Gray, 1995 An unconventional social history Red Lights on the Prairies takes a lively look at the history of prostitution in prairie cities in the late nineteenth and early twentieth century This lighthearted yet insightful book tells how the West became overrun with brothels when huge tides of immigrants mostly unattached young men in the prime of life swept into the region as settlers Unlike many histories of this era it focuses on the prairie cities and towns that were home to the bars brothels and poolrooms and describes the efforts of the police clergy and moral reformers who were periodically outraged by the rowdy behaviour in the bawdy houses In this ground breaking book James Gray draws upon local newspapers of the time the accounts of several former madams and the reminiscences of old timers who had been youths at the turn of the century to produce a vivid and authentic book at a colourful and offbeat aspect of our past Like its companion book Booze also by James Gray Red Lights on the Prairies was a huge success when it was first published selling more than 100 000 copies throughout North America Canadian Books in Print 2002 Marian Butler, 2002-02 Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index , 1975 Canadian Book Review Annual , 1995 How the West was Written Brian

Brennan, 2006 How the West Was Written is published to celebrate the centenary of James H Gray's birth. He was born on 31 August 1906. James H Gray was the first Canadian social historian to tackle such previously taboo subjects as the sex lives and boozing habits of the early settlers. His books were on the national and Toronto Star bestseller lists before those of Pierre Berton and have since become classics of Canadian literature. Gray's Red Lights on the Prairies stunned readers with its straight forward approach to prostitution on the prairies and was named one of the one hundred most important Canadian books of all time by the Literary Review of Canada. In this first ever biography of Gray Brian Brennan covers aspects of the Gray story including His early poverty stricken years during WWI in Winnipeg His working career as an office boy brokerage firm employee and budding entrepreneur and gambler who invested in racehorses a candy business that went broke and a miniature golf course His 12 year career with the Free Press where he could write like hell and was afraid of no one which ended abruptly when he became the only reporter in history to be fired as a result of policy disagreement with his editor How he accepted a public relations job at Home Oil to promote a Canadian pipeline project and when that project evaporated redirected his energies into writing best selling histories that produced sales of 400 000 and brought the high school dropout three honorary doctorates the Order of Canada and the Pierre Berton Award for distinguished achievement in popularizing Canadian history Brennan draws on information gleaned from interviews with Gray family members and associates from Gray's books his newspaper articles research papers correspondence and diaries Brennan covers the Gray story with engaging wit and impressive authority

The Prairie West as Promised Land R. Douglas Francis, Chris Kitzan, 2007 Millions of immigrants were attracted to the Canadian West by promotional literature from the government in the late 19th century to the First World War bringing with them visions of opportunity to create a Utopian society or a chance to take control of their own destinies

Canadian Books in Print, 2003 Alberta History, 1994 Quill & Quire, 2005 Seeing Red Mark Cronlund Anderson, Carmen L. Robertson, 2011-09-02 The first book to examine the role of Canada's newspapers in perpetuating the myth of Native inferiority Seeing Red is a groundbreaking study of how Canadian English language newspapers have portrayed Aboriginal peoples from 1869 to the present day It assesses a wide range of publications on topics that include the sale of Rupert's Land the signing of Treaty 3 the North West Rebellion and Louis Riel the death of Pauline Johnson the outing of Grey Owl the discussions surrounding Bill C 31 the Banded Elbow standoff at Kenora Ontario and the Oka Crisis The authors uncover overwhelming evidence that the colonial imaginary not only thrives but dominates depictions of Aboriginal peoples in mainstream newspapers The colonial constructs ingrained in the news media perpetuate an imagined Native inferiority that contributes significantly to the marginalization of Indigenous people in Canada That such imagery persists to this day suggests strongly that our country lives in denial failing to live up to its cultural mosaic boosterism

The Silent Song Marjorie Wilkins Campbell, 1999 Mary Eleanor Wilkins was an English woman brought up to a life of fine music elegant clothes and a strong sense of propriety The Silent Song is the story of her immigration with her adventurous husband and two young daughters in 1904 to the rough and undeveloped Qu Appelle region of what became Saskatchewan Mary Eleanor's story is not unusual but its quiet sadness is unforgettable Through memory diaries and letters her oldest daughter Marjorie Wilkins Campbell a Governor General's literary award winner pieces together her beautiful and talented mother's struggle to survive The Silent Song gives voice to the thousands of women who suffered the barren conditions of the early West with few resources and offers insight into the lives of those who were not strong enough to endure

Canadian Plains Research Center, 1998 This collection of essays presents a variety of scholarly explorations of the nature and role of the Mounties in the Prairie Provinces from the formation of the North West Mounted Police in 1873-74 to its transformation into the Royal Canadian Mounted Police in 1919-20 The essays are grouped into five broad themes relations with First Nations law enforcement social issues including relations with minority groups and labour movements characteristics of the police force and crisis and change police immigrant relations response to labour unrest and the origins of domestic intelligence and counter subversion An epilogue presents the case for the dramatic change of the force after 1919-20 and the new force's use of the positive image created by the old force

The Prairie Provinces of Canada Henry J. Boam, 1914 Canadian Books in Print Martha Pluscauskas, 1976 Canada and the World, 1972 Subject Guide to Canadian Books in Print, 1974 Dictionary of Manitoba Biography J.M. Bumsted, 1999-12-10 Manitoba has been at the crossroads of many of the important debates and events in Canadian history From the early fur trade to the Riel Rebellion to the Winnipeg General Strike Manitobans have frequently played crucial roles in Canadian and sometimes world history Until now there has been no comprehensive contemporary source for information on the many Manitobans who have left their mark on history and society Dictionary of Manitoba Biography fills this gap with biographical sketches of over 1700 Manitobans who have made an impact in politics the arts sports commerce agriculture and society It is an invaluable resource for scholars students and general readers interested in Canadian history Particular emphasis has been placed on reflecting Manitoba's ethnic and social diversity and on including men and women who were notable in their own day but have now been forgotten Many entries also refer the reader to additional references for further reading More than a reference book Dictionary of Manitoba Biography is also a fascinating work of history in its own right which presents the full and colourful scope of over 300 years of people in Manitoba history and social life from premiers and mayors to nightclub owners and sports heroes

Grass Roots Heather Robertson, 1973-01-01 Heather Robertson's classic account of life and death on the Canadian prairie was praised and reviled with equal vehemence when it first appeared a pack of lies said one reviewer dynamite said another Both her reporting and analysis are in fact explosive The book offers intimate profiles of four modern prairie towns and of the immense difficulties faced by farmers in Western Canada It offers sweeping descriptions of the forces that led to the settlement of the West and examines how those same forces controlled from eastern Canada are causing the inexorable decline of many rural communities Grass Roots is a superb portrait of an imperilled way of life combining economics history and politics with a remarkable eye for storytelling Imagining Ourselves Daniel Francis,1994 Imagining Ourselves gathers together selections from Canadian non fiction books that in some way have had a major impact on how we view ourselves as Canadians revealing how the national identity has been shaped and informed by the written word Included are selections from such well known Canadian books as Wild Animals I Have Known Ernest Thomas Seton Pilgrims of the Wild Grey Owl Klee Wyck Emily Carr The Game Ken Dryden Renegade in Power Peter C Newman Survival Margaret Atwood and The Last Spike Pierre Berton
