse of modernity conflicts with the marriage contract in the construction of feminine subjectivity Marriage is one of the modern protocols that resolve sexual difference through a pact that proclaims male protection in exchange for female obedience Subordination of difference becomes the overarching feature guiding an incomplete modernity and its attainment in a hierarchical society
