Reconciliation Through Truth Kader Asmal, Louise Asmal, Ronald Suresh Roberts, 1996 Forgiveness, Reconciliation, and Restoration Martin William Mittelstadt, Geoffrey W. Sutton, 2010-08-01 Although history is replete with tales of revenge Christian forgiveness provides an alternate response In this volume Pentecostal scholars from various disciplines offer their vision for forgiveness reconciliation and restoration The essayists offer long overdue Pentecostal perspectives through analysis of contemporary theological issues personal testimony and prophetic possibilities for restoration of individual relationships and communities Though Pentecostals remain committed to Spirit empowered witness as recorded in Luke Acts these scholars embrace a larger Lukan vision of Spirit initiated inclusivity marked by reconciliation The consistent refrain calls for forgiveness as an expression of God s love that does not demand justice but rather seeks to promote peace by bringing healing and reconciliation in relationships between people united by one Spirit Criminal Justice Responses to the Boko Haram Crisis in Nigeria Victoria Ojo-Adewuyi, 2024-01-01 This book concentrates on the crisis perpetrated by the Boko Haram group in Nigeria which since 2009 has made a definitive impact on both the domestic and international criminal landscape The volume centres on three core issues first an assessment of the criminal legal responses at the domestic level where the legal characterization of the conducts in question including an evaluation of the state of specific domestic prosecutions are assessed Secondly the book gauges the potential for international criminal justice while evaluating the Boko Haram situation at the International Criminal Court This includes an assessment of the jurisdictional aspects the admissibility and the interests of justice requirements in addition to the appraisal of conducts amounting to war crimes and crimes against humanity perpetrated Finally the book explores possible non prosecutorial responses in the form of classic and non classic transitional justice mechanisms that maybe utilized as a response to the crisis in Nigeria Furthermore it draws instructive lessons from Nigeria s past misadventure with specific transitional justice mechanisms while exploring the realities of utilizing the restorative justice mechanisms available in Nigeria The volume concludes by calling for a victim centred approach in the discourse around the Boko Haram crisis This book presents a definitive study of the history of the development of Boko Haram and the related domestic and international criminal legal issues Researchers and anyone seeking to understand the Boko Haram crisis in relation to international criminal law including those looking for a clear overview of the criminal conduct perpetrated by Boko Haram in Nigeria and a view of Nigeria s domestic legal regime will benefit from the information on offer Victoria Ojo Adewuyi is a lawyer called to the Nigeria Bar in 2012 She obtained a Bachelor of Laws degree LL B in 2011 from the Obafemi Awolowo University Ile Ife Nigeria obtained a Master of Laws Degree LL M from the University of the Western Cape Cape Town South Africa and Humboldt Universit t zu Berlin under the South African German Centre for Transnational Criminal Justice in 2016 and completed her doctorate in International

Criminal Law at the Humboldt Universität zu Berlin Germany in 2022 Ibss: Political Science: 1997 British Library of Political and Economic Science, 1999-01-14 Provides an unrivalled overview of intellectual development in political science

Voices of Justice and Reason Geoffrey V. Davis, 2021-10-25 Over the past fifty years transformations of great moment have taken place in South Africa Apartheid and the subsequent transition to a democratic non racial society in particular have exercised a profound effect on the practice of literature This study traces the development of literature under apartheid then seeks to identify the ways in which writers and theatre practitioners are now facing the challenges of a new social order The main focus is on the work of black writers prime among them Matsemela Manaka Mtutuzeli Matshoba and Richard Rive who as politically committed members of the oppressed majority bore witness to the black experience through their writing Despite the draconian censorship system they were able to address the social problems caused by racial discrimination in all areas of life particularly through forced removals the migrant labour system and the creation of the homelands Their writing may be read both as a comprehensive record of everyday life under apartheid and as an alternative cultural history of South Africa Particular attention is paid to theatre as a barometer of social change in South Africa The concluding chapters consider how in the current period of transition writers and arts institutions have set about reassessing their priorities redefining their function and seeking new aesthetic directions in taking up the challenge of imagining a new society The Limits of Transition: The South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission 20 Years on Mia Swart, Karin van Marle, 2017-08-28 The South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission was a noble attempt to begin to address the continuing traumatic legacy of Apartheid This interdisciplinary collection critiques the work of the TRC 20 years since its establishment Taking the paralysing political and social crises of the mid 1990s in South Africa as starting point the book contains a collection of responses to the TRC that considers the notions of crisis judgment and social justice It asks whether the current political and social crises in South Africa are linked to the country's post apartheid transitional mechanisms specifically the TRC The fact that the material conditions of the lives of many Apartheid victims have not improved forms a major theme of the book Collectively the book considers the unfinished business of the TRC South African national bibliography, 1997 Classified list with author and title index The Intimate Empire Gillian Whitlock, 2000-02-01 By means of contextualized readings this work argues that autobiographic writing allows an intimate access to processes of colonization and decolonization incorporation and resistance and the formation and reformation of identities which occurs in postcolonial space The book explores the interconnections between race gender autobiography and colonialism and uses a method of reading which looks for connections between very different autobiographical writings to pursue constructions of blackness and whiteness femininity and masculinity and nationality Unlike previous studies of autobiography which focus on a limited Euro American canon the book brings together contemporary and 19th century women's autobiographies and travel writing from Canada the Caribbean Kenya South Africa Australia and New Zealand With emphasis on the reader of autobiography as much as the subject it argues that colonization and resistance are deeply embedded in thinking about the self

Memorializing the Past Heidi Grunebaum, 2017-07-28 This work is a meditation on the shaping of time and its impact on living with and understanding atrocity in South Africa in the wake of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission TRC It is an examination of the ways that the institutionalization of memory has managed perceptions of time and transition of events and happenings of sense and emotion of violence and recovery of the past and the new Through this process a public language of memory has been carved into collective modes of meaning It is a language that seems deprived of the hopes dreams and possibilities for the promise of a just and redemptive future it once nurtured Truth commissions are profoundly implicated in the social politics of memorialization Memory as a conceptual historical and experiential discourse about the past relates to the ways in which cruelty is integrated into societal understandings which include cognitive and philosophic frameworks and constructions of social meaning The politics of historical truth of memory and of justice play out in unintended ways There is not only the ongoing struggle for survivors of state terror but also the ways that the everyday shapings of silences the emptiness of reconciliation and the fracturing of hope remain embedded in political life

A Far-Away War Ian Liebenberg, 2016-01-31 South Africa's armed forces invaded Angola in 1975 setting off a war that had consequences for the whole region that are still felt today A Far Away War contributes to a wider understanding of this war in Angola and Namibia The book does not only look at the war from an e olde South African Defence Force perspective but also gives a voice to participants e on the other sidee emphasising the role of the Cubans and Russians This focus is supplemented by the inclusion of many never before published photographs from Cuban and Russian archives and a comprehensive bibliography

Crime, Truth and Justice George Gilligan, John Pratt, 2013-01-11 This book analyses the production of criminological knowledge with particular reference the official inquiry It investigates the structures and processes of official discourse and the ways in which this produces knowledge on crime and justice

A Common Hunger Joan G. Fairweather, 2006 The impact of colonial dispossession and the subsequent social and political ramifications places a unique burden on governments having to establish equitable means of addressing previous injustices This book considers the efforts by both Canada and South Africa to reconcile the damage left by colonial expansion in part looking back with a critical eye but also pointing the way towards a solution that will satisfy the common need for human dignity

The Political Dimension of Reconciliation Ralf K. Wüstenberg, 2009-04-08 When a nation is working through its past the call for reconciliation is often expressed as was the case in South Africa after the end of apartheid and in Germany after the fall of the Berlin Wall Informed by Ralf Wstenberg's long residence in South Africa and his own native Germany this book investigates the conditions and dynamics associated with political reconciliation Wstenberg starts from the observation that reconciliation as a central theme in Christian theological teaching is spoken of in both theology and politics But does it mean the same thing in both contexts Is there a commonality of meaning for words like guilt and reconciliation in politics and theology Where and under what conditions is it possible to translate from theological language into political and vice versa Wstenberg s study promotes a genuine dialogue between religion and politics by carefully analyzing moral discourses in political transitions to democracy

Narratives of Nation Media, Memory and Representation in the Making of the New South Africa Charmaine McEachern,2002 Narratives of Nation Media

Memory Representation in the Making of the New South Africa Culture, Education, and Development in South Africa Ali

A. Abdi,2001-10-30 With the fall of apartheid in South Africa expectations were high for the enfranchisement of the acutely underdeveloped majority in South Africa But problems abound and this educational study looks critically at the educational situation and puts forth a number of proposals that could produce better results in contemporary South Africa Abdi urges that beyond the celebratory platforms of the political triumph over apartheid there must be effective and culturally inclusive programs of education for the development of the highly disenfranchised majority in South Africa Deliberate programs of colonialism and apartheid in South Africa resulted in inferior education cultural marginalization political oppression economic exploitation and resulting underdevelopment in the lives of the disenfranchised majority In addition to historical and contemporary analysis this study looks at the possibilities of formulating and implementing new programs of education and development that could effectively deal with such current problems as chronic unemployment skyrocketing crime rates stagnating learning systems and the continuing formations of a huge underclass that may be losing its stake in the promised post apartheid project

Staging Solidarity Tanya Goodman,Ronald Eyerman,Jeffrey C. Alexander,2015-11-17 The South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission TRC is a modern social drama that enabled the nation s apartheid past to be constructed as a cultural trauma and by doing so created a new collective narrative of diversity and inclusion The TRC relied primarily on testimonies from victims and perpetrators of apartheid violence who came forward to tell their stories in a public forum Rather than simply serving as data for setting the historical record straight this book shows that it was not only the content of these testimonies but also how these stories were told and what values were attached to them that became significant Goodman argues that the performative nature of the TRC process effectively designated the past as profane and simultaneously imagined a sacred future community based on democratic idealism and universal solidarity

Performing South Africa's Truth Commission Catherine M. Cole,2010 Spectacles of legality performance transitional justice and the law Justice in transition political trials 1956 1964 Witnessing and interpreting testimony live present public and speaking in many tongues Eyes and ears of the nation television and the implicated witness Dragons in the living room truth and reconciliation in repertoire 2006 Conclusion Afterword what truth meant to the TRC

Refiguring the Archive Carolyn Hamilton,2002-12-31 Refiguring the Archive at once expresses cutting edge debates on the archive in South Africa and internationally and pushes the boundaries of those debates It brings together prominent thinkers from a range of disciplines mainly South Africans but a number from other countries Traditionally archives have been seen as preserving memory and as holding the past The contributors to this book question this orthodoxy unfolding the ways in which archives construct sanctify and bury pasts In his contribution Jacques Derrida an instantly recognisable name in intellectual discourse worldwide shows how remembering can never be separated from forgetting and argues that the archive is about the future rather than the past Collectively the contributors demonstrate the degree to which thinking about archives is embracing new realities and new possibilities The book expresses a confidence in claiming for archival discourse previously unentered terrains It serves as an early manual for a time that has already begun

Political Transition Paul Gready, 2003-04-20 In the twentieth century many countries around the globe experienced rapid and often traumatic political transformations From East Germany and Northern Ireland to Argentina Chile and Zimbabwe political transition has been momentous and has had a deep impact on the individual culture of each society This collection explores these periods of political transition and the impact that they have had through an analysis of memory identity space place and voice Concentrating in particular on post colonial and post oppressive regimes in Europe Southern Africa and Latin America the contributors assess how individuals come to terms with rapid political change and the enduring legacies of the past in the present They examine how political transformations affect people's memories and identities reworking spaces places and voices and how both official and unofficial mechanisms set up to cope with these changes impact on these issues Juxtaposing different country and regional experiences and different historical eras this is a comprehensive guide to the vast range of issues involved in political transition
