Recits De Lombre 19401945:

Origins and Legacies of Marcel Duhamel's Série Noire Alistair Charles Rolls, Clara Dominique Sitbon, Marie-Laure Jacqueline Vuaille-Barcan, 2017-12-18 In Origins and Legacies of Marcel Duhamel's Série Noire Alistair Rolls, Clara Sitbon and Marie-Laure Vuaille Barcan counter the myths and received wisdom that are typically associated with this iconic French crime fiction series namely that it was born in Paris on a tide of postwar euphoria that it initially consisted of translations of American hard boiled classics by the likes of Dashiell Hammett and Raymond Chandler and that the translations were rushed and rather approximate Instead an alternative vision of Duhamel's translation practice is proposed one based on a French tradition of auto or original translation of ostensibly American crime fiction and one that appropriates the source text in order to create an allegory of the target culture

France: The Dark Years, 1940-1944 Julian Jackson, 2003-03-05 The French call them the Dark Years This definitive new history of Occupied France explores the myths and realities of four of the most divisive years in French history Taking in ordinary people's experiences of defeat collaboration resistance and liberation it uncovers the conflicting memories of occupation which ensure that even today France continues to debate the legacy of the Vichy years

The French Writers' War, 1940-1953 Gisèle Sapiro, 2014-04-23 The French Writers' War 1940-1953 is a remarkably thorough account of French writers and literary institutions from the beginning of the German Occupation through France's passage of amnesty laws in the early 1950s To understand how the Occupation affected French literary production as a whole Gisèle Sapiro uses Pierre Bourdieu's notion of the literary field Sapiro surveyed the career trajectories and literary and political positions of 185 writers She found that writers' stances in relation to the Vichy regime are best explained in terms of institutional and structural factors rather than ideology Examining four major French literary institutions from the conservative French Academy to the Comité national des écrivains a group formed in 1941 to resist the Occupation she chronicles the institutions' histories before turning to the ways that they influenced writers' political positions Sapiro shows how significant institutions and individuals within France's literary field exacerbated their loss of independence or found ways of resisting during the war and Occupation as well as how they were perceived after Liberation

Art of the Defeat Laurence Bertrand Dorléac, 2008 Art of the Defeat offers an unflinching look at the pivotal role art played in France during the German occupation It begins with Adolf Hitler s staging of the armistice at Rethondes and moves across the dark years analyzing the official junket by French artists to Germany the exhibition of Arno Breker s colossi in Paris the looting of the state museums and Jewish collections the glorification of Philippe P tain and a pure national identity the demonization of modernists and foreigners and the range of responses by artists and artisans The sum is a pioneering expos of the deployment of art and ideology to hold the heart of darkness at bay Page 4 of cover
