Brown, 2017-09-21 Throughout his career Henri Matisse used imagery as a means of engaging critically with poetry and prose by a diverse range of authors Kathryn Brown offers a groundbreaking account of Matisse's position in the literary cross currents of 20th century France and explores ways in which reading influenced the artist's work in a range of media This study argues that the livre d'artiste became the privileged means by which Matisse enfolded literature into his own idiom and demonstrated the centrality of his aesthetic to modernist debates about authorship and creativity By tracing the compositional and interpretive choices that Matisse made as a painter print maker and reader in the field of book production this study offers a new theoretical account of visual art's capacity to function as a form of literary criticism and extends debates about the gendering of 20th century bibliophilia Brown also demonstrates the importance of Matisse's self placement in relation to the French literary canon in the charged political climate of the Second World War and its aftermath Through a combination of archival resources art history and literary criticism this study offers a new interpretation of Matisse's artist's books and will be of interest to art historians literary scholars and researchers in book history and modernism

Rereading Modernist Postcards Bradley D. Clissold, 2023-08-31 Informed by both new and old media theory materialist approaches to the study of everyday objects and a series of close readings that chart the critical history of postcard use in the fiction and correspondence of Ernest Hemingway Ring Lardner James Joyce and Wilfred Owen this book locates and attempts to rediscover lost misplaced and neglected postcard materialities as they relate to the archiving editing publishing and fictional repurposing of postcards across Anglo American Literary Modernism 1880 1939 It argues that postcards need to be recognized as important early twentieth century communication technologies and distinctly modernist textualities composed of multimedia recto verso intertextualities Moreover their material limitations encourage users to inscribe messages often in fragmented language forms and innovative cultural shorthands a k a postcardese This study redresses the ongoing widespread scholarly neglect of signifying postcard materialities in modernist studies and the editorial silencing of postcard features in collections of published author correspondence It also stresses that for these four literary figures of modernism the material choice of a postcard for communicating is always as much the meta message as any of the signifying materialities they carry uploaded onto their platforming surfaces      Matisse's War Peter Everett, 2010-12-15 At seventy Henri Matisse is a trim clean old gentleman with a passion for naked women He is UN MONSTRE SACRE who
