national Congress believed the Union was full grown geographically that it covered too much territory already To all such narrow visions the Alleghenies appealed as being the natural western boundary These conservatives insisted the future of the country was to be found on the seaboard Tony's War Edward Anthony (Tony) Zahn, 2019-12-20 Tony was an urbane witty college educated Long Island boy whose WWII army career was recorded in 256 letters sent home to his parents as he lived through the experience They begin with his departure for basic training in October 1942 and continue until his return home from the Philippines in December 1945 His first two years of stateside maneuvers were an involuntary adventure a bit of a lark that had interrupted his life not unpleasantly But when he lands in a combat zone on the heels of MacArthur his perspective on life changes forever This is the story in his own words of one individual soldier's complete WWII experience TONY'S WAR chronicles here and now thoughts observations and fears of a war time soldier The letters describe in minute detail basic training stateside duty at several army camps the trans Pacific journey to war hospital convalescence and life in a jungle combat zone There are disturbing secret letters sent to his father's office with revelations not meant for his mother's eyes journal entries of events that would not have been passed by the censor and the text is augmented by many of his photographs and drawings Take a journey into the heart and soul of a member of the Greatest Generation a WWII soldier
