Maya And Miguel Family Fix Up:

Maya and Miguel C. Tobin, 2005 Maya decides her grandmother Elena is lonely and needs to go out on a date so she gets her twin brother Miguel to help her fix Abuela Elena up with the mailman Se nor Felipe even though Miguel doesn't think it is a good idea Maya & Miguel, Family Fix-up, 2005 The ten year old Santos twins Maya and Miguel create some confusion when Maya decides that their grandmother is lonely and they need to fix her up with a date Family Fix-up C. Tobin, 2005-01-01 The ten year old Santos twins Maya and Miguel create some confusion when Maya decides that their grandmother is lonely and they need to fix her up with a date Kids' TV Grows Up Jo Holz, 2017-08-23 In the early days of television suburban families welcomed TV into their homes as an electronic babysitter that would also teach their children about the world Children's programming soon came to play a key role in the development of mass culture promoting the shared interests norms and vocabulary through which children interact with peers and define themselves as a cohort This social history examines the forces driving the development of children's television in the U S from its inception to the present Analyses of iconic programs reveal how they influenced our concept of childhood Patterns, 2004 Brandweek, 2005-10 TV Guide, 2004-11 The Documented Child Maya Socolovsky, 2025-02-04 Immigration is at once a personal immediate and urgent issue that plays a central role in the United States perception of itself In The Documented Child scholar Maya Socolovsky demonstrates how the portrayal of Latinx children has shifted over the first two decades of the twenty first century in literary texts aimed at children and young adults and looks at how these shifts map onto broader changes in immigration policy and discourse Through a critical inquiry into picture books and middle grade and young adult literature Socolovsky argues that the literary documentations of and for U S Latinx children have shifted over the decades from an emphasis on hybrid transnationalism to that of a more American oriented self Socolovsky delves into texts written from 1997 to 2020 a period marked by tremendous changes in U S immigration policies amplified discourses around nationhood and an increasingly militarized border The author shows how children's and young adult books have shifted their depictions of the border personal and national identity and sovereignty For students scholars and educators of Latinx studies and children's literature this work shows how the creators of children's literature reflect new strategies for representing the undocumented Latinx child protagonist While earlier books document the child as a transnational sometimes global subject later books document her as both a transnational and U S national subject The Documented Child explores this change as a necessary survival strategy reflecting current awareness that cultural hybridity and transnational identity are not sufficient stand ins for the stability and security of legal personhood Aging Heroes Norma Jones, Bob Batchelor, 2015-05-06 Despite the increasing number and variety of older characters appearing in film television comics and other popular culture much of the understanding of these figures has been limited to outdated stereotypes of aging These include depictions of frailty resistance to modern life and mortality More importantly these stereotypes influence the daily lives of aging adults as well as how younger generations perceive and interact with older individuals In light of our graying population and the growing diversity of portrayals of older characters in popular culture it is important to examine how we understand aging In Aging Heroes Growing Old in Popular Culture Norma Jones and Bob Batchelor present a collection of essays that address the increasing presence of characters that simultaneously manifest and challenge the accepted stereotypes of aging The contributors to this volume explore representations in television programs comic books theater and other forms of media The chapters include examinations of aging male and female actors who take on leading roles in such movies as Gran Torino Grudge Match Escape Plan Space Cowboys Taken and The Big Lebowski as well as The Expendables Red and X Men franchises Other chapters address perceptions of masculinity sexuality gender and race as manifested by such cultural icons as Superman Wonder Woman Danny Trejo Helen Mirren Betty White Liberace and Tyler Perry's Madea With multi disciplinary and accessible essays that encompass the expanding spectrum of aging and related stereotypes this book offers a broader range of new ways to understand perceive and think about aging Aging Heroes will be of interest to scholars of film television gender studies women's studies sociology aging studies and media studies as well as to general readers

Languages in the Crossfire Jesús Baigorri-Jalón, 2021-07-06 This book sheds light on the important role played by interpreters during the Spanish Civil War offering a historical overview of the ways in which interpreters on both sides mediated the myriad linguistic cultural and ethical difficulties of wartime communication Drawing on archives interpreters memoirs and testimonies from their own children the volume extends beyond traditional historiographic accounts to demonstrate the significance of interpreters work in facilitating communication during the war across a range of settings including in combat hospitals interrogations detention camps and propaganda Baigorri Jalón showcases the diverse backgrounds of these interpreters through individual and collective portraits paying special attention to the work of the many women working as interpreters during the conflict In turning its attention to lessons from the past the book reaffirms the work of interpreters in present day international conflicts toward better understanding the ethical dilemmas they face in wars humanitarian aid demobilization tasks and multilingual criminal proceedings This volume the first book in the Routledge Research on Translation and Interpreting History series will be of interest to scholars in translation and interpreting studies particularly those interested in historical and sociological approaches as well as Spanish Civil War scholarship
