heart The Generation of Postmemory Marianne Hirsch, 2012-06-26 Can we remember other people's memories? The Generation of Postmemory argues we can: that memories of traumatic events live on to mark the lives of those who were not there to experience them. Children of survivors and their contemporaries inherit catastrophic histories not through direct recollection but through haunting postmemories: multiply mediated images, objects, stories, behaviors, and affects passed down within the family and the culture at large. In these new and revised critical readings of the literary and visual legacies of the Holocaust and other related sites of memory, Marianne Hirsch builds on her influential concept of postmemory. The book's chapters, two of which were written collaboratively with the historian Leo Spitzer, engage the work of postgeneration artists and writers such as Art Spiegelman, W.G. Sebald, Eva Hoffman, Tatjana Kellner, Muriel Hasbun, Anne Karpff, Lily Brett, Lorie Novak, David Levinthal, Nancy Spero, and Susan Meiselas. Grappling with the ethics of empathy and identification, these artists attempt to forge a creative postmemorial aesthetic that reanimates the past without appropriating it. In her analyses of their fractured texts, Hirsch locates the roots of the familial and affiliative practices of postmemory in feminism and other movements for social change. Using feminist critical strategies to connect past and present words and images and memory and gender, she brings the entangled strands of disparate traumatic histories into more intimate contact. With more than fifty illustrations, her text enables a multifaceted encounter with foundational and cutting-edge theories in memory, trauma, gender, and visual culture, eliciting a new understanding of history and our place in it. Tikim: Essays on Philippine Food and Culture Doreen G. Fernandez, 2019-10-07 Tikim: Essays on Philippine Food and Culture by Doreen G. Hardee, 2017-12-01 A forgotten account written in the immediate aftermath of World War II which vividly portrays the valor, sacrifice, suffering, and liberation of the defenders of Bataan and Corregidor through the eyes of one survivor. The personal memoir of Colonel David L. Hardee, first drafted at sea from April to May 1945 following his liberation from Japanese captivity, is a thorough treatment of his time in the Philippines. A career infantry officer, Hardee fought during the Battle of Bataan as executive officer of the Provisional Air Corps Regiment. Captured in April 1942 after the American surrender on Bataan, Hardee survived the Bataan Death March and proceeded to endure a series of squalid prison camps. A debilitating hernia left Hardee too ill to travel to Japan in 1944, making him one of the few lieutenant colonels to remain in the Philippines and subsequently survive the war. As a primary account written almost immediately after his liberation, Hardee's memoir is fresh, vivid, and devoid of decades of faded memories or contemporary influences associated with memoirs written years after an experience This once forgotten memoir has been carefully edited illustrated and annotated to unlock the true depths of Hardee s experience as a soldier prisoner and liberated survivor of the Pacific War From Hardtack to Homefries Barbara Haber,2010-05-11 Barbara Haber one of America s most respected authorities on the history of food has spent years excavating fascinating stories of the ways in which meals cooked and served by women have shaped American history As any cook knows every meal and every diet has a story whether it relates to presidents and first ladies or to the poorest of urban immigrants From Hardtack to Home Fries brings together the best and most inspiring of those stories from the 1840s to the present focusing on a remarkable assembly of little known or forgotten Americans who determined what our country ate during some of its most trying periods Haber s secret weapon is the cookbook She unearths cookbooks and menus from rich and poor urban and rural long past and near present and uses them to answer some fascinating puzzles Why was the food in Franklin and Eleanor Roosevelt s White House so famously bad Were they trying to keep guests away or did they themselves simply lack the taste to realize the truth It turns out that Eleanor s chef wrote a cookbook which solves the mystery How did food lure settlers to the hardship of the American West Englishman Fred Harvey s Harvey Girls tempted them with good food and good women How did cooking keep alive World War II Army and Navy POWs in the Pacific A remarkable cookbook reveals how recollections of home cooking and cooking resourcefulness helped mend bodies and spirits From Hardtack to Home Fries uses a light touch to survey a deeply important subject Women s work and women s roles in America s past have not always been easy to recover Barbara Haber shows us that a single ubiquitous ordinary yet extraordinary lens can illuminate a great deal of this other half of our past Haber includes sample recipes and rich photographs bringing the food of bygone eras back to life From Hardtack to Home Fries is a feast and a delight Surviving Bataan and Beyond Irvin Alexander,2005 Colonel Irvin Alexander was one of the few captured at Bataan to survive the nightmarish experience of imprisonment in Japanese prison camps His account is a harrowing description of one of the most notorious incidents in World War Two Originally published 1999

Barbecue Tim Miller,2014-08-07 Barbecue A History examines barbecue s history and place in American society using both historical and contemporary sources The book examines all aspects of barbecue Outdoor grilling and traditional slow cooking Restaurant and home cooking International forms of barbecue The specific foods involved in a barbecue The concept of the barbecue as a gathering Historical and contemporary recipes for main and side dishes Readers are treated here to a delightful and thorough history of barbecue including its appearance in music television and film and a consideration of how we think of and enjoy barbecue today The Rotarian ,1947-01 Established in 1911 The Rotarian is the official magazine of Rotary International and is circulated worldwide Each issue contains feature articles columns and departments about or of interest to Rotarians Seventeen Nobel Prize winners and 19 Pulitzer Prize winners from Mahatma Ghandi to Kurt Vonnegut Jr have written for the magazine Parents' Magazine ,1946 The Manuscript Inventories and the Catalogs of Manuscripts, Books, and Periodicals: Book catalog, Pio-State L Arthur and Elizabeth Schlesinger Library on the History of Women in America,1984 Tears in the Darkness Michael Norman,Elizabeth M. Norman,2009-06-09 Tears in the Darkness is an altogether new look at World War II that exposes the myths of war and shows the extent of suffering and loss on both sides For the first four months of 1942 U S Filipino and Japanese soldiers fought what was America s first major land battle of World War II the battle for the tiny Philippine peninsula of Bataan It ended with the surrender of 76 000 Filipinos and Americans the single largest defeat in American military history The defeat though was only the beginning as Michael and Elizabeth M Norman make dramatically clear in this powerfully original book From then until the Japanese surrendered in August 1945 the prisoners of war suffered an ordeal of unparalleled cruelty and savagery forty one months of captivity starvation rations dehydration hard labor deadly disease and torture far from the machinations of General Douglas MacArthur The Normans bring to the story remarkable feats of reportage and literary empathy Their protagonist Ben Steele is a figure out of Hemingway a young cowboy turned sketch artist from Montana who joined the army to see the world Juxtaposed against Steele s story and the sobering tale of the Death March and its aftermath is the story of a number of Japanese soldiers The Publishers Weekly ,1946
