Retrospect The Memoirs Of Rt Hon Viscount:

Retrospect, the Memoirs of Rt. Hon. Viscount Simon John Allsebrook Simon Simon (Viscount),1952 Retrospect,1952 The Marquess of Londonderry N.C. Fleming,2024-02-22 Charles Stewart Henry Vane Tempest Stewart the seventh Marquess of Londonderry has long been a divisive figure in British and Irish history Was he an anti Semitic Nazi sympathizer as some have argued or did he seek to preserve peace in Europe Should he be blamed for the breakdown of the World Disarmament Conference as the Labour party maintained or did he help to preserve the Royal Air Force that ultimately secured victory in the Battle of Britain Was he the founding father of integrated education in Northern Ireland or the friendly face of a sectarian government In the paperback edition of The Marquess of Londonderry N C Fleming answers these questions and more This updated and expanded biography draws extensively from private family papers and state papers as well as new scholarship to provide an illuminating and rounded study of an infamous and often misunderstood aristocrat It contains new details about his household and wealth his travels across the British Empire and his ownership of collieries in County Durham Londonderry s political beliefs are fully examined including his attitudes to democracy capitalism women s rights religion trade unions and anti-Semitism It charts his diplomatic efforts at the League of Nations and his promotion of Anglo German understanding in response to the aggressive policies of Adolf Hitler Fleming places Londonderry s political career in the context of aristocratic decline and growing calls for social equality He demonstrates how Londonderry defied contemporary expectations by holding on to high office and how he continued to have the attention of powerful figures even after his removal from the government Retrospect John Allsebrook Simon 1st Viscount Simon,1952 British Foreign Secretaries in an Uncertain World, 1919-1939 Michael Hughes,2006 This book examines the careers of the men who served as British Foreign Secretary between 1919 and 1939 focusing in particular on the ways in which they sought to mould foreign policy H. H. Asquith V. Markham Lester,2019-07-08 H H Asquith Last of the Romans chronicles the life of H H Asquith 1852 1928 the longest serving British prime minister between Lord Liverpool and Margaret Thatcher In this study V Markham Lester argues that the key to understanding Asquith is to recognize the classical virtues he acquired early in his education Employing unpublished sources and documents made public since the last full scale biography of Asquith was published more than forty years ago Lester challenges many interpretations in earlier biographies Previous studies of Asquith have often glossed over his education and early years contending that his development did not contribute materially to his mature outlook On the contrary by examining thoroughly Asquith s early career particularly his tenure as home secretary and his time as a barrister this book offers unappreciated insights into Asquith s character and development as a political leader Lester further challenges the previous conclusions that Asquith failed as a war leader demonstrating that Asquith succeeded in meeting the novel challenges of World War I and that his accomplishments have been insufficiently understood He explains how Asquith s lifelong reliance on rational thought eloquence and self control produced the impressive leadership required to hold the fragile government together as it struggled to handle the unexpected and unprecedented challenges of world war and to lay the foundation for ultimate victory in the Great War

His Majesty's Airship S C Gwynne, 2024-05-21 The tragic story of the British airship R101 which went down in a spectacular hydrogen fueled fireball in 1930 killing more people than died in the Hindenburg disaster seven years later has been largely forgotten In His Majesty's Airship historian S C Gwynne resurrects it in vivid detail telling the epic story of great ambition gone terribly wrong Airships those airborne leviathans that occupied center stage in the world in the first half of the twentieth century were a symbol of the future R101 was not just the largest aircraft ever to have flown and the product of the world's most advanced engineering she was also the lynchpin of an imperial British scheme to link by air the far flung areas of its empire from Australia to India South Africa Canada Egypt and Singapore No one had ever conceived of anything like this R101 captivated the world There was just one problem beyond the hype and technological wonders these big steel framed hydrogen filled airships were a dangerously bad idea Gwynne's chronicle features a cast of remarkable and often tragically flawed characters including Lord Christopher Thomson the man who dreamed up the Imperial Airship Scheme and then relentlessly pushed R101 to her destruction Princess Marthe Bibesco the celebrated writer and glamorous socialite with whom he had a long affair and Herbert Scott a national hero who had made the first double crossing of the Atlantic in any aircraft in 1919 eight years before Lindbergh's famous flight but who devolved into drink and ruin These historical figures and the ship they built flew and crashed come together in a grand tale that details the rocky road to commercial aviation written by one of the best popular historians writing today
