Revaluing French Feminism Critical Essays On Difference Agency And Culture:

Revaluing French Feminism Nancy Fraser, Sandra Lee Bartky, 1992-04-22 Fraser and Bartky have brought the encounter between U S and French feminism to a new level of seriousness Ethics In the last decade elements of French feminist discourse have permeated and transformed the larger feminist culture in the United States This volume is the first sustained attempt to revalue French feminism and answer the question What has been gained and what has been lost as a result of this intercultural encounter Interviews with Simone de Beauvoir open the book essays by French feminists Sarah Kofman and Luce Irigaray follow the North American contributors are Judith Butler Nancy Fraser Diana J Fuss Nancy J Holland Eleanor H Kuykendall Dorothy Leland Diana T Meyers Andrea Nye and Margaret A Simons Rethinking Culture, Organization and Management Robert McMurray, Alison Pullen, 2020-03-11 The purpose of this book is to reimagine the concept of culture both as an analytical category and disciplinary practice of dominance marginalization and exclusion For decades culture has been perceived as a hot topic It has been written about and deployed as part of a search for excellence as a tool through which to categorise rank motivate and mould individuals as a part of an attempt to align individual and corporate goals as a driver of organizational change and as a servant of profit maximisation The women writers presented in this book offer a different take on culture they offer useful disruptions to mainstream conceptions of culture Joanne Martin and Mary Douglas provide multi dimensional holistic accounts of social relations that point up similarity and difference Rather than offering totalising or prescriptive models each author considers the complex polyphonic and processual nature of culture s while challenging us to acknowledge and work with ambiguity fluidity and disruption In this spirit writings of Judi Marshall Arlie Hochschild Kathy Ferguson Luce Irigaray and Donna Haraway are employed to disrupt extant management cultures that lionise the masculine and marginalise the concerns perspectives and contributions of women and the diversity of women These writers bring bodies emotions difference resistance and politics back to the centre stage of organizational theory and practice They open us up to the possibility of cultures suffused with multifarious potentiality rather than homogeneity and faux certainty As such they offer new ways of understanding and performing culture in management and organization This book will be relevant to students and researchers across business and management organizational studies critical management studies gender studies and sociology Julia Kristeva and Feminist Thought Birgit

Schippers, 2011-04-15 This book appraises the relationship between contemporary feminism and Julia Kristeva a major figure in Continental thought It addresses the conflicting range of feminist responses to Kristeva s key ideas and Kristeva s equally conflicting as well as ambiguous position vis a vis feminism Schippers argues that this complex relationship can only be understood by positioning Kristeva along the fissures and fault lines which run through feminism By attending to feminism s internal debates and disputes and addressing the philosophical commitments and attachments held by Kristeva s critics the book clarifies the diverse Kristeva reception within feminism and illuminates how her ideas trouble contemporary feminist thought And despite Kristeva's fundamental ambiguity towards all matters feminist Schippers makes a case for Kristeva's important contribution to a feminist project which is sympathetic towards her account of fluid subjectivity and her critique of identity politics In doing so the author advances the scholarly understanding of Kristeva and of contemporary feminist thought

Agency, Culture, and Human Personhood Jeanne M. Hoeft, 2009-01-01 Agency Culture and Human Personhood uses feminist theories process and liberation theologies psychodynamics and the problem of intimate partner violence to develop a pastoral theology of human agency The turn to cultural context for understanding what makes human beings who they are and do the things they do raises significant questions about human agency To what extent is agency the human capacity to act self determined and to what extent is it determined by external factors If we conceive of persons with too little agency we negate the possibility for change but too much agency negates the necessity for resistance movements Hoeft argues that agency arises ambiguously from and is constituted of culture She suggests that such a conception of agency enables the church to foster in victims perpetrators and congregations more resistance to violence and proposes practices of ministry that can do just that The book will challenge deeply ingrained notions of personal responsibility and one's capacity to choose change yet offers concrete proposals for creating a less violent world

Philosophy and the Maternal Body Michelle Boulous Walker, 2002-01-22 Philosophy and the Maternal Body gives a new voice to the mother and the maternal body which have often been viewed as silent within philosophy Michelle Boulous Walker clearly shows how some male theorists have appropriated maternity and suggests new ways of articulating the maternal body and women's experience of pregnancy and motherhood

Religion, Society, And Psychoanalysis Janet L Jacobs, 2018-02-12 Distinguished contributors provide an overview of three generations of psychoanalytic theory including the work of Freud Horney Winnicott and Kristeva and discuss the evolution of psychoanalytic thought as it relates to the role that religion plays in modern culture Religion clearly remains a powerful social and political force in Western society Freudian based theory continues to inform psychoanalytic investigations into personality development gender relations and traumatic disorders Using a historical framework this collection of new essays brings together contemporary scholarship on religion and psychoanalysis These various yet related psychoanalytic interpretations of religious symbolism and commitment offer a unique social analysis on the meaning of religion Beginning with Freud's views on religion and mystical experience and continuing with those of Horney Winnicott Kristeva Miller and others this volume surveys the work of three generations of psychoanalytic theorists Special attention is given to objects relations theory and ego psychology as well as to the recent work from the European tradition Distinguished contributors provide a basic overview of a given theorist's scholarship and discuss its place in the evolution of psychoanalytic thought as it relates to the role that religion plays in modern culture Religion Society and Psychoanalysis marks a major interdisciplinary step forward in filling the void in the social psychology of religion It is an extremely useful handbook for students and scholars of psychology and religion

Political Narratosophy Senka

Anastasova,2023-09-29 Political Narratosophy offers a critically subversive rethinking of the political and philosophical significance of narrative and why feminist epistemology and feminist social theory matters for the meaning of the self and narrativity Through a re examination of the notions of democracy and emancipation Senka Anastasova coins the term political narratosophy a unique interpretation of the philosophy of narrative identification and disidentification developed in conversation with philosophers Jacques Ranci re Nancy Fraser and Paul Ricoeur Utilizing the author s own identity as a feminist philosopher has lived in socialist Yugoslavia post Yugoslavia and Macedonia now North Macedonia Anastasova explores the fluctuating and disappearing borders around which identity is situated in a country that no longer exists She expertly reveals how the subject finds makes and unmakes itself through narrativity politics and imagination Political Narratosophy is an important intervention in political philosophy and a welcome contribution to the historiography on female authors who lived through twentieth century communism and its aftermath It will be of great interest to scholars and researchers in the fields of political theory philosophy women s studies international relations identity studies comparative literary studies and aesthetics studies Resistance, Flight, Creation Dorothea Olkowski,2000 Thirteen women at the forefront of philosophy locate new feminist points of view within the discipline by rigorously engaging works of contemporary French philosophy In so doing they both transform the standard practices of the field and carve out new territory These writers amplify the work of feminist philosophers such as Simone de Beauvoir Luce Irigaray and Sarah Kofman in ways that are both stylistically and substantively creative They also appropriate for radical feminist use the works of male philosophers such as Michel Foucault Gilles Deleuze Maurice Merleau Ponty and Jean Paul Sartre The essays illustrate the manner in which feminist philosophers bypass traditional methodology in favor of a disciplinary freedom characterized by fluid methodologies best exemplified in Beauvoir s work and by the employment of imaginative forms including the autobiographical and the poetic The modes of inquiry used here range variously from psychoanalysis and existentialism to deconstruction post structuralism and newly resurgent phenomenology This volume also contains a comprehensive bibliography of feminist thinkers who are enacting French philosophy in English German and French Education and Cultural Studies Henry A. Giroux,Patrick Shannon,2013-12-02 Although the disciplines of critical education and cultural studies have traditionally occupied separate spaces as they have addressed different audiences their concerns as well as the political and pedagogical nature of their work overlap Education and Cultural Studies brings members of these two groups together to demonstrate how a critical understanding of culture and education can transgressively implement broad political change All written from within this framework of cultural studies and critical pedagogy the contributors illuminate the possibilities and opportunities open to practicing educators In eschewing a romantic utopianism and in assessing the current climate of what is attainable and practical this book teaches us how we can begin to translate and perhaps even transform the vexing social problems that confront us daily Contributors include Carol Becker Harvey J Kaye David Theo Goldberg

Jeffrey Williams Sharon Todd Douglas Kellner Deborah Britzman Jacqueline Reid Walsh Claudia Mitchell Cameron McCarthy
