Altschul, 2020-06-19 A postcolonial study of the conceptualization of nineteenth and twentieth century Latin America as medieval and oriental If Spain and Portugal were perceived as backward in the nineteenth century still tainted in the minds of European writers and thinkers by more than a whiff of the medieval and Moorish Ibero America lagged even further behind Originally colonized in the late fifteenth century Chile Argentina and Brazil were characterized by European travelers and South American elites alike as both feudal and oriental as if they retained an oriental Moorish character due to the centuries long presence of Islam in the Iberian Peninsula So Nadia R Altschul observes the Scottish metropolitan writer Maria Graham 1785 1842 depicted the Chile in which she found herself stranded after the death of her sea captain husband as a premodern precapitalist and orientalized place that could only benefit from the free trade imperialism of the British Domingo F Sarmiento 1811 1888 the most influential Latin American writer and statesman of his day conceived of his own Euro American creole class as medieval in such works as Civilization and Barbarism The Life of Juan Facundo Quiroga 1845 and Recollections of a Provincial Past 1850 and wrote of the inherited Moorish character of Spanish America in his 1883 Conflict and Harmony of the Races in America Moving forward into the first half of the twentieth century Altschul explores the oriental character that Gilberto Freyre assigned to Portuguese colonization in his The Masters and the Slaves 1933 in which he postulated the Mozarabic essence of Brazil In Politics of Temporalization Altschul examines the case of South America to ask more broadly what is at stake what is harmed what is excused when the present is temporalized when elements of the now are characterized as belonging to and consequently imposed upon a constructed and othered past

Earliest recollection of Henry Irving. The old school and the new. Friendship. Honours from Dublin University. Converging streams. Joining forces. The Lyceum productions. Irving begins management. Shakespeare plays Bram Stoker, 1906 Recollections of Foreign Travel Sir Egerton Brydges, 1825 Recollections of My Youth Ernest Renan, 2019-12-02 In Recollections of My Youth Ernest Renan offers a poignant memoir that intricately weaves personal narrative with reflections on intellectual and cultural landscapes of 19th century France Through a lyrical and introspective literary style Renan delves into his formative experiences exploring the interplay of faith philosophy and the emerging scientific thought of his time The work serves as a vital cultural document revealing the tensions between tradition and modernity while allowing readers to glimpse the profound influences that shaped Renan's views on religion and humanism Ernest Renan a historian and philosopher deeply ingrained in the intellectual currents of his era was influenced by his upbringing in Brittany and the rigor of his theological training His path was marked by a gradual disillusionment with religious orthodoxy leading him to advocate for a secular approach to spirituality and an embrace of a broader humanistic perspective This journey is poignantly captured in his memoir as it reflects his evolution from a devout seminarian to a groundbreaking thinker who sought to reconcile faith with reason Readers seeking to understand the foundations of modern thought and the complex relationship between faith and knowledge will find Recollections of My Youth a compelling read Renan's evocative prose resonates with universal themes of identity and the quest for meaning making this memoir not only a personal account but also a timeless exploration of the human experience Latin American Adventures in Literary Journalism

Pablo Calvi,2019-06-05 Latin American Adventures in Literary Journalism explores the central role of narrative journalism in the formation of national identities in Latin America and the concomitant role the genre had in the consolidation of the idea of Latin America as a supra national entity This work discusses the impact that the form had in the creation of an original Latin American literature during six historical moments Beginning in the 1840s and ending in the 1970s Calvi connects the evolution of literary journalism with the consolidation of Latin America's literary sphere the professional practice of journalism the development of the modern mass media and the establishment of nation states in the region Forestry Recollections Carl Bleich,2020-01-22 In 1925 a gold rush exploded in this isolated area of northwestern Ontario A surge of gold seekers hastened to get to Red Lake With people flooding in the provincial government decided to establish a presence In 1926 the Department of Lands and Forests Ontario Forestry Branch set up bases throughout the region This historic book is produced through research mainly via a series of recollections from those who worked for the Forestry from 1926 to 1986 The stories are from forest firefighters pilots technicians supervisors conservation officers parks workers junior rangers and a safety officer Anyone who has visited or lived in this area will gain an appreciation of the history
