Reconstructing the Common Good Gary J. Dorrien, 2008-05-01 This landmark study in the history and theory of modern Christian socialism examines the work of such major figures as Rauschenbusch Tillich Moltmann Gutierrez and Miguez Bonino Dorrien argues that these theologians provide a singular context for addressing questions of freedom and totalitarianism sacralization and democratization individual autonomy and the common good He focuses on the differing conceptions of the common good that these major theorists have propounded and explicates as well their theological arguments on the relationship between the Kingdom of God and projects of historical praxis With a new Preface addressing the tumultuous events in Eastern Europe Reconstructing the Common Good develops and sustains a forceful argument for the continuing relevance of a decentralized pluralistic democratic form of socialism

Indwelling the Forsaken Other J. Matthew Bonzo, 2009-02-01 Indwelling the Forsaken Other is a critical reading of Jurgen Moltmann's ethics of discipleship While Moltmann's notable turn to the inner life of the Trinity as a source for his reflections on the life of the church is influential it is not without problems The call emerging from Moltmann's reflection upon Trinitarian life to copy God in our relationships may offer some general direction for our actions however it also raises several questions Two important questions for this work are In what way are we to copy God and What conditions make it possible to copy God Moltmann's answers to these questions are insufficient and consequently he fails to protect the difference between Creator and creation in his analogia relationis As a result the ethical direction of Moltmann's work seems to be increasingly muddled and at best paradoxical

The Social Gospel Today Christopher Hodge Evans, 2001-01-01 The contributors explore how the theological tradition of the Social Gospel born within the social and cultural dislocations of late 19th century America relates to the dislocations of the current American scene The contributors argue that America's only indigenous theological tradition remains powerfully relevant to mainline churches and to the scholars who work out of these institutions

Welfare Policy Elizabeth M. Bounds, Pamela Brubaker, Mary E. Hobgood, 2010-02-01 Welfare Policy is for me an occasion for rejoicing Grounded in the present public controversy over so called welfare reform these chapters model a genre of feminist ethics informed normatively by radical readings of Christian or related religious traditions This book is distinctive however because its theological perspective is profoundly and unapologetically political rooted in an advocacy stance for a policy that aims at women's well being Beverly W Harrison from the Foreword Welfare Policy Feminist Critiques looks behind the political moral mask to explore the issues at stake for women and children in the welfare debate

Pastoral Power Beyond Psychology's Marginalization Philip Browning Helsel, 2016-04-29 This book explores the suffering of social class and how traditional biomedical models for mental illness do not adequately account for the stresses of poverty Turning to mental health user testimonies this book equips ministers and counsellors to become working class advocates

The Annihilation of Hell Nik Ansell, 2013-10-01 For Jurgen Moltmann Hell is the nemesis of Hope The annihilation of Hell thus refers both to Hell's annihilative power in history and to the overcoming of that power as envisioned by Moltmann's distinctive theology of the cross in which God becomes all in all through Christ's descent into Godforsakenness The negation of Hell and the fulfillment of history are inseparable. Attentive to the overall contours and dynamics of Moltmann's thinking especially his zimum doctrine of creation his eschatologically oriented philosophy of time and his expanded understanding of the nature grace relationship this study asks whether the universal salvation that he proposes can honor human freedom promise vindication for those who suffer and do justice to biblical revelation. As well as providing an in depth exposition of Moltmann's ideas The Annihilation of Hell also explores how a covenantal universalism might revitalize our web of beliefs in a way that is attuned to the authorizing of Scripture and the spirituality of existence. If divine and human freedom are to be reconciled as Moltmann believes the confrontation between Hell and Hope will entail rethinking issues that are not only at the center of theology but at the heart of life itself.

Building a Protestant Left Mark Hulsether, 1999 He follows the twists and turns of this story from Niebuhr's Christian realist positions of the 1940s through Protestant participation in the complex social movements of the 1950s and 1960s to the emergence of various liberation theologies African American feminist Latin American and others that used C C as a central arena of debate in the 1970s and 1980s.

Labor's Millennium Brett H. Smith, 2010-01-01 Historians have traditionally interpreted the American land grant higher education movement as the result of political and economic forces. Little attention has been given however to any explicit or implicit theological motivations for the movement. This book tells the story of how the Christian belief of many founders of the University of Illinois motivated their educational theory and practice. Constructing a social gospel of labor's millennium their shorthand for God's kingdom being enhanced through agricultural and mechanical education they initially proposed that the university would impart a millenarian blessing for the larger society by providing abundant food economic prosperity vocational dignity and a charitable spirit of sacred unity and public service. Rich in primary source research Smith's account builds a compelling case for at least one such institution's adaptation of an inherited evangelical educational tradition transitioning into a new era of higher learning that has left its mark on university life today.

A Royal Priesthood?: The Use of the Bible Ethically and Politically Zondervan, 2022-03-01 Since September 11 2001 we are intensely aware of the need for political wisdom. Can Scripture help us in this respect? Yes but not simplistically. In an exhilarating dialogue with Oliver O'Donovan a team of international scholars look in detail in this book at biblical interpretation as we make the journey from what God said to Abraham as it were to how to respond to the political challenges of today. Such exploration is essential if the church is to become a royal priesthood today. Craig Bartholomew. Contributors include Oliver O'Donovan respondent to 14 chapters Gilbert Meilaender Christopher Rowland Bernd Wannenwetsch N.T. Wright. A Royal Priesthood is the third volume from the Scripture and Hermeneutics Seminar. This annual gathering of Christian scholars from various disciplines was established in 1998 and aims to reassess the discipline of biblical studies from the foundations up and forge creative new ways for reopening the Bible in our cultures. Any attempt to open the Book in new and fresh ways for our cultures at the start of the third millennium must explore how to read the Bible ethically and politically. This volume looks at the obstacles to such a process and in dialogue with Oliver O'Donovan's creative work in this regard looks in detail at how to read different parts of the Bible for ethics and politics A unique element of the book is Oliver O Donovan s 14 responses to individual chapters Volume 1 Renewing Biblical Interpretation and Volume 2 After Pentecost are also published by Paternoster Press and Zondervan
