Reconciled to Reconcile Komi Ahiatroga Hiagbe, 2008 In the words of John Paul II A faith which does not become culture is a faith that has not been received not thoroughly thought through nor fully lived out It is for this reason that inculturation hermeneutics has become a useful reflective tool for many African students of Theology In this work the author argues that the concept of salvation in evangelical Christian thought as postulated in the works of the French Reformer John Calvin and that of African Traditional Religions do not connote the same idea nor lead to the same goals In spite of the basic differences he states that symbols metaphors and some practices from the traditional religions of Africa can be employed as hermeneutical tools for the explanation of concepts of the Christian faith The author therefore concludes that the Anlo Ewe traditional religious practice of nugbidodo ritual reconciliation best explains Christian salvation as man's reconciliation with God and constitutes a basis for the healing deliverance and a socio economic advancement of the individual and the entire community

Life's About Relationships: A Foundation for Good Relationships Dr. Don Woodard, 2021-10-12 We interact with people every day whether it be with our coworkers family or friends life is filled with relationships While not all relationships are good with God's help we can work to better our current and future relationships and overcome the effects of toxic relationships

The Spirituality of the Igbo People of Nigeria as an Example of Religious Modernization in a Global World Henry CHUKWUDI OKEKE, 2020-02-18 If there is no religion in the world the world would more or less become a jungle The world will be inhuman Religion touches all aspects of human life Identifying God's will in our world today has become a major problem for many religions of the world In the past in Igbo Traditional Religion human sacrifice as well as the killing of twins were practised For the Igbo traditionalists then that was the will of the deities and equally not against God's will But following the encounter of Igbo Traditional Religion with Christianity these are no longer practised Misinterpretation of God's will by some religions of the world has given rise to religious violence religious extremism fanaticism and terrorism we are experiencing today in the world For these problems to be resolved it is pertinent that the study of various religions be taken seriously This study should be aiming at better understanding co existence respect for one another and frequent inter religious dialogues among the various religions of the world When this is achieved the believers of various religions would realize that many are worshipping one God and their desire is to communicate with Him although they may approach Him differently

Rethinking the Atonement David M. Moffitt, 2022-11-15 Traditional views of the atonement tend to be reductive focusing solely on Jesus's death on the cross In his 2011 groundbreaking book Atonement and the Logic of Resurrection in the Epistle to the Hebrews David Moffitt challenged that paradigm showing how the atonement is a fuller process It involves not only Jesus's death but also his resurrection ascension offering and exaltation In the succeeding years Moffitt has continued to expand and clarify his thinking on this issue This book offers a more fulsome articulation of his work on the atonement that reflects his recent thinking on the topic Moffitt continues to challenge reductive views of the atonement primarily from the book of Hebrews but he engages other New Testament passages as well He offers fresh insights on sacrifice and atonement the importance of resurrection and ascension Jesus's role as priest and a new perspective on Hebrews This important book brings Moffitt's award winning and influential scholarship to a broader audience The book includes a foreword by N T Wright

Royal Priesthood in the English Reformation Malcolm B. Yarnell III, 2013-12-12 Royal Priesthood in the English Reformation assesses the understandings of the Christian doctrine of royal priesthood long considered one of the three major Reformation teachings as held by an array of royal clerical and popular theologians during the English Reformation Historians and theologians often present the doctrine according to more recent debates rather than the contextual understandings manifested by the historical figures under consideration Beginning with a radical reevaluation of John Wyclif and an incisive survey of late medieval accounts the book challenges the predominant presentation of the doctrine of royal priesthood as primarily individualistic and anticlerical in the process clarifying these other concepts It also demonstrates that the late medieval period located more religious authority within the monarchy than is typically appreciated After the revolutionary use of the doctrine by Martin Luther in early modern Germany it was wielded variously between and within diverse English royal clerical and lay factions under Henry VIII and Edward VI yet the Old and New Testament passages behind the doctrine were definitely construed in a monarchical direction With Thomas Cranmer the English evangelical presentation of the universal priesthood largely received its enduring official shape but challenges came from within the English magisterium as well as from both radical and conservative religious thinkers Under the sacred Tudor queens who subtly and successfully maintained their own sacred authority the various doctrinal positions hardened into a range of early modern forms with surprising permutations

Reconciliation in Remembrance of Jesus Christ Hacik Gazer, Markus Iff, Werner Klän, Dorothea Sattler, 2023-07-15 Since the Lima Declarations of Convergence in 1982 no other document in the international ecumenical movement has dealt with Eucharistic communion at the celebration of the Lord's Supper in remembrance of the Holy Sacrifice of Jesus Christ On the occasion of the 11th Assembly of the World Council of Churches in 2022 in Karlsruhe ecumenically minded Protestant Free Church Old Catholic Roman Catholic and Orthodox theologians from Germany have taken up this topic afresh They provide insights into the current state of ecumenical conversations present the various traditions of confessional worship and offer practical suggestions for an ecumenically sensitive liturgical practice The German Ecumenical Study Committee D STA contributes a joint statement on the subject Memories of the 3rd Ecumenical Kirchentag Church Congress 2021 in Frankfurt am Main are revived The decision to go to the Lord's Table together trusting in the presence of Jesus Christ in the celebration of Holy Communion Eucharist and Holy Sacrifice can be justified theologically but continues to raise controversy On the Sunday of the Assembly in Karlsruhe September 4 2022 a rich range of liturgies will commemorate the life of Jesus his death for us and the sending of God's Spirit Together all churches testify that The love of Christ moves reconciles and unites the world Calvin's Christology Stephen Edmondson,2004-07 Stephen Edmondson articulates a coherent Christology from Calvin's commentaries and his Institutes He argues that through the medium of Scripture's history Calvin the biblical humanist renders a Christology that seeks to capture both the breadth of God's multifaceted grace enacted in history and the hearts of God's people formed by history What emerges is a picture of Christ as the Mediator of God's covenant through his threefold office of priest king and prophet This is the first significant volume to explore Calvin's Christology in several decades Sermons on sacrifice and propitiation David James Vaughan,1861 The Art of Reconciliation D. Petersson,2013-05-14 Dag Petersson offers a comprehensive critique of the philosophy that has dominated 200 years of modern thought politics economy and culture The basic question is this why does dialectical metaphysics fail to keep what it promises What is it about dialectics that makes it fall into irreducibly distinct variations of itself when all it promises is to synthesize to reconcile and make whole what is fragmented and alien to itself An undisciplined creativity intrinsic to completing reason comes to light through analyses of how dialectical systems begin Every dialectical philosophy must account for its own birth and it is at this point when it also articulates its promise of universal synthesis that the book discovers a desire for light writing or photography Only the most immediate element light can mediate the necessary self determination of thought at its origin Light must begin to write A philosophical critique of dialectics is therefore also a point of departure for a new aesthetic ontology of photography Introducing the New Testament Henry Wansbrough,2015-01-29 Introducing the New Testament presents the complex and often challenging texts and history of the New Testament in a clear and informative manner The book begins with a section that gives readers a clear idea of how to use it most effectively for study and personal research followed by a chapter which outlines the various manuscript traditions and processes of transmission that resulted in the biblical texts we have before us today With this groundwork complete readers are then introduced to all the texts of the New Testament and to major issues and debates such as the Historical Jesus the Synoptic Problem and current debates surrounding inspiration how these texts can be seen in both a historical context and in the context of religious faith The book features maps chapter summaries sample essay questions chapter bibliographies and reading lists and an annotated glossary of key terms The Atoning Sacrifice Noah Worcester,1829 Theological Institutes Richard Watson,1834 The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass Nikolaus Gehr,1902 A Banqueter's Guide To The All-Night Soup Kitchen Of The Kingdom Of God Patrick T. McCormick,2017-07-14 When Jesus spoke at the table he provided instructions for his disciples to follow A Banqueter's Guide to the All Night Soup Kitchen of the Kingdom of God views those teachings as a set of guidelines for us to follow in all areas of life Through the study of metaphors commonly used to describe the Eucharist this book connects the Eucharist and Jesus words and actions with current issues in society Each chapter defines a metaphor associated with the Law and Sacrifice Johan Van der Walt,2014-06-11 In the wake of apartheid Law and Sacrifice draws on the uniquely expansive protection of fundamental rights now entrenched in the South African Constitution to outline a new theory of law The South African Constitution not only protects the rights of people against abuses of power by the state but also against abuses of power by private legal subjects Drawing upon the work of contemporary thinkers such as Martin Heidegger Hannah Arendt George Bataille Jacques Derrida Emmanuel Levinas and Jean Luc Nancy the author elicits the radical democratic potential of this horizontal notion of rights Johan van der Walt argues that apartheid must be understood as more than a racist abuse of power and here he articulates its sacrificial logic It is in going beyond this logic he maintains that the truly democratic potential of the South African Constitution can be understood in a radical formal and substantive equality that offers the legal basis for rethinking a post apartheid future Combining a rigorous theoretical understanding with a subtle political engagement Law and Sacrifice is a dazzling interrogation of the limits and possibilities of democratic pluralism It will be of interest to political and legal theorists as well as to those who are concerned with South African law and politics
