Matter Is Life:

Matter of Life, 1996-10 Vedic concepts of Mind, Matter and Life Srikanth s, The answers to several questions which are baffling scientists and philosophers today are contained within the treasure house of the Vedas as well as the solutions to several daunting problems threatening human society Access to these answers would open up the possibility of a quantum leap into a world of new truths and new experiences and a study of the knowledge contained in these texts should also help in understanding the founding principles of one of the most ancient civilisations in human history Together these could indicate to us the road to the establishment of an enduring harmony and happiness on our planet The current work attempts to Introduce the reader to the unexplored treasury of humankind s ancient insights The discovery opens fascinating vistas and offers glimpses of the origins of the universe It transports us to a forgotten era when the human mind had attained dazzling heights and delved deep into the mysteries of existence Our supreme concern is to offer a glimpse of these insights of the Vedas in a manner which makes sense to the modern mind and yet does not distort but only translates the insights of the seer scientists who composed the Vedas We shall endeavour to avoid the pitfall of merely expressing our own ideas in the language of a foreign culture To investigate the Vedas fully is a lifetime s work for someone possessed of a superior intelligence This book of necessity is a brief exploration of Vedic knowledge written in the hope that the essence of this fount of wisdom may be conveyed to the reader in an unadulterated form This work is offered to the reading public in the belief that its subject contains much that is valuable for today s troubled global society We follow this with an exploration of Vedic spirituality in its pure form uncovering the real meaning of the terms falsely interpreted by Western scholars as gods and goddesses We include extracts from the ancient texts liberally endowed with poetry and metaphor to illustrate the truths of the cosmic view revealed to humankind through the Vedas Matter and Life in Coleridge, Schelling, and Other

Krüger,2018-12-01 Signposts to Silence provides a theoretical map of what it terms metaphysical mysticism the search for the furthest most inclusive horizon the domain of silence which underlies the religious and metaphysical urge of humankind in its finest forms Tracing the footsteps of pioneers of this exploration the investigation also documents a number of historical pilgrimages from a variety of cultural and religious backgrounds Such mountaineers of the spirit who created paths trodden by groups of followers over centuries and in some cases millennia include Lao Tzu and Chuang Tzu Siddhattha and Jesus Sankara and Fa tsang Plato and Plotinus Isaac Luria and Ibn Arabi Aquinas and Hegel Such figures teachings and traditions including the religions of Judaism Christianity and Islam Hinduism Buddhism and Taoism are understood as at their most sublime not final destiny and the end of the road but signposts to a horizon of ultimate silence The hermeneutical method employed in tracking such pioneers involves four steps sound historical critical understanding of the context of the various traditions and figures reconstruction of the subjective intentional structure of such persons and their teachings design by the author of a theoretical map of the overall terrain of metaphysical mysticism on which all such journeys of the spirit are to be located while providing a theoretical context for understanding them tendentially i e taking the ultimate drift of their thinking essentially to transcend their subjective intentions drawing out within the space available some political taken in a wide sense implications from the above such as religio political stances as well as ecological and gender implications Continuing the general direction of thought within what the author endorses to be the best in metaphysical mysticism in its historical manifestations the book aims to contribute to peace amongst religions in the contemporary global cultural situation It relativizes all claims to exclusive absolute truth that might be proclaimed by any religious or metaphysical mystical position while providing space for not only tolerating but also affirming the unique value and dignity of each This orientation moves beyond the stances of enmity or indifference or syncretism or homogenisation of all as well as that of mere friendly toleration It investigates the seemingly daunting and inhospitable yet immensely significant Antarctica

Why should Christians care about what Atheists believe It is easy to discover what Atheists have to say about Christianity and Christians Pick up a book by any modern Atheist writer read a few random pages and the reader will have a sampling of the criticisms Atheists have regarding religion and people of faith A natural first response is the desire to set the record straight A person responding this way will quickly find themselves going in circles This is one point Christians need to accept and understand From the Christian s perspective it serves no useful purpose when Christians engage Atheists in an attempt to set the record straight Atheism is a worldview or a way of seeing the world Just as the Christian sees their Christian faith as reasonable and rational the Atheist has the same view of what they believe to be true Atheists vary in their definition of what it means to be an Atheist There are however common themes found in the beliefs of people identifying themselves as Atheist It is common for example to find people identifying themselves as Atheists to believe the natural world is all there is This of course excludes the supernatural and since God operates outside of nature God is supernatural and is therefore eliminated in the thinking of Atheism How should the Christian respond when Atheists challenge Christian beliefs How can the Christian respond effectively unless the Christian understands what Atheists believe How can the Christian respond unless the Christian understands why Atheists believe as they do The apostle Paul tells Christians to be ambassadors Ambassadors need to understand the world in which they serve This is why Christians should care about what Atheists believe
