The Red Riviera Kristen Ghodsee, 2005-11-02 A study of the changes in women's roles in postcommunist Bulgarian society and the workplace focusing on the tourism industry

Red Hangover Kristen Ghodsee, 2017-10-19 In Red Hangover Kristen Ghodsee examines the legacies of twentieth century communism twenty five years after the Berlin Wall fell Ghodsee's essays and short stories reflect on the lived experience of postsocialism and how many ordinary men and women across Eastern Europe suffered from the massive social and economic upheavals in their lives after 1989 Ghodsee shows how recent major crises from the Russian annexation of Crimea and the Syrian Civil War to the rise of Islamic State and the influx of migrants in Europe are linked to mistakes made after the collapse of the Eastern Bloc when fantasies about the triumph of free markets and liberal democracy blinded Western leaders to the human costs of regime change Just as the communist ideal has become permanently tainted by its association with the worst excesses of twentieth century Eastern European regimes today the democratic ideal is increasingly sullied by its links to the ravages of neoliberalism An accessible introduction to the history of European state socialism and postcommunism Red Hangover reveals how the events of 1989 continue to shape the world today

Civil Society and Gender Justice Karen Hagemann, Sonya Michel, Gunilla Budde, 2008-10-01 Civil society and civic engagement have increasingly become topics of discussion at the national and international level The editors of this volume ask does the concept of civil society include gender equality and gender justice Or to frame the question differently is civil society a feminist concept Conversely does feminism need the concept of civil society This important volume offers both a revised gendered history of civil society and a program for making it more egalitarian in the future An interdisciplinary group of internationally known authors investigates the relationship between public and private in the discourses and practices of civil societies the significance of the family for the project of civil society the relation between civil society the state and different forms of citizenship and the complex connection between civil society gendered forms of protest and nongovernmental movements While often critical of historical instantiations of civil society all the authors nonetheless take seriously the potential inherent in civil society particularly as it comes to influence global politics They demand however an expansion of both the concept and project of civil society in order to make its political opportunities available to all

Gender, Politics and Society in Ukraine Olena Hankivsky, Anastasiya Salnykova, 2013-04-02 Gender Politics and Society in Ukraine is the first collection to examine how political social and economic transitions in post Communist Ukraine are transforming gender roles and relations within the country Leading Western and Ukrainian scholars and practitioners address a wide range of effects associated with and reinforced by these transitions including the breakdown of the general welfare system the lack of progress in the development of the healthcare system gender inequality in political representation the patriarchal nature of nation building human trafficking domestic violence changing conceptions of fatherhood and masculinity homelessness and LGBT issues from a variety of methodological and disciplinary perspectives Gender Politics and Society in Ukraine is particularly innovative in its exploration of both women s and men s experiences and the ways in which gender relations shift over time in societies undergoing transitions to democracy As such this volume furthers the understanding of the complex obstacles and challenges of working towards gender equality in evolving democracies and identifies future priorities for research politics and policy development The

Gender Regime of Anti-Liberal Hungary Eva Fodor,2021-11-30 This Open Access book explains a new type of political order that emerged in Hungary in 2010 a form of authoritarian capitalism with an anti liberal political and social agenda Eva Fodor analyzes an important part of this agenda that directly targets gender relations through a set of policies political practice and discourse what she calls carefare The book reveals how this is the anti liberal response to the crisis of care problem and establishes how a state carefare regime disciplines women into doing an increasing amount of paid and unpaid work without fair remuneration Fodor analyzes elements of this regime in depth and contrasts it to other social policy ideal types demonstrating how carefare is not only a set of policies targeting women but an integral element of anti liberal rule that can be seen emerging globally The Tourism Encounter Florence Babb,2010-08-30 In recent decades several Latin American nations have experienced political transitions that have caused a decline in tourism In spite of or even because of that history these areas are again becoming popular destinations This work reveals that in post conflict nations tourism often takes up where social transformation leaves off and sometimes benefits from formerly off limits status Comparing cases in Cuba Mexico Nicaragua and Peru Babb shows how tourism is a major force in remaking transitional nations While tourism touts scenic beauty and colonial charm it also capitalizes on the desire for a brush with recent revolutionary history In the process selective histories are promoted and nations remade This work presents the diverse stories of those linked to the trade and reveals how interpretations of the past and desires for the future coincide and collide in the global marketplace of tourism Gender (In)equality and Gender Politics in Southeastern Europe C. Hassentab,S. Ramet,Christine

Hassenstab,2015-04-14 The collapse of socialist regimes across Southeastern Europe changed the rules of the political game and led to the transformation of these societies The status of women was immediately affected The contributors to this volume contrast the status of women in the post socialist societies of the region with their status under socialism

Tourism and Travel during the Cold War Sune Bechmann Pedersen,Christian Noack,2019-09-11 The Iron Curtain was not an impenetrable divide and contacts between East and West took place regularly and on various levels throughout the Cold War This book explores how the European tourist industry transcended the ideological fault lines and the communist states attracted an ever increasing number of Western tourists Based on extensive original research it examines the ramifications of tourism from sun and sea package tours to human rights travels in key Eastern European locations including East Berlin the Soviet Union Yugoslavia and Albania The book s analysis of the politics culture and history of tourism to the

East offers important new perspectives on European tourism in the twentieth century The Introduction of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Gender Politics and Everyday Life in State Socialist Eastern and Central Europe S. Penn, J. Massino, 2009-11-23 This book showcases extensive research on gender under state socialism examining the subject in terms of state policy and law sexuality and reproduction the academy leisure the private sphere the work world opposition activism and memory and identity

Balkan Blues Yuseon Jung, 2019-02-01 An exploration of how a state transitions from the collectivized production and distribution of socialism to the consumer focused culture of capitalism In Balkan Blues Yuseon Jung considers the state as an economic agent in upholding rights and responsibilities in the shift to a global market Taking Bulgaria as her focus Jung shows how impoverished Bulgarians developed a consumer oriented society and how the concept of need adapted in surprising ways to accommodate this new culture Different legal frameworks arose to ensure the rights of vulnerable or deceived consumers Consumer advocacy NGOs and government officers scrambled to navigate unfamiliar EU imposed models for consumer affairs departments All of these changes involved issues of responsibility accountability and civic engagement which brought Bulgarians new ways of viewing both their identities and their sense of agency Yet these opportunities also raised questions of inequality injustice and social stratification Jung's study provides a compelling argument for reconsidering of the role of the state in the construction of twenty first century consumer cultures A good contribution to post socialist and Balkan studies showing well that the concept of post socialism can still be useful not only in the context of Central and Eastern Europe but also in the Balkans The book is based on long term deep ethnography and is well written I recommend it to anyone who wants to try to understand social political and economic differences in Europe and everyday practices related to the imaginaries of the state Karolina Bielenin Lenczowska Ethnologia Polona

Democracy, Gender, and Social Policy in Russia Andrea Chandler, 2015-12-17 Through compelling and insightful analysis of the Russian case this book explores the role that social welfare plays in regime transitions It examines the role that gender and social welfare has played in Russia's post communist political evolution from Yeltsin's assumption of the presidency to Putin's return for a third term as president in 2012

Tourism, Urbanization, and the Evolving Periphery of the European Union Max Holleran, 2019-10-25 This book explores travel tourism and urban development at the edges of Europe from the 1970s until the present It compares tourism spurred urban growth in Spain and Bulgaria showing how development in Southern Europe after the fall of dictatorships provided a model for integrating post socialist Europe in the 1990s It analyzes the economic cultural and political dimensions of tourist economies showing how they aligned with major European Union integration goals and were supported with EU development funds It also chronicles the social and environmental costs of mass tourism where over development has despoiled beachfronts and promoted low paying service jobs reinforcing regional divisions in Europe between those who host and those who visit Ultimately it argues that while mass tourism is touted as a viable economic solution to EU inequality it can potentially exacerbate disparities between core and peripheral zones creating new and troubling forms of regional polarization Slavery, Smallholding and Tourism Michael E. O'Neal, 2012-02-21 SLAVERY SMALLHOLDING AND TOURISM explores the political economy of development in the British Virgin Islands from plantations through the evolution of a smallholding economy to the rise of tourism The study argues that the demise of plantation economy in the BVI ushered in a century of imperial disinterest persisting until recently when a new monocrop tourism became ascendant Using an historical and anthropological approach O Neal reveals that the trend toward reliance on tourism and other dependent industries echoes for many BVI Islanders the Belongers their heritage Part of the Classic Dissertation Series from Quid Pro Books the book adds a new Foreword by Vassar's Colleen Ballerino Cohen and additional commentary by UC Irvine's Bill Maurer who shows how even the emergence of a financial services industry may be understood through the insights that O Neal presents in his study Quality eBook formatting features active Contents linked notes original tables and maps and Index Alternative Tourism in Budapest Susan E. Hill, 2017-02-03 Alternative Tourism in Budapest Class Culture and Identity in a Postsocialist City analyzes the particular imaginaries of Hungarian culture that are produced and circulated through alternative tourism a generation after state socialism Susan Hill records the everyday work of business owners and tour guides at four Budapest alternative tourism companies that lead tourists to areas not typically visited by travelers and she considers the significance of alternative tourism work for processes of identity making and cultural production in Budapest This ethnographic study is recommended for scholars of anthropology cultural studies and political science Eastern Christianity and Politics in the Twenty-First Century Lucian N. Leustean, 2014-05-30 This book provides an up to date comprehensive overview of Eastern Christian churches in Europe the Middle East Africa Asia and Australia Written by leading international scholars in the field it examines both Orthodox and Oriental churches from the end of the Cold War up to the present day The book offers a unique insight into the myriad church state relations in Eastern Christianity and tackles contemporary concerns opportunities and challenges such as religious revival after the fall of communism churches and democracy relations between Orthodox Catholic and Greek Catholic churches religious education and monastic life the size and structure of congregations and the impact of migration secularisation and globalisation on Eastern Christianity in the twenty first century The Youngest Yugoslavs Jovana Babović, 2025-11-04 Reflecting on the final decades of socialism eight individuals born in former Yugoslavia between 1971 and 1991 recount their memories of childhood and early adulthood and how that time period has made a lasting impact on their lives The Youngest Yugoslavs is an oral history collection that gives its readers in depth varied perspectives on why Yugoslavia continues to resonate among its former citizens more than 30 years since the state collapsed amid war genocide and dislocation Their interviews with author Jovana Babović showcase how these individuals remember their childhoods during the final decades of socialism and how they conceptualize the lasting impact Yugoslavia has had on their lives The

Youngest Yugoslavs offers insight on how this generation of Yugoslav individuals have reconciled the loss of their homeland and how they have continued to find meaning in the Yugoslav past as both a lived experience and as a set of ideals Lost in Transition Kristen Ghodsee, 2011-09-14 Through ethnographic essays and short stories based on her experiences in Eastern Europe between 1989 and 2009 Kristen Ghodsee explains why many Eastern Europeans are nostalgic for the communist past State and Society in Post-Socialist Economies J. Pickles, 2008-01-17 State and Society in Post Socialist Economies focuses on the reform economies of post socialist Europe It looks at how various projects of communism that emerged in have been and are still being dismantled and recomposed by alternative visions institutions and practices of capitalist market economies and democratic polities Encounters across Difference Natalia Bloch, 2021-05-07 In Encounters across Difference Natalia Bloch examines tourism encounters in the informal sector in India and their potential to empower subaltern communities Drawing from ethnographic evidence in Hampi and Dharamshala Bloch explores the potential of tourism to promote political engagement volunteering sponsorship local entrepreneurship and women s empowerment Contrary to the frequent criticism of tourism to the Global South as a colonial practice Bloch argues that workers and small entrepreneurs in displaced communities see tourists as allies in their political struggles and on a more individual level as an opportunity to build better lives For more information check out A Conversation with Natalia Bloch author of Encounters across Difference Tourism and Overcoming Subalternity in India
