War II introduced a new chapter to the history of elite troops the parachute and glider borne soldiers of Germany and the Allies whose story is told in this book Despite their experimental nature there is no doubting the successes achieved by both sides The story of the German airborne corps is traced from its inception the policemen co opted into becoming Goering s paras their army rivals the revelations of the German disasters and triumph in Norway Holland and Belgium before their ultimate test of May 1941 The crucial Battle of Crete is described through the experiences of men who were there the struggle that broke the back of Hitler s airborne army Late starters the British Red Berets came to achieve worldwide fame as crack troops and the book includes the tales of men who volunteered at the start and saw it through to the end the triumphs and tragedies of the ordinary soldier proud to serve in these distinguished regiments Readers will find not only authentic detail and personal stories but insights into airborne operations Diary of a Red Devil Albert Blockwell, 2005

Many books have been written about the Second World War and the majority of them either concentrate on a particular battle campaign or unit Individual accounts are certainly in a minority and those from the lower ranks even more scarcer

Helion and Co Ltd are therefore pleased to announce the publication of Diary of A Red Devil It relates the war time experiences of a young man Albert Blockwell from the northeast of England who in February 1940 was called up for service with the Army Initially conscripted into the Royal Army Ordnance Corps and trained as a vehicle mechanic he was then posted in March 1940 to a prewar Territorial unit The 7th Kings Own Scottish Borderers then a home defense unit based near London His diary is a most interesting account of a young vehicle mechanic who also had to learn to be a infantry soldier Albert remained with this unit for all his wartime service later going to the Shetland Islands when the 7th KOSB were part of OSDEF Orkney and Shetlands Defence Force Then in late 1943 much to their surprise the unit was posted to Lincolnshire to become the third infantry unit in the 1st Airlanding Brigade then in the process of returning from Italy with the rest of the 1st Airborne Division Swapping their glengarries for red berets Albert and his comrades had to adapt to their new way of getting to war by glider The diary continues with a down to earth account of the highs and lows of the next few months Then in September 1944 Albert flew to Holland on Operation Market Garden and his account written in PoW camp describes the savage nine days fighting at Arnhem from the slit trench level Taken prisoner on the last day his account then describes the spartan life in PoW camp without pulling any punches Sadly Albert died in 2001 but his diary survived and his daughter Maggie Clifton together with help from two published Arnhem authors have edited a unique account of the fighting at Arnhem from the front line soldier s perspective Key sales points Unique personal account of the formation of Britain s airborne forces and their epic actions during Operation Market Garden The diary is supplemented by extensive annotations from acknowledged Arnhem expert Niall Cherry providing additional information relating to the units and individuals mentioned in Albert s diary Features a large number of rare photographs and documents
