Winograd, 1996 Intimate Memories, Volume One Mabel Dodge Luhan, 2015 Originally published New York Harcourt Brace and Company Inc 1933 From Greenwich Village to Taos Flannery Burke, 2016-01-22 They all came to Taos Georgia O Keefe D H Lawrence Carl Van Vechten and other expatriates of New York City Fleeing urban ugliness they moved west between 1917 and 1929 to join the community that art patron Mabel Dodge created in her Taos salon and to draw inspiration from New Mexico s mountain desert and primitive peoples As they settled their quest for the primitive forged a link between authentic places and those who called them home In this first book to consider Dodge and her visitors from a New Mexican perspective Flannery Burke shows how these cultural mavens drew on modernist concepts of primitivism to construct their personal visions and cultural agendas In each chapter she presents a place as it took shape for a different individual within Dodge s orbit From this kaleidoscope of places emerges a vision of what place meant to modernist artists as well as a narrative of what happened in the real place of New Mexico when visitors decided it was where they belonged Expanding the picture of early American modernism beyond New York s dominance she shows that these newcomers believed Taos was the place they had set out to find and that when Taos failed to meet their expectations they changed Taos Throughout Burke examines the ways notions of primitivism unfolded as Dodge's salon attracted artists of varying ethnicities and the ways that patronage was perceived by African American writers seeking publication Anglos seeking authentic material Native American artists seeking patronage or Nuevomexicanos simply seeking respect She considers the notion of competitive primitivism especially regarding Carl Van Vechten and offers nuanced analyses of divisions within northern New Mexico's arts communities over land issues and of the ways in which Pueblo Indians spoke on their own behalf Burke's book offers a portrait of a place as it took shape both aesthetically in the imaginations of Dodge's visitors and materially in the lives of everyday New Mexicans It clearly shows that no people or places stand outside the modern world and that when we pretend otherwise those people and places inevitably suffer

Edge of Taos Desert Mabel Dodge Luhan, 1987-04-01 In 1917 Mabel Sterne patron of the arts and spokeswoman for the New York avant garde came to the Southwest seeking a new life This autobiographical account long out of print of her first few months in New Mexico is a remarkable description of an Easterner's journey to the American West It is also a great story of personal and philosophical transformation The geography of New Mexico and the culture of the Pueblo Indians opened a new world for Mabel She settled in Taos immediately and lived there the rest of her life Much of this book describes her growing fascination with Antonio Luhan of Taos Pueblo whom she subsequently married Her descriptions of the appeal of primitive New Mexico to a world weary New Yorker are still fresh and moving I finished it in a state of amazed revelation it is so beautifully compact and consistent It is going to help many another woman and man to take life with the talons and carry it high Ansel Adams

Corresponding Lives Patricia R. Everett, 2018-05-08 An influential New York salon host and perpetual seeker of meaning Mabel Dodge entered psychoanalysis in 1916 with A A Brill the first American psychoanalyst continuing until she moved to New Mexico in December 1917 In Taos she met Antonio Luhan the Pueblo Indian who became her fourth husband in 1923 a radical union that forever altered her turbulent life From the beginning of her analysis until 1944 Mabel wrote to Brill and he replied yielding 122 letters No other such extensive elaborate written conversations exist between patient and analyst This book presents a narrative organized around these letters featuring the turmoil in Mabel's relationships with others most notably D H Lawrence as well as her extraordinarily candid memoirs both published and unpublished inspired by Brill's fierce insistence upon constructive outlets In her correspondence as in life Mabel was despairing insightful insecure and talented reporting to Brill her emotional states seeking his advice With warmth and frankness he offered opinions affection and interpretations
