Reconstructing The Real You:

Deconstructing Sacramental Theology and Reconstructing Catholic Ritual Joseph Martos, 2015-05-12 Catholic sacramental doctrine has lost much of its credibility Baptized people leave the church adolescents stop attending shortly after they are confirmed supposedly indissoluble marriages regularly dissolve few go to confession and many do not believe in transubstantiation Drawing upon his decades long study of the sacraments Martos reveals how teachings that seemed rooted in the scriptures and Catholic life have become unmoored from the contexts in which they arose and why seemingly eternal truths are actually historically relative After carefully constructing Catholic teaching from the church's own documents he deconstructs it by demonstrating how biblical passages were misconstrued by patristic authors and how patristic writings were misunderstood by medieval scholastics The long process of misinterpretation culminated in the dogmatic pronouncements of the Council of Trent which continues to dominate Catholic thinking about the church's religious ceremonies If the sacraments are released from their dogmatic baggage Martos believes that the spiritual realities they symbolize can be celebrated in any human culture without being tied to their traditional rites Spiritual Reconstruction, 1919 Lamentations of a Child y Joyce Wyche, 2012-02-07 Some people believe that giving themselves to God is a life of blessings and euphoria In truth the people of God will experience a wealth of emotions and sometimes guilt will accompany those feelings The challenge is in how we deal with those emotions In Lamentations of a Child author Joyce Wyche helps readers discover they are subject to all emotions as were the prophets of old Her writings explore the importance of navigating through your emotions and finding the inspiration to come out on the other side with a new or renewed sense of strength Lamentations of a Child reminds us that the adversary should never be allowed to make one feel guilty or inadequate Although the adversary may believe he has control over us he is wrong After all we are created in God's image We are more than conquerors we have ultimate victory in Christ Reconstruction Gordon Lea, 1919 Religious Reconstruction Minot Judson Savage, 1888 The Literature of Reconstruction Wolfgang Funk, 2017-03-23 Winner of the 2016 ESSE Junior Scholar Book Award in Literatures in the English Language The Literature of Reconstruction argues for the term and concept of postmillennial reconstruction to fill the gap left by the decline of postmodernism and deconstruction as useful cultural and literary categories Wolfgang Funk shows how this notion emerges from the theoretical and philosophical development that led to the demise of postmodernism by relating it to the idea of authenticity immediate experience that eludes direct representation In addition he provides a clear formal framework with which to identify and classify the features of reconstructive literature by updating the narratological category of metafiction originally established in the 1980s Based on Werner Wolf's observation of a metareferential turn in contemporary arts and media he illustrates how the specific use of metareference results in a renegotiation of the specific patterns of literary communication and claims that this renegotiation can be profitably described with the concept of reconstruction To substantiate this claim in the second half of the book Funk discusses narrative texts that illustrate this transition from postmodern deconstruction to postmillennial reconstruction The analyses take in distinguished and prize winning writers such as Dave Eggers Julian Barnes Jennifer Egan and Jasper Fforde The broad scope of authors featuring writers from the US as well as the UK underlines the fact that the reconstructive tendencies and strategies Funk diagnoses are of universal significance for the intellectual and cultural self image of the global North
