Etruscan Red-Figured Vase-Painting at Caere Mario A. Del Chiaro, 2023-11-15 This study derives from a close investigation of a class of Etruscan plates belonging to the Genucillia Group Soon attracted to these products of no great aesthetic merit were many vases of different shapes and more imposing character also decorated by Caeretan painters We can now recognize a fairly important and prolific red figured fabric produced at Caere an Etruscan city of major significance whose pottery must be fully considered in any future discussion of Etruscan art and civilization Many vases previously grouped and treated within the more general framework of Etruscan red figure are now attributed to Caeretan potters an vase painters This disclosure will provide important data for the better understanding of political commercial and cultural relations between cities within and beyond Etruria during the whole of the 4th century B C This study derives from a close investigation of a class of Etruscan plates belonging to the Genucillia Group Soon attracted to these products of no great aesthetic merit were many vases of different shapes and more imposing character also decorated by A Catalogue of Greek Vases in the Collection of the University of Melbourne at the Ian Potter Museum of Art Peter Connor, Heather Jackson, Ian Potter Museum of Art, 2000 The catalogue of the University of Melbourne s superb collection of Greek vases is now published as a sumptuous fully colour illustrated cloth covered volume which will suit the needs of students researchers and interested readers This richly illustrated book is a collectors item designed and produced to library specifications It offers the complete scholarly apparatus for study of the vase collection one of the finest in the country and comparable with others around the world It will prove valuable as a reference text wherever classics archaeology or art are studied The book is a product of one of the most outstanding Classical Studies departments in Australia and is destined for libraries throughout the world It is the first volume in a series planned to feature various aspects of the University s wider collection Each vase fully described and documented appears in rich colour and detail Styles and periods are introduced by contextualising photographs presented as dramatic double page spreads No effort has been spared to publish this collection as beautifully as these unique artifacts deserve Patterns in the Production of Apulian Red-Figure Pottery Edward Herring, 2018-10-01 Most of the previous scholarship on Apulian red figure pottery has focused on the cataloguing of collections the attribution of vases to painters and workshops iconographic and stylistic matters and individual vessels and vase forms This partly reflects the history of vase painting scholarship which grew out of antiquarian collecting during the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries and the fact that a full archaeological provenance is not preserved for the overwhelming majority of vessels This book takes a different approach by using a database containing in excess of 13 500 vessels and fragments to identify patterns in the production and decoration of Apulian vases that cast light on the choices made by vase producers and the preferences of their customers Individual chapters consider the popularity of different vessel shapes over time the use of highly generic decorative scenes which are characteristic of Apulian red figure as well as the popularity of scenes of myth images of the gods scenes of the life of the non Greek population of ancient Puglia and those showing funerary monuments As virtually all of the vases in the sample derive from tombs the patterns identified provide insights into the ways in which the ancient populations of South East Italy both Greek and indigenous honoured their dead

Patterns in the Production of Paestan Red-Figure Pottery Edward Herring,2022-05-10 Most of the previous scholarship on Paestan red figure pottery has focused on the cataloguing of collections the attribution of vases to painters and workshops iconographic and stylistic matters and individual vessels and vase forms This partly reflects the history of vase painting scholarship which grew out of antiquarian collecting during 18th and 19th centuries and partly the fact that a full archaeological provenance is not preserved for the majority of vessels This book uses a database containing in excess of 1 800 vessels and fragments to identify patterns in the production and decoration of Paestan vases that cast light on the choices made by vase producers and the preferences of their customers It considers the popularity of different vessel shapes over time the use of highly generic decorative scenes which are characteristic of Paestan red figure as well as the popularity of scenes of myth images of the gods and scenes of nude and half draped women Paestan red figure is compared with the vessels decorated in Applied Red produced at the same site A comparison is also made between the output of the Paestan red figure industry and that of Apulia As the majority of the vases in the sample derive from tombs the patterns identified provide insights into the ways in which the ancient populations of Paestum and South West Italy commemorated the dead

Greek Vases: Images, Contexts and Controversies Clemente Marconi, 2021-08-04 This volume deals with Greek painted vases exploring them from various methodological points of view and moving beyond the traditional focus on connoisseurship and style The volume which represents the proceedings of an international conference sponsored by the Center for the Ancient Mediterranean at Columbia University is an effort to exploit the immense richness of these vases by using them to study general cultural history

Pots & Plays Oliver Taplin, 2007-10-15 This interdisciplinary study opens up a fascinating interaction between art and theater It shows how the mythological vase paintings of fourth century B C Greeks especially those settled in southern Italy are more meaningful for those who had seen the myths enacted in the popular new medium of tragedy Of some 300 relevant vases 109 are reproduced and accompanied by a picture by picture discussion This book supplies a rich and unprecedented resource from a neglected treasury of painting

Omens and Oracles Matthew Dillon, 2017-07-14 Addressing the role which divination played in ancient Greek society this volume deals with various forms of prophecy and how each was utilised and for what purpose Chapters bring together key types of divining such as from birds celestial phenomena the entrails of sacrificed animals and dreams Oracular centres delivered prophetic pronouncements to enquirers but in addition there were written collections of oracles in circulation Many books were available on how to interpret dreams the birds and entrails and divination as a religious phenomenon attracted the attention of many writers Expert diviners were at the heart of Greek prophecy whether these were Apollo's priestesses delivering prose or verse answers to questions put to them by consultants diviners known as manteis who interpreted entrails and omens the chresmologoi who sang the many oracles circulating orally or in writing or dream interpreters Divination was utilised not only to foretell the future but also to ensure that the individual or state employing divination acted in accordance with that divinely prescribed future it was employed by all and had a crucial role to play in what courses of action both states and individuals undertook Specific attention is paid in this volume not only to the ancient written evidence but to that of inscriptions and papyri with emphasis placed on the iconography of Greek divination
