Machine In The Studio Constructing The Postwar American Artist:

Machine in the Studio Caroline A. Jones, 1996 Drawing on extensive interviews with artists and their assistants as well as close readings of artworks Jones explains that much of the major work of the 1960s was compelling precisely because it was mainstream central to the visual and economic culture of its time Machine Art, 1934 Jennifer Jane Marshall, 2019-01-23 In 1934 New York's Museum of Modern Art staged a major exhibition of ball bearings airplane propellers pots and pans cocktail tumblers petri dishes protractors and other machine parts and products The exhibition titled Machine Art explored these ordinary objects as works of modern art teaching museumgoers about the nature of beauty and value in the era of mass production Telling the story of this extraordinarily popular but controversial show Jennifer Jane Marshall examines its history and the relationship between the museum's director Alfred H Barr Jr and its curator Philip Johnson who oversaw it She situates the show within the tumultuous climate of the interwar period and the Great Depression considering how these unadorned objects served as a response to timely debates over photography abstract art the end of the American gold standard and John Dewey's insight that how a person experiences things depends on the context in which they are encountered An engaging investigation of interwar American modernism Machine Art 1934 reveals how even simple things can serve as a defense against uncertainty Art Workers Julia Bryan-Wilson, 2009 From artists to art workers Carl Andre's work ethic Robert Morris's art strike Lucy Lippard's feminist labor Hans Haacke's paperwork "Science, Technology, and Utopias" Christine Filippone, 2017-07-05 The rise of proxy wars the Space Race and cybernetics during the Cold War marked science and technology as vital sites of social and political power Women artists historically excluded from these domains responded critically while simultaneously redeploying the products of Technological Society into works that promoted ideals of progress and alternative concepts of human community In this innovative book author Christine Filippone offers the first focused examination of the conceptual use of science and technology by women artists during and just after the women's movement She argues that artists Alice Aycock Agnes Denes Martha Rosler and Carolee Schneemann used science and technology to mount a critique on Cold War American society as they saw it conservative and constricting Motivated by the contemporary American Women's Movement these artists transformed science and technology into new modes of artmaking that transgressed modernist heroic painterly styles and subverted the traditional economic structures of the gallery the museum and the dealer At the same time the artists also embraced these domains of knowledge and practice as expressions of hope for a better future Many found inspiration in the scientific theory of open systems which investigated problems of wholeness dynamic interaction and organization enabling consideration of the porous boundaries between human bodies and their social political and nonhuman environments Filippone also establishes that the theory of open systems not only informed feminist art but also continued to influence women artists practice of reclamation and ecological art through the twenty first century Feminism Art Theory Hilary Robinson, 2015-04-20 Charting over 45 years of feminist debate on the significance of gender in the making and understanding of art the long anticipated new edition of Feminism Art Theory has been extensively updated and reworked Completely revised retaining only one third of the texts of the earlier edition with all other material being new inclusions Brings together 88 revealing texts from North America Europe and Australasia juxtaposing writings from artists and activists with those of academics Embraces a broad range of threads and perspectives from diverse national and global approaches lesbian and queer theory and postmodernism to education and aesthetics Includes many classic texts but is particularly notable for its inclusion of rare and significant material not reprinted elsewhere Provides a uniquely flexible resource for study and research due to its scale and structure each of the seven sections focuses on a specific area of debate with texts arranged chronologically in order to show how issues and arguments developed over time

New York New Wave Kathy Battista, 2019-01-24 New York is a centre of creative production for an exciting emerging generation of women artists Their work investigates themes such as the body as medium and subject matter the deconstruction of the existing patriarchal order of the art world the appropriation of earlier art historical references and the use of so called abject and everyday materials New York New Wave investigates the relevance of earlier feminist practice for this new generation asking Does gender difference still play a role in today's practice How can younger women artists embrace a radical political ideology and yet remain market friendly How far have these artists diverged from the established feminist tradition Artists discussed include Firelei Baez EV Day Ruby LaToya Fraser Diana Al Hadid K8 Hardy Valerie Hegarty Cindy Hinant Dawn Kasper Anya Kielar Liz Magic Laser Narcissister Alix Pearlstein Aurel Schmidt AL Steiner and W A G E

Art School Steven Henry Madoff, 2009-09-11 Leading international artists and art educators consider the challenges of art education in today's dramatically changed art world The last explosive change in art education came nearly a century ago when the German Bauhaus was formed Today dramatic changes in the art world its increasing professionalization the pervasive power of the art market and fundamental shifts in art making itself in our post Duchampian era combined with a revolution in information technology raise fundamental questions about the education of today's artists Art School Propositions for the 21st Century brings together more than thirty leading international artists and art educators to reconsider the practices of art education in academic practical ethical and philosophical terms The essays in the book range over continents histories traditions experiments and fantasies of education Accompanying the essays are conversations with such prominent artist educators as John Baldessari Michael Craig Martin Hans Haacke and Marina Abramovic as well as questionnaire responses from a dozen important artists among them Mike Kelley Ann Hamilton Guillermo Kuitca and Shirin Neshat about their own experiences as students A fascinating analysis of the architecture of major historical art schools throughout the world looks at the relationship of the principles of their designs to the principles of the pedagogy practiced within their halls And throughout the volume attention is paid to new initiatives and proposals about what an art school can and should be in the twenty first century and what it shouldn't be No other book on the subject covers more of the questions concerning art education today or offers more insight into the pressures challenges risks and opportunities for artists and art educators in the years ahead Contributors Marina Abramovic Dennis Adams John Baldessari Ute Meta Bauer Daniel Birnbaum Saskia Bos Tania Bruguera Luis Camnitzer Michael Craig Martin Thierry de Duve Clementine Deliss Charles Esche Liam Gillick Boris Groys Hans Haacke Ann Lauterbach Ken Lum Steven Henry Madoff Brendan D Moran Ernesto Pujol Raqs Media Collective Charles Renfro Jeffrey T Schnapp Michael Shanks Robert Storr Anton Vidokle Retroactivity and Contemporary Art Craig Staff, 2018-04-19 Contemporary art is often preoccupied with time or acts in which the past is recovered Through specific case studies of artists who strategically work with historical moments this book examines how art from the last two decades has sought to mobilize these particular histories and to what effect against the backdrop of Modernism Drawing on the art theory of Rosalind Krauss and the philosophies of Paul Ricoeur Gerhard Richter and Pierre Nora Retroactivity and Contemporary Art interprets those works that foreground some aspect of retroactivity whether re enacting commemorating or re imagining as key artistic strategies This book is striking philosophical reflection on time within art and art within time and an indispensable read for those attempting to understand the artistic significance of history materiality and memory Experimental Systems Michael Schwab, 2013 In the sciences the experimental approach has proved its worth in generating what subsequently requires understanding Can the emergent field of artistic research be inspired by recent thinking about the history and workings of science Art and Postcapitalism Dave Beech, 2019-10-20 Artistic labour was exemplary for Utopian Socialist theories of attractive labour and Marxist theories of nonalienated labour but the rise of the anti work movement and current theories of fully automated luxury communism have seen art topple from its privileged place within the left's political imaginary as the artist has been reconceived as a prototype of the precarious 24/7 worker Art and Postcapitalism argues that art remains essential for thinking about the intersection of labour capitalism and postcapitalism not insofar as it merges work and pleasure but as an example of noncapitalist production Reassessing the contemporary politics of work by revisiting debates about art technology and in the nineteenth and twentieth century Dave Beech challenges the aesthetics of labour in John Ruskin William Morris and Oscar Wilde with a value theory of the supersession of capitalism that sheds light on the anti work theory by Silvia Federici Andre Gorz Kathi Weeks and Maurizio Lazzarato as well as the technological Cockayne of Srnicek and Williams and Paul Mason Formulating a critique of contemporary postcapitalism and developing a new understanding of art and labour within the political project of the supersession of value production this book is essential for activists scholars and anyone interested in the real and imagined escape routes from capitalism Allan Kaprow, Robert Smithson, and the Limits to Art Philip Ursprung, Fiona Elliott, 2013-05-10 This innovative study of two of the most important artists of the twentieth century links the art practices of Allan Kaprow and Robert Smithson in their attempts to test the limits of art both what it is and where it is Ursprung provides a sophisticated yet accessible analysis placing the two artists firmly in the art world of the 1960s as well as in the art historical discourse of the following decades Although their practices were quite different they both extended the studio and gallery into desert landscapes abandoned warehouses industrial sites train stations and other spaces Ursprung bolsters his argument with substantial archival research and sociological and economic models of expansion and limits
