Chesterton](#) Gilbert Keith Chesterton,1986 Throughout his life Gilbert Chesterton always had a propensity for throwing his genius around As a result of this tendency Chesterton penned articles essays stories and poems for so many periodicals that it was almost impossible to keep track of them In this volume Dr Denis J Conlon Professor of English Literature at the University of Antwerp has compiled Chesterton s short stories some of which have never appeared in print Many stories will be new to Chesterton fans because they were originally published in England and never appeared in U S editions and others published in the U S remain unknown on the other side of the Atlantic Dr Conlon also includes the lost Father Brown stories Fr Brown and the Donnington Affair and The Mask of Midas There are 43 short stories here along with a selection of 25 complete and incomplete tales from Chesterton s notebooks and numerous drawings and illustrations Some of the stories in this wonderful volume are The Coloured Lands The Sword of Wood The Trees of Pride How I Found the Superman The Five of Swords Homesick at Home and The End of Wisdom With illustrations Woman's era Delhi Press,2017-06-15 A magazine that caters to the tastes of discerning and intelligent women Carries women oriented articles fiction exotic recipes latest fashions and films Le Morte Darthur: King Arthur and his noble Knights of the Round Table Thomas Malory,2016-09-01 We owe this our English Epic of Le Morte Darthur to Sir Thomas Malory and to William Caxton the first English printer Caxton s Preface shows what indeed would have been certain from his appeal to the Knights of England at the end of The Order of Chivalry that however strongly he William Caxton simple person may have been urged to undertake the work by divers gentlemen of this realm of England he was not less moved by his own love and reverence for the noble acts of chivalry and his deep sense of his duty and responsibility in printing what he believed would be for the instruction and profit of his readers of whatever estate or degree But to Sir Thomas Malory he gives all the honour of having provided him with the copy which he printed And ever since for more than four hundred years successive generations have approved the fitness of Caxton s choice For it is Malory s book and not the older forms of King Arthur s story which we still read for enjoyment and for the illustration of which scholars edit those earlier books Only a true poem the offspring of genius could have so held and be still holding its ground age after age It may be said that it is chiefly with boys and with men who have formed the taste by their boyish reading that the book is so popular But is not this so with the Iliad too Men of mature intellect and taste read and re read the Iliad with ever new discoveries appreciation and enjoyment but it may be questioned whether there are many or even any of them who did not begin those studies at school and learn to love Homer before they knew that he was worthy of their love And they who have given most of such reading in youth and in manhood to Malory s Morte Darthur will be the
