Documents of the Assembly of the State of New York New York (State). Legislature. Assembly, 1907 Civil Procedure Reports, 1900 Report of the Public Record Commission of the State of South Carolina to the General Assembly South Carolina. Public Records Commission, 1898 Pleasant Bend Dan Worrall, 2016 Today's Greater Houston is a vast urban place. In the mid nineteenth century however Houston was a small town, a dot in a vast frontier. Extant written histories of Houston largely confine themselves to the small area within the city limits of the day, leaving nearly forgotten the history of large rural areas that later fell beneath the city's late twentieth century urban sprawl. One such area is that of upper Buffalo Bayou, extending westward from downtown Houston to Katy. European settlement here began at Piney Point in 1824, over a decade before Houston was founded. Ox wagons full of cotton traveled across a seemingly endless tallgrass prairie from the Brazos River east to Harrisburg and later to Houston along the San Felipe Trail, built in 1830. Also here Texan families fled eastward during the Runaway Scrape of 1836; immigrant German settlers trekked westward to new farms along the north bank of the bayou in the 1840s; and newly freed African American families walked east toward Houston from Brazos plantations after Emancipation. Pioneer settlers operated farms, ranches, and sawmills. Near present day Shepherd Drive, Reconstruction era cowboys assembled herds of longhorns and headed north along a southeastern branch of the Chisholm Trail. Little physical evidence remains today of this former frontier world. Annual Report of the Superintendent of Documents United States.
