The Forsyte Saga John Galsworthy, 2020-03-25T22:15:30Z Between 1906 and 1921 John Galsworthy published three novels chronicling the Forsyte family a fictional upper middle class family at the end of the Victorian era The Man of Property In Chancery and To Let In 1922 Galsworthy wrote two interconnecting short stories to bind the three novels together and published the whole as The Forsyte Saga While the novels follow the Forsyte family at large the action centers around Soames Forsyte the scion of a nouveau riche London tea merchant his wife Irene and their unhappy marriage Soames and his sprawling family are portrayed as stereotypes of unhappy gilded age wealth their family having entered the industrial revolution poor farmers and emerged as wealthy bourgeoisie Their rise was powered by their capacity to acquire won at the expense of their capacity for almost anything else Thematically the saga focuses on the mores of the wealthy upper middle class which was still a newish feature in the class landscape of England at the time duty honor and love and the rapidly growing differences across generations occurring in a period of war and social change The characters are complex and nuanced and the situations they find themselves in both of their own making and of the making of society around them provide a rich field for analyzing the close of the Victorian age the dawn of the Edwardian age and the societal frameworks that were forged in that frisson Galsworthy went on to win the Nobel Prize in Literature in 1932 for The Forsyte Saga one of the rare occasions in which the Swedish Academy has awarded a prize for a specific work instead of for a lifetime of work This book is part of the Standard Ebooks project which produces free public domain ebooks

Not So Long Ago Mike Moran, 2013-10-01

Not So Long Ago is a collection of short stories set in a Sussex town in the 1960s. The interlocking themes are of chance meetings and changing lives and all stories cluster around one group of characters. Here we read about Jos's and Annette's meeting at the swimming club which ignites a long relationship. Melissa and Fred collide when she knocks him over while riding her bike and both stumble towards a relationship. Alfredo and Maria meet at school and stay together despite arguments. Chris, artistic with wealthy parents, falls for Dora but on seeing her in a pub is beaten up by her boyfriend. By the end, all the characters have progressed in life and in relationships. This new collection will appeal to readers who want stories that engage them, are prepared for sudden plot twists and enjoy a nostalgic 60s setting. Not So Long Ago offers readers the narrative intensity of the short story with the character development associated with a novel.
