The Connaught Rangers ... Henry Francis Newdigate Jourdain, Edward Fraser, 1928 My Reminiscences lady Fanny Janet Sandison Blunt, 1918 Artisans of Empire Suraiya Faruqi, 2009-06-23 The manufacture and trade in crafted goods and the men and women who were involved in this industry including metalworkers ceramicists silk weavers fez makers blacksmiths and even barbers lay at the social as well as the economic heart of the Ottoman empire This comprehensive history by leading Ottoman historian Suraiya Faruqi presents the definitive view of the subject from the production and distribution of different craft objects to their use and enjoyment within the community Faruqi sheds new light on all aspects of artisan life setting the concerns of individual craftsmen within the context of the broader cultural themes that connect them to the wider world Combining social cultural economic religious and historical insights this will be the authoritative work on Ottoman artisans and guilds for many years to come A display of unrivalled knowledge of the sources by one of the leading historians of the Ottoman Empire Erik J Zürcher Professor of Turkish Studies at the University of Leiden Jews in the Realm of the Sultans Yaron Ben-Naeh, 2008 Jewish society in the Ottoman Empire has not been the subject of systematic research The seventeenth century is the main object of this study since it was a formative era For Ottoman Jews the Ottoman century constituted an era of gradual acculturation to changing reality parallel to the changing character of the Ottoman state Continuous changes and developments shaped anew the character of this Jewry the core of what would later become known as Sephardi Jewry Yaron Ben Naeh draws from primary and secondary Hebrew Ottoman and European sources the image of Jewish society in the Ottoman Empire In the chapters he leads the reader from the overall urban framework to individual aspects Beginning with the physical environment he moves on to discuss their relationships with the majority society followed by a description and analysis of the congregation its organization and structure and from there to the character of Ottoman Jewish society and its nuclear cell the family Special emphasis is placed throughout the work on the interaction with Muslim society and the resulting acculturation that affected all aspects and all levels of Jewish life in the Empire In this the author challenges the widespread view that sees this community as being stagnant and self segregated as well as the accepted concept of a traditional Jewish society under Islam Child Survivors of the Holocaust in Greece Pothiti Hantzaroula, 2020-11-29 A historical investigation of children s memory of the Holocaust in Greece illustrates that age generation and geographical background shaped postwar Jewish identities The examination of children s narratives deposited in the era of digital archives enables an understanding of the age specific construction of the memory of genocide which shakes established assumptions about the memory of the Holocaust In the context of a global Holocaust memory established through testimony archives the present research constructs a genealogy of the testimonial culture in Greece by framing the rich source of written and oral testimonies in the political discourses and public memory of the aftermath of the Second World War The testimonies of former hidden children and child survivors of concentration camps illuminate the questions that haunted postwar attempts to reconstruct communities related to the specific evolution of genocide in Greece and to the rising anti-Semitism of postwar Greece As an oral history of child survivors of the Holocaust the book will be of interest to researchers in the fields of the history of childhood Jewish studies memory studies and Holocaust and genocide studies

Homeless Tongues Monique Balbuena, 2016-07-27 This book examines a group of multicultural Jewish poets to address the issue of multilingualism within a context of minor languages and literatures nationalism and diaspora It introduces three writers working in minor or threatened languages who challenge the usual consensus of Jewish literature Algerian Sadia Levy Israeli Margalit Matitiah and Argentine Juan Gelman Each of them Levy in French and Hebrew Matitiah in Hebrew and Ladino and Gelman in Spanish and Ladino expresses a hybrid or composite Sephardic identity through a strategic choice of competing languages and intertexts Monique R Balbuena's close literary readings of their works which are mostly unknown in the United States are strongly grounded in their social and historical context Her focus on contemporary rather than classic Ladino poetry and her argument for the inclusion of Sephardic production in the canon of Jewish literature make Homeless Tongues a timely and unusual intervention

After the War was Over Mark Mazower, 2000-11-12 This volume makes available some of the most exciting research currently underway into Greek society after Liberation Together its essays map a new social history of Greece in the 1940s and 1950s a period in which the country grappled bloodily with foreign occupation and intense civil conflict Extending innovative historical approaches to Greece the contributors explore how war and civil war affected the family the law and the state They examine how people led their lives as communities and individuals at a time of political polarization in a country on the front line of the Cold War's division of Europe And they advance the ongoing reassessment of what happened in postwar Europe by including regional and village histories and by examining long running issues of nationalism and ethnicity Previously neglected subjects from children and women in the resistance and in prisons to the state use of pageantry yield fresh insights By focusing on episodes such as the problems of Jewish survivors in Salonika memories of the Bulgarian occupation of northern Greece and the controversial arrest of a war criminal these scholars begin to answer persistent questions about war and its repercussions How do people respond to repression How deep are ethnic divisions Which forms of power emerge under a weakened state When forced to choose will parents sacrifice family or ideology How do ordinary people surmount wartime grievances to live together In addition to the editor the contributors are Eleni Haidia Procopis Papastratis Polymeris Voglis Mando Dalianis Tassoula Vervenioti Riki van Boeschoten John Sakkas Lee Sarafis Stathis N Kalyvas Anastasia Karakasidou Bea Lefkowitz Xanthippi Kotzageorgi Zymari Tassos Hadjianastassiou and Susanne Sophia Spiliotis

Land of Progress Jacob Norris, 2013-04-11 A study of Palestine in the early twentieth century that takes a step back from the intricacies of the Arab Zionist conflict focusing instead on the country's position within the broader history of empire and anti-colonial resistance

Urban Muslim Migrants in Istanbul Frances Trix, 2016-10-26 Some fled following World War II and travelled east by train to Istanbul with no more than a suitcase And yet 50 years later one of their migrant associations was second only to the Red Crescent in providing aid to the urban poor of Istanbul Frances Trix analyses the development of the oldest such association originally founded to welcome new migrants as they arrived from Skopje after World War II and shows how Islam is central to its structure and practices Her wide ranging study variously focuses on its leadership the growing role of women in the organisation and the importance of music and poetry in coping with exile In so doing she raises wider questions concerning the preservation and articulation of identity amongst migrant communities Urban Muslim Migrants in Istanbul is a rare ethnography of an Islamic urban group based on extensive archival research and interviews in various languages across Istanbul Skopje and Kosovo Trix's unique approach brings a human element to the study of forced migration conflict and trauma and it is an important book for academics and policymakers interested in the Balkans the Middle East Turkey and migration studies

Physic and Philanthropy A. Rupert Hall, B. A.
