Recollections Nathaniel Hailles Adventurous Life In Colonial South Australia:

Recollections Nathaniel Hailles, 1998 Nathaniel Hailles was a wry chronicler of early colonial South Australia. He arrived in Adelaide from England in 1839 and throughout his colourful career witnessed many strange and wonderful happenings. A courageous lone traveller, he got to know the Aboriginal people of the regions, upped of the first illicit still in the colony, saw fire destroy Adelaide's first Government House, became well acquainted with some of the colony's first murders and executions, and at different times worked as Superintendent of Emigrants, auctioneer, the first librarian in the State, Clerk of the Court, Clerk to the Government Resident, Registrar, Harbourmaster, and Postmaster. Hailles, witty and affectionate, Recollections appeared in the South Australian Register newspaper in 1878. They are here for the first time in book form.

Colony Reg Hamilton, 2010 Until 1832 the small towns of England were ruled by a curious set of institutions. These included the local Church of England and its vestry and the unelected and self appointing local government. They also had vigorous campaigns for election to the House of Commons and public voting characterised by virulent free speech and the occasional riot. How would these institutions transfer to Britain's colonies? In 1856 the remote colony of South Australia had the secret ballot, votes for all adult men and religious freedom, and in 1857 self government by an elected parliament. The basic framework of a modern democracy was suddenly established. How did South Australia become so modern so early? How were British institutions radically transformed by British colonists, and why did the Colonial Office allow it? Reg Hamilton answers these questions with an amusing history of the curious institutions of unreconstructed Dover before modern democracy in the period 1780-1835 and of the spirited and occasionally shameful conduct of colonists far from home but determined to make their fortune in the distant colony of South Australia. Something Rich and Strange Sue Hosking, Susan Hosking, 2009 Beaches are places of contact, play, confrontation and friction. First comers always arrive on a beach. After Europeans moved into the Antipodes, the coast was the first frontier to be defined. Flinders' circumnavigation in 1802 had mapped Australia, revealing the land as girt by sea, as the national anthem continues to remind us. All kinds of ideas about the coast, beaches, sea changes, holiday places and islands swirl and eddy in this unique collection of writing. The Fierce Country Stephen Orr, 2018-06-28 The Fierce Country holds no malice but neither pity. It just sits and bakes and waits. We do the rest. We provoke it when we mine above its aquifers. Weaken it and ourselves when we leave mountains of asbestos to blow away in the wind. Misunderstand it when we see it as nothing more than a resource. Resent it when it takes our children. The open spaces and isolated places outside Australia's cities have unsettled us from first European settlement to today, often with very good reason. In this nail biting book combining the notorious and little known, acclaimed author Stephen Orr has collected true stories that have shaped and continue to haunt the Australian psyche: mysteries, disappearances, mistreatment and murder. Fatal conflicts between an Aboriginal tracker and the police, employers hunting his community. An itinerant conman picking up tips for the perfect murder from a famous novelist around a campfire on the Rabbit Proof Fence.
