Wace and Blegen C.W. Zerner, 2024-02-19 This international conference sponsored jointly by the American School of Classical Studies and the British School of Archaeology at Athens was dedicated to the memories of Alan John Bayard Wace and Carl William Blegen and to their long archaeological collaboration. The main theme of the conference was taken from their pioneering article Pottery as Evidence for Trade and Colonisation in the Aegean Bronze Age Klio 32 1939. The papers presented reflect the current state of scholarly opinion about prehistoric pottery from Mainland Greece and the extensive trade in that pottery 50 years after Wace and Blegen's article. With 39 papers by archaeologists from 13 countries, the volume presents comprehensive surveys by period and area as well as detailed discussions of new finds and problems ranging from the Early Middle and Late Bronze Ages on the Mainland and islands of Greece as well as Cyprus, the Levant, Egypt, Anatolia and Italy. Minoan Realities Diamantis Panagiotopoulos, 2012. What is the social role of images and architecture in a pre-modern society? How were they used to create adequate environments for specific profane and ritual activities? In which ways did they interact with each other? These and other crucial issues on the social significance of imagery and built structures in Neopalatial Crete were the subject of a workshop which took place on November 16th 2009 at the University of Heidelberg. The papers presented in the workshop are collected in the present volume. They provide different approaches to this complex topic and are aimed at a better understanding of the formation, role and perception of images and architecture in a very dynamic social landscape. The Cretan Neopalatial period saw a rapid increase in the number of palaces and villas characterized by elaborate designs and idiosyncratic architectural patterns which were themselves in turn generated by a pressing desire for a distinctive social and performative environment. Dictionary of Bibliographic Abbreviations Found in the Scholarship of Classical Studies and Related Disciplines Jean S. Wellington, 2003-08-30. Trying to identify abbreviated titles of journals and standard bibliographic works is a major difficulty facing researchers and librarians in the field of Classical Studies. This revised edition has been greatly expanded with nearly twice the abbreviations (17 000) and bibliographic entries (12 400) as the first edition. Also, the Greek and Cyrillic abbreviations have increased by seven and four fold respectively. Abbreviations for internet sites are now included, as are those for associations in the broad area of Classical Studies. There are also more entries for Eastern European and regional archaeological publications. This revised volume is divided into two parts. Part One consists of an alphabetical listing of bibliographic abbreviations found in the scholarship of classical studies and related disciplines. Meanwhile, Part Two is an alphabetically arranged bibliographic descriptions for the works published in classical studies and related disciplines. Special efforts were made to increase the coverage in peripheral areas, making this new edition a useful reference tool for scholars in all subjects of study in the ancient and medieval world. Midea Gisela Walberg, 2007-12-30. Two volume set of text and figures and plates. This volume presents the 1994-1997 excavation of the Lower Terraces of the Mycenaean citadel of Midea in the Argolid Plain of Greece. It complements the author's previous volume on the Lower Terraces of Midea which was published in 1998. A shrine and megaron were discovered on Terraces 9 and 10. The stratigraphy, architecture, pottery, lithics, small finds and human and faunal remains dating from the Final Neolithic through Byzantine periods are discussed and

cataloged Additionally the continuous sequence of LH IIIB LH IIIC strata on the Lower Terraces revealed the ground plan and expansion of the megaron complex
