The Red Lacquered Gate William E. Barrett, 2014-07-15 Fr Edward Ned Galvin was born in Ireland in 1882 the oldest in a family of seven children After he was ordained to the Catholic priesthood he realized that there were more priests in his native land than parishes So Ned Galvin immigrated to the United States and turned a struggling church in Brooklyn into a thriving parish But Father Galvin had a secret desire to do missionary work He was especially attracted to China and had read all the books on the subject his local library could provide Finally his wish was granted and he set out with a group of dedicated helpers on a mission to the Far East William E Barrett created this colorful dramatic portrait of an unusual man whose strong Catholic faith helped him survive the horrors and heartbreak of his demanding mission to China The

China, American Catholicism, and the Missionary Thomas A. Breslin, 1980 Be Centered in Christ and Not in Self Angelyn Dries, 2017-07-25 The story of the one hundred years 1918-2018 of the Missionary Society of St Columban is filled with adventure stress and danger with the humdrum of daily life with martyrs twenty seven of them thus far including Columban Sister Joan Sawyer with innumerable personal and society global connections and issues with men who went from the familiarity of daily life and people they knew to lands and people unknown to bring the good news The story is charged with humor and courage along with faith hope and love The people in this story lived within particular national histories and an evolving global Christianity The history of the US region of the Missionary Society of St Columban interacts with movements of Catholic and American history These contexts influenced the ability of the Columbans to grow in the United States to provide desperately needed resources for the missions and to further Catholic engagement in the mission Ave Maria ,1967 Franciscan Message ,1967 The Nature of Disaster in China Chris Courtney,2018-02-15 In 1931 China suffered a catastrophic flood that claimed millions of lives This was neither a natural nor human made disaster Rather it was created by an interaction between the environment and society Regular inundation had long been an integral feature of the ecology and culture of the middle Yangzi yet by the modern era floods had become humanitarian catastrophes Courtney describes how the ecological and economic effects of the 1931 flood pulse caused widespread famine and epidemics He takes readers into the inundated streets of Wuhan describing the terrifying and disorientating sensory environment He explains why locals believed that an angry Dragon King was causing the flood and explores how Japanese invasion and war with the Communists inhibited both official relief efforts and refugee coping strategies This innovative study offers the first in depth analysis of the 1931 flood and charts the evolution of one of China s most persistent environmental problems
