Macmillan Biographical Encyclopedia of Photographic Artists & Innovators Turner Browne, Elaine Partnow, 1983 Identifies hundreds of photographers critics and inventors describes their backgrounds and indicates publications and the locations of collections of their work Macmillan Biographical Encyclopedia of Photographic Artists and Innovators Turner Browne, Elaine Partnow, 1981 Dictionary of Women Artists: Introductory surveys ; Artists, A-I Delia Gaze, 1997 First Published in 1997 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Art Books Wolfgang M. Freitag, 2013-10-28 First published in 1997 For this second edition of Art Books A Basic Bibliography of Monographs on Artists the vast number of new books published since 1985 was surveyed and evaluated This has resulted in the selection of 3 395 additional titles These selections reflective of the increase in the monographic literature on artists during the last ten years are evidence of the activities of a larger number of art historians in more countries worldwide of the increasingly diverse and ambitious exhibition programs of museums whose number has also increased dramatically and also of a lively international art market and the attendant gallery activities The selections of the first edition have been reviewed errors have been corrected and important new editions and reprints have been noted The second edition contains 278 names of artists not represented in the first edition Artists in Ohio, 1787-1900 Mary Sayre Haverstock, Jeannette Mahoney Vance, Brian L. Meggitt, 2000 A three volume guide to the early art and artists of Ohio It includes coverage of fine art photography ornamental penmanship tombstone carving china painting illustrating cartooning and the execution of panoramas and theatrical scenery North American Women Artists of the Twentieth Century Jules Heller, Nancy G. Heller, 2013-12-19 First Published in 1997 North American Women Artists of the Twentieth Century A Biographical Dictionary was created to fill a gap of there being a comprehensive reference work like this available even though the bibliography in English on various aspects of the history of women artists has grown exponentially during the past ten years As researchers the editors have been frustrated many times by being unable to locate basic information about many of the artists included in this volume especially those working outside the United States This leads directly to another reason for producing this particular kind of reference book to try and create a better understanding between and among the artists and art audiences in these countries Guide to Photographic Collections at the Smithsonian Institution: National Museum of American History Smithsonian Institution, 1989 The Photographic Legacy of Frances Benjamin Johnston Maria Elizabeth Ausherman, 2022-08-15 One of the first women to work in an emerging field dominated by men Frances Benjamin Johnston 1864 1952 achieved acclaim in the late nineteenth century as an accomplished photographer Her career spanned nearly seventy years during which she became respected for her portraiture artistic studies photojournalism and garden and architectural photography She was instrumental in defining the medium and inspiring women to train in and appreciate photography Though the socially well connected Johnston was popular among prestigious celebrities of the day she worked as the official White House photographer for five administrations it is her monumental nine state survey of southern American architecture that stands as her most significant contribution to the history and development of photography both as art and as documentary Drawing upon Johnston's original papers and photographs from the Library of Congress Maria Ausherman's examination of this extraordinary photographer's career shows both the early origins of her style and vision and her attempts to change society through her art Photographers Peter E. Palmquist, 2000 The Covarrubias Circle Peter Mears, 2004 New York in the 1920s and 1930s was a modernist mecca that drew artists writers and other creators of culture from around the globe Two such expatriates were Mexican artist and Renaissance man Miguel Covarrubias and Hungarian photographer Nickolas Muray Their lifelong friendship gave Muray an entrance into Covarrubias's circle of fellow Mexican artists Frida Kahlo Rufino Tamayo Juan Soriano Fernando Castillo Guillermo Meza Roberto Montenegro and Rafael Navarro whose works Muray collected This outstanding body of Mexican modernist art now owned by the Harry Ransom Humanities Research Center HRC at the University of Texas at Austin forms the subject of this beautifully illustrated volume Produced in conjunction with the Ransom Center's exhibition Miguel Covarrubias A Certain Clairvoyance this volume contains color plates of virtually all the items in Nickolas Muray's collection of twentieth century Mexican art The majority of the works are by Covarrubias while the excellent works by the other artists reflect the range of aesthetic shifts and modernist influences of the period in Mexico Accompanying the plates are five original essays that establish Covarrubias's importance as a modernist impresario as influential in his sphere as Ezra Pound T S Eliot and Jean Cocteau were in theirs Likewise the essays reestablish the significance of Nickolas Muray whose success as a master of color photography portraiture advertising imagery and commercial illustration has made him difficult to place within the history of photography as a fine art As a whole this publication of the Nickolas Muray Collection vividly illustrates the transgression of generic boundaries and the cross fertilization among artists working in different media from painting and photography to dance and ethnography that gave modernism its freshness and energy It also demonstrates that American modernism was thoroughly infused with a fervor for all things Mexican of which Covarrubias was a principal proponent and that Mexican modernists no less than their American and European counterparts answered Pound's call to make it new
