Rituals and Secrets of Blue Magic and Red Magic Alina Rubi, 2025-08-03

This book opens the gates to two magical paths as ancient as they are opposite. Blue Magic, the guardian of intuition, protection, and the power of water; and Red Magic, the bearer of fire, desire, and transformation. Within these pages, you will find ancestral rituals, forgotten symbols, and energetic formulas to awaken your inner wisdom and ignite your deepest passions. Each page is an act of invocation, a whisper from the witches who mastered the art of balancing calm and flame. This is not a book to simply read; it is a grimoire to practice, feel, and remember. What is forbidden does not always destroy; sometimes it sets you free.

Imagining the Unimaginable Glyn Morgan, 2020-01-23 Imagining the Unimaginable examines popular fiction's treatment of the Holocaust in the dystopian and alternate history genres of speculative fiction analyzing the effectiveness of the genre's major works as a lens through which to view the most prominent historical trauma of the 20th century. It surveys a range of British and American authors from science fiction pulp to Pulitzer Prize winners building on scholarship across disciplines including Holocaust studies, trauma studies, and science fiction studies. The conventional discourse around the Holocaust is one of the unapproachable, unknowable, and the unimaginable. The Holocaust has been compared to an earthquake, another planet, another universe, a void. It has been said to be beyond language or else have its own incomprehensible language beyond art and beyond thought. The othering of the event has spurred the phenomenon of non-realist Holocaust literature engaging with speculative fiction and its history of the uncanny, the grotesque, and the inhuman. This book examines the most common forms of non-mimetic Holocaust fiction: the dystopia and the alternate history, while firmly positioning these forms within a broader pattern of non-realist engagements with the Holocaust.

The Red Balloon Michael L. Majewski, 2025-03-06 An exciting tale taken from a poem that was written by the same name. I enjoyed writing poetry, lyrics, and short stories. My imagination played a lot with this story, and the characters were certainly a part of it. Dedication to my daughter Kristine Lynn Bina and thanks to my sister Trisha for carrying out my legacy and fervent wishes to have readers enjoy it.
