Carol-Ann Hooper, 2013-01-11 Despite increased recognition of the high incidence of child sexual abuse little attention has so far been paid to the women on whom children primarily depend for care and protection their mothers Informed by theory and research on other situations involving loss secrecy and moral dilemmas as well as the rapidly accumulating knowledge of child sexual abuse Mothers Surviving Child Sexual Abuse offers a new analysis of mother s reactions and responses presenting a fresh perspective on a shocking problem for practitioners and policy makers involved in child protection as well as students and lecturers of social work and social studies and women s studies Too Scared To Learn Jenny Horsman, 2013-01-11 Too Scared to Learn explores the impact of women s experiences of violence on their learning and proposes radical changes to educational programs through connecting therapeutic and educational discourses Little attention has previously been paid to the impact of violence on learning A large percentage of women who come to adult literacy programs have experienced or are currently experiencing violence in their lives This experience of violence negatively affects their ability to improve their literacy skills Literacy programs and other educational programs have not integrated this reality into their work This book builds on extensive research that revealed the wide range of impacts violence has on adult literacy learning Interviews with counselors and therapists literacy learners and educators working in different situations and a wide range of theoretical and experiential literature form the basis of the analysis Educators are offered information to support reconceptualizing programs and practices and making concrete changes that will enable women to learn more effectively The book makes clear that without an acknowledgment of the impact of violence on learning women rather than getting a chance to succeed and improve their literacy skills get only a chance to fail confirming to themselves that they really cannot learn Essential reading for literacy and adult education practitioners teachers of English as a second language and education theorists Too Scared to Learn explores the intersection among trauma psychological theory and pedagogy The book is filled with a wealth of practical ideas possibilities and thoughts about what practitioners might do differently in classrooms and educational institutions if we begin to think differently about violence Coming Back to Jail Elizabeth Comack,2021-01-10T00:00:00Z Published some two decades ago Elizabeth Comack's Women in Trouble explored the connections between the women's abuse histories and their law violations as well as their experience of imprisonment in an aged facility What has changed for incarcerated women in those twenty years Are experiences of abuse continuing to have an impact on the lives of criminalized women How do women find the experience of imprisonment in a new facility Drawing on the stories of forty two incarcerated women Coming Back to Jail broadens the focus to examine the role of trauma in the women's lives Resisting the popular move to understand trauma in psychiatric terms as post traumatic stress disorder ptsd the book frames trauma as lived experience and locates the women's lives within the context of a settler colonial capitalist patriarchal society Doing so enables a better appreciation of the social conditions that produce trauma and the problems conflicts and dilemmas that bring women into the criminal justice net In Coming Back to Jail Comack shows how despite recent moves to be more gender responsive the prisoning of women is ultimately more punishing than empowering What is more because the sources of the women's trauma reside in the systemic processes that have contoured their lives and their communities true healing will require changing women's social circumstances on the outside so they no longer keep coming back to jail Acts of Abuse Adam Sampson,2003-05-20 Sexual crime is a topic of massive public concern Yet the debate over its causes and the appropriate responses of the criminal justice system is often fuelled by ignorance and prejudice with little understanding of the reality of sexual crime Acts of Abuse explores the response of the criminal justice system to this important issue Its author Adam Sampson examines the existing research about the causes of rape and child abuse the number of offences being committed and the policy of the courts He then examines in detail the responses of the probation service and the prison system to the increased number of offenders with which they are being required to deal Written by a prominent critic of the British penal system this is the first comprehensive survey of the phenomenon of sexual crime in the British penal context It will appeal to students and all those with an interest in issues relating to crime and justice No Life Like It Harrison, Deborah,Laliberte, Lucie,1994 Acknowledgements Introduction 1 No Life Like It 2 Absences 3 The Gulf War 4 Postings 5 Missed Opportunities 6 Cover Ups 7 Endings 8 Resistance Notes References Index Up Against Foucault Caroline Ramazanoglu,2002-11-01 Up Against Foucault introduces key aspects of Foucault's work to feminists in ways which are less abstracted than much of the existing literature in this area It includes an introduction to Foucault's terms and fills a gap in the literature by clarifying the links between the everyday realities of women's lives and Foucault's work on sexuality and power The contributors explore the implications of analysing power relations sexuality or the body without also thinking about gender and other social divisions They bring their expertise from social theory and philosophy to bear on the same core issues the ways in which Foucault provokes feminists into questioning their grasp of power relations and the implications of the absence of gender in his own work Up Against Foucault shows that in spite of his lack of interest in gender Foucault does have much to offer feminism proposing new ways of understanding the control of women and especially the control of sexuality and bodies This book offers new ground in relating Foucault's challenge to feminism to feminism's challenge to Foucault Feminists are up against Foucault because he questions the key conclusions which feminists have come to about the nature of gender relations and men's possession of power It is an appraisal of how seriously we need to take this challenge

Power/Gender H. Lorraine Radtke, Henderikus J. Stam, Professor Henderikus J Stam, 1994-01-01 This book investigates the complex strands that inextricably link gender and power relations demonstrating how gender is constructed through the practices of power The contributors argue that female and male are shaped not only at the micro level of everyday social interaction but also at the macro level where social institutions control and regulate the practice of gender Power Gender explores how theorizing on power is affected when gender is taken into account post Foucauldian theory of gender and power whether it is possible to separate gender and power the connections between gender and the practice of power in political contexts and how these connections work in the specific contexts of women's lives and whether the construction of sex or gender is an expression of power relations

Leaving Abusive Partners Catherine Kirkwood, 1993-08-23 This moving book reshapes our understanding of the nature of woman abuse and makes a major contribution to a key issue for feminist campaigning and theory The past 25 years of research on battered women has focused on the psychological sociological and political conditions which contribute to violence and on women's reasons for staying with violent and abusive partners The author goes beyond the discourse of victims and survivors to offer new insights into the very specific and multifaceted nature of the abuses women experience emotional as well as physical Drawing on firsthand accounts Kirkwood sheds new light both on the dynamics of abuse which afford abusers control over women and the resources and knowledge women draw upon to re empower themselves Examining first the nature of abuse and then the issues confronted by a woman after she has left an abusive relationship Kirkwood finds that women's experiences of society after leaving abusive partners are highly interrelated She develops the concept of a web to explain how the different elements of abuse connect to make up the experiences of abused women
