insightful book Media International Australia This book brings together some of the seminal interventions which have structured the development of stardom and celebrity studies while crucially combining and situating these within the context of new essays which address the contemporary cross media and international landscape of today s fame culture From Max Weber Walter Benjamin and Roland Barthes to Catherine Lumbly Chris Rojek and Graeme Turner At the core of the collection is a desire to map out a unique historical trajectory both in terms of the development of fame as well as the historical development of the field

Too Beautiful to Picture Elizabeth Mansfield, Few tales of artistic triumph can rival the story of Zeuxis As first reported by Cicero and Pliny the painter Zeuxis set out to portray Helen of Troy but when he realized that a single model could not match Helen s beauty he combined the best features of five different models A primer on mimesis in art making the Zeuxis myth also illustrates ambivalence about the ability to rely on nature as a model for ideal form In Too Beautiful to Picture Elizabeth C Mansfield engages the visual arts literature and performance to examine the desire to make the ideal visible She finds in the Zeuxis myth evidence of a cultural primal scene that manifests itself in gendered terms Mansfield considers the many depictions of the legend during the Renaissance and questions its absence during the eighteenth century Offering interpretations of Angelica Kauffman s paintings Mary Shelley s Frankenstein and Picasso s Les Femmes d'Alger (O. J. R. Man Ray) Mansfield also considers Orlan s carnal art as a profound retelling of the myth Throughout Mansfield asserts that the Zeuxis legend encodes an unconscious record of the West s reliance on mimetic representation as a vehicle for metaphysical solace Elizabeth C Mansfield is associate professor of art history at the University of the South
