Return Of Painting The Pearl And Orion A Trilogy:

The Return of Painting ; The Pearl ; and Orion Leslie Scalapino,1997 Fiction The novels in this trilogy are not novels in any conventional sense Scalapino rejects the orderly development of plot and character striking instead at what she perceives to be the radical chaos of human experience by writing from an ever shifting multitude of perspectives This style makes for a kind of syntactical avalanche The steely blue eyed man is middleaged having been married leaving each is presently so yet obviously becoming involved with a young woman across from him who blinks stumbling in speaking in a halting yet stupid way Remarkably Scalapino makes the reader aware of the social and economic dimensions of her depictions of disrupted reality In THE RETURN OF PAINTING the verbal swarms cluster around AIDS patients and the homeless Scalapino s approach reaches its galvanizing best in ORION Openly asserting that her refusal of order is rebellion poet Scalapino s writing is bold and invigorating Yet ultimately her book is like a tantalizing linguistic mobile with words phrases and perspectives now colliding now combining to form a disjunctive portrait of reality that the reader can all too rarely grasp Publishers Weekly

It's Go in Horizontal Leslie Scalapino,2008-04-08 The poems embody ideas about writing and formal inventions demonstrating how one invention leads to the next Jacket flap

Famous Last Lines Daniel Grogan,2018-11-13 Famous Last Lines features the final sentences from 300 works of literature from Don Quixote to The Girl on the Train The closing words of any text carry a lot of weight Famous Last Lines unpacks more than 300 notable final lines from classical epics to contemporary short stories Spanning centuries of writing each entry whether for Don Quixote or The Girl on the Train provides context for these notable last lines making clear what makes them so memorable and lasting Famous Last Lines provides readers with a comprehensive collection of brilliant conclusions

The Constructivist Moment Barrett Watten,2012-01-01 Winner of the American Comparative Literature Association s Rene Wellek Prize 2004 As one of the founding poets and editors of the Language School of poetry and one of its central theorists Barrett Watten has consistently challenged the boundaries of literature and art In The Constructivist Moment he offers a series of theoretically informed and textually sensitive readings that advance a revisionist account of the avant garde through the methodologies of cultural studies His major topics include American modernist and postmodern poetics Soviet constructivist and post Soviet literature and art Fordism and Detroit techno each proposed as exemplary of the social construction of aesthetic and cultural forms His book is a full scale attempt to place the linguistic turn of critical theory and the self reflexive foregrounding of language by the avant garde since the Russian Formalists in relation to the cultural politics of postcolonial studies feminism and race theory As such it will provide a crucial revisionist perspective within modernist and avant garde studies

Zither & Autobiography Leslie Scalapino,2003-05-28 A reflective eclectic mixture of poetry and prose

Beneath a Single Moon Kent Johnson,Craig Paulenich,2001-05-01 Beneath a Single Moon is an extraordinary collection of the work of forty five contemporary American poets with over 250 poems and thirty essays on the influence of spiritual practice on the practice of poetry Included are works by John Cage Diane di Prima Allen Ginsberg Jane Hirshfield Andrew Schelling Gary Snyder Anne Waldman and others The Marginalization of Poetry Bob Perelman, 2021-02-09 Language writing the most controversial avant garde movement in contemporary American poetry appeals strongly to writers and readers interested in the politics of postmodernism and in iconoclastic poetic form Drawing on materials from popular culture avoiding the standard stylistic indications of poetic lyricism and using nonsequential sentences are some of the ways in which language writers make poetry a more open and participatory process for the readers Reading this kind of writing however may not come easily in a culture where poetry is treated as property of a special class It is this barrier that Bob Perelman seeks to break down in this fascinating and comprehensive account of the language writing movement A leading language writer himself Perelman offers insights into the history of the movement and discusses the political and theoretical implications of the writing He provides detailed readings of work by Lyn Hejinian Ron Silliman and Charles Bernstein among many others and compares it to a wide range of other contemporary and modern American poetry A variety of issues are addressed in the following chapters The Marginalization of Poetry Language Writing and Literary History Here and Now on Paper Parataxis and Narrative The New Sentence in Theory and Practice Write the Power Building a More Powerful Vocabulary Bruce Andrews and the World Trade Center This Page Is My Page This Page Is Your Page Gender and Mapping An Alphabet of Literary Criticism and A False Account of Talking with Frank O'Hara and Roland Barthes in Philadelphia How to Live/what to Do Adalaide Kirby Morris, 2003 Adalaide Morris removes the work of the iconic writer H D from the various compartments into which it has traditionally been placed and examines what she terms the ongoingness of her writing showing her to be a playful linguistic innovator whose writings are relevant to many fields of human activity Poetry from Sojourner Ruth Lepson, 2004 Collection of poems from 25 years of Sojourner For much of its history Sojourner was the most widely circulated feminist literary journal in America and more than 1 200 poems have appeared in its pages since it began publication in 1975 Nearly 150 of those poems are collected in this volume where together they form a powerful testament to the vibrancy wit and diversity of feminist poetry In addition to works by such well known poets as Molly Peacock Nikki Giovanni Betsy Sholl and Adrienne Rich this collection includes poems by women from a host of different backgrounds including many whose work appeared in print for the first time in Sojourner Some of these poems explode with energy others speak with a haiku like softness some discuss love lust and sexuality while others deal with loss divorce and revenge The voices collected here are old and young rural and urban straight and gay from mothers and daughters to wives lovers and countless others all contributing to this anthology's wide ranging conversation about feminism and feminist poetics A Guide to Poetics Journal Lyn Hejinian, Barrett Watten, 2013-10-21 Lyn Hejinian and Barrett Watten are internationally recognized poet critics Together they edited the highly influential Poetics Journal whose ten issues published between 1982 and 1998 contributed to the surge of interest in the practice of poetics A Guide to Poetics Journal presents the major conversations and debates from the journal and invites readers to expand on the critical and creative engagements they represent In making their selections for the guide the editors have sought to showcase a range of innovative poetics and to indicate the diversity of fields and activities with which they might be engaged The introduction and headnotes by the editors provide historical and thematic context for the articles The Guide is intended to be of sustained creative and classroom use while the companion Archive of all ten issues of Poetics Journal allows users to remix remaster and extend its practices and debates See <http://www.upne.com/0819571236.html> for more information on the digital archive
