Lytton Report Japanese Reaction:

Lytton Report and Japanese Reaction, 1932 Lytton Report and Japanese Reaction, 1932 Japan's Imperial Diplomacy Barbara J. Brooks, 2000-07-01 In November 1937 Ishii Itaro head of the Japanese Foreign Ministry's Bureau of Asiatic Affairs reflected bitterly on the decline of the ministry's influence in China and his own long and debilitating struggle to guide China policy. Ishii was the most notable member of a group of middle level diplomats who having served in China strongly advocated that Japan adopt policies in harmony with China's rising nationalism and national interests. Japan's Imperial Diplomacy profiles this distinct strain of China service diplomat while providing a comprehensive look at the institutional history and internal dynamics of the Japanese Foreign Ministry and its handling of China affairs in the years leading up to and through World War II. Moving from a thorough examination of a wide range of primary sources including the extensive archives of the Japanese Foreign Ministry memoirs diaries and unpublished speeches Japan's Imperial Diplomacy offers integrated interpretations of Japanese imperialism diplomacy and the bureaucratic restructuring of the 1930s that were fundamental to Japan's version of fascism and the move toward war. Specialists of China Japan comparative colonialism and World War II diplomacy will find this well conceived and carefully researched and organized work of first rate importance to the understanding of modern Japanese history in general and Japanese imperialism in particular. The Manchurian Crisis and Japanese Society, 1931-33 Sandra Wilson, 2003-08-27 This book explores the reactions to the Manchurian crisis of different sections of the state and of a number of different groups in Japanese society particularly rural groups women's organizations and business associations. It thus seeks to avoid a generalized account of public relations to the military and diplomatic events of the early 1930s offering instead a nuanced account of the shifts in public and popular opinion in this crucial period. Documents on British Foreign Policy, 1919-1939 Great Britain. Foreign Office, 1946 Her Majesty's government in the United Kingdom have decided to publish the most important documents in the Foreign Office archives relating to British foreign policy between 1919 and 1939 in three series the 1st ser covering from 1919 1930 the 2d from 1930 39 the 3d from Mar 1938 to the outbreak of the War. Democracy and Foreign Policy Reginald Bassett, Reginald G. Bassett, 1968-06-01 Japans Struggle With Internation Ian Nish, 2012-11-12 This a study of the Manchurian and Shanghai crises the first serious confrontation between Japan and the world community. The Manchurian crisis was one of the major international crises of the period between World Wars I and II. For Britain and America it bred a new distrust of Japanese long term national objectives. It also brought home to all concerned the weaknesses of the League of Nations and the other instruments of collective security which had been devised to deal with problems of the Pacific Ocean area. The first focus of this study is on how one of the international bodies of the time the League of Nations attempted to cope with the emergency that broke out in the east in September 1931. The second focus is on the clash of attitudes in Japanese politics. The period covered by the Manchurian crisis was the point when civilian government in Japan was seriously challenged for the first time in the 20th century The book offers a fresh account of the crisis making use of new materials in Japanese and in English which have become available and which have been drawn upon for this work These throw new light on the struggles both within Japan and among League enthusiasts to ensure that Japan the Asian state which was at once most stable and economically most successful should not end up in isolation Democracy and Foreign Policy R Bassett, 2010-10-18 The Sino Japanese crisis of 1931-33 provides effective illustrations of wider themes in British Foreign Policy It might even be said that the general pattern of opinion in the UK at the time was to be reproduced in subsequent crises The Manchurian problem and the controversies which it provoked give invaluable clues to an understanding of later developments RLE: Japan Mini-Set D: Politics (8 vols) Various Authors, 2021-03-04 Mini set D Politics re issues works originally published between 1920-1987 and examines the government political system and foreign policy of Japan during the twentieth century Japan at War 1931-45 David McCormack, 2017-01-20 The Lights that Failed Zara S. Steiner, Zara Steiner, 2007 In The Lights that Failed Steiner challenges the assumption that the Treaty of Versailles led to the opening of a second European war and provides an analysis of the attempts to reconstruct Europe during the 1920s OCLC Myopic Grandeur John E. Coox, 1985 From May to September 1939 Japan and the Soviet Union fought a fierce large scale undeclared war on the Mongolian plains that ended with a decisive Soviet victory with two important results Japan reoriented its strategic emphasis towards the south leading to war with the United States Britain and the Netherlands and Russia freed itself from the fear of fighting on two fronts thus vitally affecting the course of the war with Germany The Major International Treaties of the Twentieth Century John Ashley Soames Grenville, 2001 The Major International Treaties of the Twentieth Century John Grenville, Bernard Wasserstein, 2013-12-04 The Major International Treaties of the Twentieth Century surveys the history of treaty making throughout the twentieth century It accessibly provides the texts of all the major treaties that either continue in force today or are of historical importance These treaties are essential for an understanding of recent history and analysis of current international relations The Major International Treaties of the Twentieth Century is truly global in scope and covers treaties of all aspects from political and economic agreements to environmental and human rights pacts From the great many treaties set out and discussed examples include the Treaty of Versailles 1919 the Pact of Steel 1939 the Charter of the United Nations 1945 the North Atlantic Treaty 1949 the Treaty between the Federal Republic of Germany and the German Democratic Republic 1990 the Belfast Agreement 1998 the Charter of the Organisation of African Unity 1963 the Universal Declaration of Human Rights 1948 Drawing on the previous volumes of their books on major international treaties the authors bring the
