MacArthur Strikes Back Decision At Buna New Guinea 1942-1943:

MacArthur's Papua New Guinea Offensive, 1942-1943 Jon Diamond, 2020-05-27 A compelling chronicle of the Battle of Papua New Guinea with rarely viewed images from World War II an excellent book Naval Historical Foundation The Japanese seizure of Rabaul on New Britain in January 1942 directly threatened Northern Australia and as a result General Douglas MacArthur took command of the Southwest Pacific Area In July 1942 the Japanese attacked south across the Owen Stanley mountain range Thanks to the hasty deployment of Australian militiamen and veteran Imperial Force troops the Japanese were halted at Ioribaiwa Ridge just 27 miles from Port Moresby MacArthur's priority was to regain Northeast New Guinea and New Britain The capture of airfields at Buna and reoccupation of Gona and Sanananda Point were prerequisites The Allied offensive opened on 16 November 1942 with Australian infantrymen and light tanks alongside the US 32nd Infantry Division Overcoming the Japanese and the inhospitable terrain in tropical conditions proved the toughest of challenges It remains an achievement of the highest order that the campaign ended successfully on 22 January 1943 This account with its clear text and superb imagery is a worthy tribute to those who fought and all too often died there Covers a seriously neglected key campaign of WWII Most Highly Recommended Firetrench A fascinating look at real jungle warfare and the images only accentuate how miserable troops must have been during the fighting ModelingMadness.com

MacArthur's Victory Harry Gailey, 2007-12-18 A GREAT WARRIOR AT THE PEAK OF HIS POWERS In March 1942 General Douglas MacArthur faced an enemy who in the space of a few months captured Malaya Burma the Philippines the Dutch East Indies and from their base at Rabaul in New Britain threaten Australia Upon his retreat to Australia MacArthur hoped to find enough men and material for a quick offensive against the Japanese Instead he had available to him only a small and shattered air force inadequate naval support and an army made up almost entirely of untried reservists Here is one of history's most controversial commanders battling his own superiors for enough supplies since President Roosevelt favored the European Theater butting heads with the Navy which opposed his initiatives and on his way to making good his promise of liberating the Philippines In the battles for Buna Lae and Port Moresby the capture of Finschhafen and other major actions he would prove his critics wrong and burnish an image of greatness that would last through the Korean War This was the other Pacific War the one MacArthur fought in New Guinea and against all odds and most predictions decisively won The Allied Neutralisation of Rabaul Jon Diamond, 2025-01-30 Details the 1943-1944 Allied strategy to neutralize Japan's Rabaul stronghold through fierce aerial sieges and targeted landings in the Pacific Fierce Pacific ground sea and aerial combat raged between the Allies and Imperial Japan to halt the latter's inexorable advance in 1942-1943 After the American victory at Guadalcanal in February 1943 Admiral Halsey's South Pacific Area SPA naval and amphibious forces battled through the Solomon Islands building new and acquiring extant Japanese airfields Simultaneously General Douglas MacArthur's Southwest Pacific Area SWPA Australian American ground forces supported by General George Kenney's US

Fifth Air Force and other Allied air squadrons captured Japanese installations in Papua New Guinea before campaigning along Northeast New Guinea's northern coast ousting or bypassing enemy installations there. Using newly built Papuan airfields, the Allies gained air superiority over New Guinea and also interdicted Japanese maritime supply lines. Yet the main Japanese southwest Pacific bastion at Rabaul on the northeastern tip of New Britain, the largest island of the Bismarck Archipelago, remained. In March 1943, realizing an amphibious assault and ground campaign against Rabaul's naval and army bases would be too costly, the US Joint Chiefs of Staff decided to neutralise Rabaul with a joint SPA and SWPA aerial siege rather than capture it. This IOW volume recounts this strategy during 1943 and 1944 and the December 1943 amphibious landings by the US 1st Marine Division and US Sixth Army units at Cape Gloucester and Arawe respectively, which successfully isolated the Japanese fortress and satellite bases.

MacArthur Strikes Back Harry A. Gailey, 2000 The Japanese defense of the Buna area of the northeastern coast of New Guinea was organized around major strongpoints. Taken together, they formed a well-designed complex of mutually supporting bunkers concealed by dense tropical vegetation and sited in such a manner as to cover every possible avenue of approach. It was hot and humid, a mixture of jungle and swamp infested with insects and leeches. Scrub typhus, malaria, dengue fever, and dysentery were epidemic.

The coverage addresses the individuals, campaigns, battles, key weapons, systems, strategic decisions, and technological developments of the conflict, as well as the diplomatic, economic, and cultural aspects of World War II. mention is seldom seen of the achievements of the Army ground troops wrote one officer in the fall of 1943 whereas the Marines are blown up to the skies Even today the Marines are celebrated as the victors of the Pacific a reflection of a well deserved reputation for valor Yet the majority of fighting and dying in the war against Japan was done not by Marines but by unsung Army soldiers John C McManus one of our most highly acclaimed historians of World War II takes readers from Pearl Harbor a rude awakening for a military woefully unprepared for war to Makin a sliver of coral reef where the Army was tested against the increasingly desperate Japanese In between were nearly two years of punishing combat as the Army transformed at times unsteadily from an undertrained garrison force into an unstoppable juggernaut and America evolved from an inward looking nation into a global superpower At the pinnacle of this richly told story are the generals Douglas MacArthur a military autocrat driven by his dysfunctional lust for fame and power Robert Eichelberger perhaps the greatest commander in the theater yet consigned to obscurity by MacArthur s jealousy Vinegar Joe Stillwell a prickly soldier miscast in a diplomat s role and Walter Krueger a German born officer who came to lead the largest American ground force in the Pacific Enriching the narrative are the voices of men otherwise lost to history the uncelebrated Army grunts who endured stifling temperatures apocalyptic tropical storms rampant malaria and other diseases as well as a fanatical enemy bent on total destruction This is an essential ambitious book the first of three volumes a compellingly written and boldly revisionist account of a war that reshaped the American military and the globe and continues to resonate today INCLUDES MAPS AND PHOTOS New Guinea Dr. Jon Diamond,2015-06-15 Visual history of the Allied battles for New Guinea during 1942 44

War at the End of the World James P. Duffy,2023-12-05 A harrowing account of an epic yet nearly forgotten battle of World War II General Douglas MacArthur s four year assault on the Pacific War s most hostile battleground the mountainous jungle cloaked island of New Guinea A meaty engrossing narrative history This will likely stand as the definitive account of the New Guinea campaign The Christian Science Monitor One American soldier called it a green hell on earth Monsoon soaked wilderness debilitating heat impassable mountains torrential rivers and disease infested swamps New Guinea was a battleground far more deadly than the most fanatical of enemy troops Japanese forces numbering some 600 000 men began landing in January 1942 determined to seize the island as a cornerstone of the Empire s strategy to knock Australia out of the war Allied Commander in Chief General Douglas MacArthur committed 340 000 Americans as well as tens of thousands of Australian Dutch and New Guinea troops to retake New Guinea at all costs What followed was a four year campaign that involved some of the most horrific warfare in history At first emboldened by easy victories throughout the Pacific the Japanese soon encountered in New Guinea a roadblock akin to the Germans disastrous attempt to take Moscow a catastrophic setback to their war machine For the Americans victory in New Guinea was the first essential step in the long march towards the Japanese home islands and the ultimate destruction of Hirohito s empire Winning the war in New Guinea was of critical importance to MacArthur His avowed I shall return to the Philippines could only be accomplished after taking

Dean,2011-04-21 Lieutenant General Sir Frank Berryman is one of the most important yet relatively unknown officers in the history of the Australian Army Despite his reputedly caustic personality and noted conflicts with some senior officers Berryman was crucial to Australia s success during the Second World War But did the man known as Berry the Bastard deserve his reputation Bold calculating and talented Berryman was at the forefront of operations that led to the defeat of the Japanese and his operational planning secured Australia s victories at Bardia Tobruk and in New Guinea during the Pacific War With access to rare private papers Peter Dean charts Berryman s special relationships with senior US and Australian officers such as MacArthur Chamberlain Blamey Lavarack and Morshead and explains why the man poised to become the next Chief of General Staff would never fulfil his ambition Indestructible John R Bruning,2016-10-11 In this remarkable WWII story by New York Times bestselling author John R Bruning a renegade American pilot fights against all odds to rescue his

Eichelberger And Military Genius* Major Matthew H. Fath,2015-11-06 There are currently two contradictory schools of thought in the historiography of General Robert L Eichelberger s generalship One group of authors John Shortal and Jay Luvaas consider Eichelberger a brilliant World War II commander Another author Paul Chwialkowski believes Eichelberger to be good but not distinguished This study attempts to develop a concise judgment of Eichelberger s leadership The research analyzed Eichelberger s generalship using Clausewitz s theory of military genius as a model The first step was to define military genius and to determine its components and subcomponents Next Eichelberger s pre World War II education mentorship and training experiences were evaluated The third step was to analyze Eichelberger s generalship during the Papua New Guinea Netherlands New Guinea and Philippines Campaigns of World War II to determine if he consistently demonstrated the qualities of military genius This study concluded that Eichelberger definitively displayed the components of courage and determination but a judgment on his coup d il required a more detailed examination and warranted further research Eichelberger s leadership is relevant to today s military officer because he successfully defeated an enemy who employed many asymmetrical tactics of potential enemies in the contemporary operating environment anti access denial defense in complex terrain and fanatical fighting abilities Operation PLUM Adrian R. Stephenson,2010-07-15 They went in as confident young warriors They came out as battle scarred veterans POW camp survivors or worse The Army Air Corps 27th Bombardment Group arrived in the Philippines in November 1941 with 1 209 men one year later only 20 returned to the United States The Japanese attacked the Philippines on the same morning as Pearl Harbor and invaded soon after Allied air routes back to the Philippines were soon cut forcing pilots to fight their air war from bases in Java Australia and New Guinea The men on Bataan were eventually taken prisoner and forced into the infamous Death March The 27th and other such units were pivotal in delaying the Japanese timetable for conquest If not for these units some have suggested the Allied offensive in the Pacific might have started in Hawaii or even California instead of New Guinea and the surrounding islands Based largely on primary materials including a fifty nine page report written by the surviving unit members in September 1942 Operation PLUM from the code name for the U S Army in the Philippines gives an account of the 27th Bombardment Group and through it the opening months of the Pacific theater Military historians and readers interested in World War II will appreciate the rich perspective presented in Operation PLUM U.S. Army
