Red Revolution Inside The Philippine Guerilla Movement:

Red Revolution Gregg R. Jones, 2019-06-26 This book is about the Communist Party of the Philippines CPP and its guerrilla army Its objective is to offer the reader a close up look and analysis of the revolution and serves as a case study of the inner workings of one of the most successful communist revolutionary movements

An Analysis Of The Communist Insurgency In The Philippines LTC Antonio G. Parlade Jr., 2015-11-06 The Maoist inspired Communist Party of the Philippines celebrated its 37th anniversary on December 2005 It marks a long history of violence terror and instability in the archipelagic country of 87 million people causing thousands of casualties among government troops insurgents and including civilians This study seeks to find a lasting solution that will finally bring to a close the final chapter to insurgency in the country It was approached from a historical point of view by studying the events that lead to the birth of the movement in 1932 until its defeat in 1954 A new chapter of the Maoist insurgency started in 1969 and this movement emerged into a formidable guerrilla force that became the primary threat to the nation s security This paper tries to analyze how that insurgency persisted to challenge the government this far and what went wrong with the government s response It will attempt to answer the primary question How to defeat the communist insurgency

The Social Dynamics of Deforestation in the Philippines Gerhard van den Top, 2003 This work offers a detailed case study on the dynamics of forest use degradation and loss in Northeast Luzon Philippines Following an interdisciplinary approach the study charts the degradation and loss of forest in this area between 1950 and 1990 as it relates to the social and political context of logging forest migration and changes in upland agriculture Based on ten years of research the author introduces us to the actions livelihood options and motives of all the principal group of actors

Philippine Security in the Age of Terror Rommel Banlaoi, 2009-10-13 As the twelfth most populous nation the Philippines diverse religious and ethnic population makes it an ideal example of the changing tenet of what is deemed national security post 9 11 Issues previously considered social or public are now viewed as security issues Food production is now analyzed in the context of food security and environmenta

Plundering Paradise Robin Broad, John Cavanagh, 2023-11-15 This gripping portrait of environmental politics chronicles the devastating destruction of the Philippine countryside and reveals how ordinary men and women are fighting back Traveling through a land of lush rainforests the authors have recorded the experiences of the people whose livelihoods are disappearing along with their country s natural resources The result is an inspiring informative account of how peasants fishers and other laborers have united to halt the plunder and to improve their lives These people do not debate global warming they know that their very lives depend on the land and oceans so they block logging trucks protest open pit mining and replant trees In a country where nearly two thirds of the children are impoverished the reclaiming of natural resources is offering young people hope for a future Plundering Paradise is essential reading for anyone interested in development the global environment and political life in the Third World This gripping portrait of environmental politics chronicles the devastating destruction of the Philippine countryside and reveals how ordinary men and women are fighting back Traveling through a land of lush rainforests the authors have recorded the exp

In the Name of Civil Society Eva-Lotta Hedman,2005-11-30 In the Name of Civil Society examines Philippine politics in a highly original and provocative way Hedman s detailed analysis shows how dominant elites in the Philippines shore up the structures of liberal democracy in order to ensure their continued hegemony over Philippine society This book will be of interest to everyone concerned with civil society and the processes of democratization and democracy in capitalist societies Paul D Hutchcroft University of Wisconsin Madison What is the politics of civil society Focusing on the Philippines home to the mother of all election watch movements the original People Power revolt and one of the largest and most diverse NGO populations in the world Eva Lotta Hedman offers a critique that goes against the grain of much other current scholarship Her highly original work challenges celebratory and universalist accounts that tend to reify civil society as a unified and coherent entity and to ascribe a single meaning and automatic trajectory to its role in democratization She shows how mobilization in the name of civil society is contingent on the intercession of citizens and performative displays of citizenship as opposed to other appeals and articulations of identity such as class In short Hedman argues the very definitions of civil and society are at stake Based on extensive research spanning the course of a decade 1991 2001 this study offers a powerful analysis of Philippine politics and society inspired by the writings of Antonio Gramsci It draws on a rich collection of sources from archives interviews newspapers and participant observation It identifies a cycle of recurring crises of authority involving mounting threats from above and below to oligarchical democracy in the Philippines Tracing the trajectory of Gramscian dominant bloc of social forces Hedman shows how each such crisis in the Philippines promotes a countermobilization by the intellectuals of the dominant bloc the capitalist class the Catholic Church and the U S government In documenting the capacity of so called secondary associations business lay professional to project moral and intellectual leadership in each of these crises this study sheds new light on the forces and dynamics of change and continuity in Philippine politics and society

Critical Intersections M.D. Litonjua,2006-06-19 Life is all about intersections Living is where sorrow meets joy where pain encounters ecstasy where the weakness of the flesh is buoyed by the strength of faith where love conquers all doubts and betrayals Marriage is for better and worse for richer and poorer in sickness and health it is for life and death Spirituality is the arduous integration of lifes dispositions and tendencies of ones urges and habits for the whole to reach out in transcendence to ones fellow human beings and to God Growth to Christian maturity is actualizing the intersecting because cruciform demands of love of God and love of neighbor which follows the path that leads from Good Friday to Easter Sunday Academic life is also becoming one of intersections After the increasing structural differentiation and functional specialization characteristic of modernity academic disciplines are critically intersecting and cross fertilizing with each other for integration enrichment and further enlightenment The behavioral sciences need genetics and biology for a more adequate explanation of human behavior Homo oeconomicus of neoclassical economics is complemented by the realities of power of homo sociologicus Theology calls on the social sciences in addition to its ancient ancilla philosophy to make moral sense of social and global problems Interdisciplinary courses try to make connections between the disciplines students have studied and to integrate the breadth and the depth of knowledge they have been exposed to Philippine Politics and Society in the Twentieth Century Eva-Lotta Hedman, John Sidel, 2005-11-29 The only book length study to cover the Philippines after Marco s downfall this key title thematically explores issues affecting this fascinating country throughout the last century Appealing to both the academic and non academic reader topics covered include national level electoral politics economic growth the Philippine Chinese law and order opposition the Left local and ethnic politics Everyday Politics in the Philippines Benedict J. Kerkvliet, 2002 Focusing on a rice farming village in central Luzon Kerkvliet argues that the faction and patron client relationships dealt with by conventional studies are only one part of Philippine political life Economic and Political Change in Asia and Europe Bernadette Andreosso-O'Callaghan, Frédéric Royall, 2012-08-10 Since the 1973 publication of Alain Peyrefitte s prophetic When China Awakens developments in East Asia have outstripped even the wildest predictions China has undergone the fastest industrialization and urbanization process in history yet tensions there are rising as some realize how far they have been left behind This volume explores the applicability of European economic and social models to our analysis of East Asia s and in particular China s situation Though millions of Chinese and other Asian people have been lifted out of poverty inequality is rising nonetheless and contemporary Europe and Asia are both witnessing collective action against rampant economic neoliberalism in the former and the exclusion of minorities in the latter It is difficult to overstate the relevance of this assessment which seeks answers to some central questions Can events in Europe serve as a model for those in East Asia Are there similarities or differences between the two regions To what extent do political economic or social systems stimulate or inhibit collective action How culturally equivalent are the collective actions of marginalized disadvantaged people in the two locations or are events in Europe symptomatic of specific cultural attributes Comparing and contrasting the research tools and dominant paradigms in the social and economic sciences in East Asia and Europe as this volume does throws out some revealing results Democratic Recession, Autocratization, and Democratic Backlash in Southeast Asia James Ockey, Naimah S. Talib, 2023-03-10 This book presents a new organizing framework for studying democratic recession and autocratization in Southeast Asia By introducing a new concept democratic backlash the book details how democratic recession inevitably provokes resistance that often forms the nucleus of new democratic movements and in doing so argues that it is important to identify these reverse trends that may eventually become dominant The book contributes to current literature which thus far has sought to understand the causes and consequences of the decline in democracy around the world Previous literature has focused primarily on advanced democracies or alternatively on large scale quantitative comparison As such this book helps fill a research gap with its focus on Southeast Asia employing a comparative case study approach Chapter authors are experts on Southeast Asia a region that has experienced democratic recession and autocratization in a variety of ways from rising populism to military coups Security Aspects of Philippines-China Relations Rommel C. Banlaoi, 2007 San Francisco's International Hotel Estella Habal, 2007 Part history and part memoir San Francisco's International Hotel is a compelling story of community resistance Estella Habal features her own memories of the anti Eviction Movement focusing on the roles of Filipino Americans and their participation in both the anti eviction protests and the nascent Asian American movement She rounds out the narrative with a variety of sources including interviews with other participants the notes of insiders and official reports Jacket Democracy and Nationalism in Southeast Asia Jacques Bertrand, 2021-04-29 Jacques Bertrand offers a comparative historical analysis of five nationalist conflicts over several decades in Southeast Asia Using a theoretical framework to explain variance over time and across cases he challenges and refines existing debates on democracy's impact and shows that while democratization significantly reduces violent insurgency over time it often introduces pernicious effects that fail to resolve conflict and contribute to maintaining deep nationalist grievances Drawing on years of detailed fieldwork Bertrand analyses the paths that led from secessionist mobilization to a range of outcomes These include persistent state repression for Malay Muslims in Thailand low level violence under a top down special autonomy for Papuans reframing of mobilizing from nationalist to indigenous peoples in the Cordillera a long and broken path to an untested broad autonomy for the Moros and relatively successful broad autonomy for Acehnese A Guide to Intra-state Wars Jeffrey S. Dixon, Meredith Reid Sarkees, 2015-10-22 This title describes how civil war is defined and categorized and presents data and descriptions for nearly 300 civil wars waged from 1816 to the present Analyzing trends over time and regions this work is the definitive source for understanding the phenomenon of civil war Kasarinlan, 2000 Barons, Brokers, and Buyers Michael S. Billig, 2002-10-31 This innovative ethnography takes a new approach to the study of Philippine sugar For much of the late colonial history of the Philippines sugar was its most lucrative export the biggest employer and the greatest source of political influence The so called Sugar Barons wealthy hacendero planters located mainly in Central Luzon and on the Visayan island of Negros gained the reputation as kingmakers and became noted for their lavish lifestyles and the quasi feudal nature of their estates But Philippine sugar gradually declined into obsolescence today it is regarded as a sunset industry that can barely satisfy domestic demand While planters continue to think of themselves as wielding considerable power and influence they are more often seen as vestiges of a bygone era Michael Billig examines sugar's decline within both the dynamic context of contemporary Philippine society and the global context of the international sugar market His multi sided ethnographic analysis focuses mainly on conflicts among the various elite sectors planters millers traders commercial buyers politicians and concludes that the most salient political economic and cultural trend in the Philippines today is the decline of rural agrarian elite power and the rise of urban industrial commercial and financial power His reflections on his relationships with informants in the midst of the politically charged atmosphere that surrounds the sugar industry provide a candid look at the role of the observer who try as he might to remain impartial finds himself swept into the vortex of policy debates and power plays

Living Through Terror Suvendrini Perera, Antonio Traverso, 2013-10-31 In the era of war on terror the term terror has tended to be applied to its sudden eruptions in the metropolises of the global north This volume directs its attention to terror s manifestations in other locations and lives The title Living Through Terror refers both to the pervasiveness of terror in societies where extreme violence and war constitute the everyday processes of life as well as to the experience of surviving terror and living into the future The contributions consider terror s effects in those ignored and silenced locations where terror is either naturalised the Philippines South Africa Timor Leste Sri Lanka or made invisible the neo liberal democracies of Australia and Italy The stories of ruined places displaced bodies and identities shattered and remade that emerge from these pages bring into view the socio political systems cultural geographies and regimes of territoriality through which terror is engendered and naturalised and the institutions and imaginaries that continue to underpin them The essays literary writings and images collected here attend in their different ways to subjects living in and with terror as an element incorporated in their everyday and to the processes by which terror exercises itself in their lives whether it is perpetrated by state or non state actors Simultaneously the contributions attest to the tactics subjects deploy to confront and negotiate conditions of terror their attempts to live with and through terror and ultimately their strategies to recover through the everyday and the ordinary the seeds of life and hope

Creative Fractures M.D. Litonjua, 2011-02-01 The world is one of increasing diversity and pluralism Our world is one of the different and of the many Even the individual personality and the social self are increasingly diverse and plural This is especially evident in racial and ethnic identities The Ohioan the New Yorker the Texan all became after the cauldron of the Civil War the American Now the American is continually being hyphenated Native American African American Latino American Asian American and a host of other hyphens In the academy the dichotomy between the fox who knows many things and the hedgehog who knows one big thing Archilocus is giving way to different combinations and variations of learning teaching and expertise as demanded by and reflecting the diversity and complexity of society and world While these differences and pluralisms can lead to fragmentation these fractures can also be creative The ethnically hyphenated person who straddles two cultures need not be marginal to both but can use the riches of his her diverse experiences to cross fertilize the cultures of which they are now part and parcel The other the different especially the poor must not be marginalized pushed to the margins of society as outcasts they need to be empowered for their betterment and for the common good of society The academic well versed in several disciplines should not be considered master of none but can bring the insights of one discipline to tame the fundamentalism of another discipline and to expand the horizons of all In one form or another to a greater or lesser extent this is what I have tried to do in the essays gathered in this second collection the first being Critical Intersections 2006
