Christological Anthropology in Historical Perspective Marc Cortez,2016-02-02 What does it mean to be truly human In Christological Anthropology in Historical Perspective Marc Cortez looks at the ways several key theologians Gregory of Nyssa Julian of Norwich Martin Luther Friedrich Schleiermacher Karl Barth John Zizioulas and James Cone have used Christology to inform their understanding of the human person Based on this historical study he concludes with a constructive proposal for how Christology and anthropology should work together to inform our view of what it means to be human Many theologians begin their discussion of the human person by claiming that in some way Jesus Christ reveals what it means to be truly human but this often has little impact in the material presentation of their anthropology Although modern theologians often fail to reflect robustly on the relationship between Christology and anthropology this was not the case throughout church history In this book examine seven key theologians and discover their important contributions to theological anthropology The Writings of Julian of Norwich Julian (of Norwich),2006 Julian of Norwich c 1343 c 1416 is the earliest woman writer of English we know about Although she described herself as a simple creature unlettered Julian is now widely recognized as one of the great speculative theologians of the Middle Ages whose thinking about God as love has made a permanent contribution to the tradition of Christian belief This book presents a much needed new edition of Julian's writings in Middle English one that makes possible the serious reading and study of her thought not just for specialists but for all medievalists This edition includes separate texts of both Julian's works A Vision Showed to a Devout Woman and A Revelation of Love with modern punctuation and partly regularized spelling a second analytic edition of A Vision printed underneath the text of A Revelation to facilitate study of the relationship between the works facing page explanatory notes with translations of difficult words and phrases cross references to other parts of the text and citations of biblical and other sources an appendix of life records and early responses to Julian's thought and an analytic bibliography The volume also provides an accessible introduction to Julian's life and writings The Analogy of Love Gary Chartier,2015-11-09 This book offers an overview of Christian theology organized around the twin themes of divine and human love The book covers the traditional theological topics as well as basic questions of theological method It seeks to integrate a focus on love

throughout While love is regularly canvassed as a dominant theme in Christian thought it has rarely been the focus of Christian theological construction or a constraint on theological formulation The book seeks to suggest chapter by chapter how a given topic relates to the broad theme of love The book is written in a way designed to make it accessible to university students and educated laypersons At the same time it takes positions on controverted scholarly issues and the methodological approach outlined at the beginning will be of interest to academic theologians

A Fresh Cup of Tolerance Thomas L. Norris, 2021-11-12 A Fresh Cup of Tolerance pioneers a coherent practical theology of the burgeoning universalism movement It builds on broad spiritual foundations from Native American Asian Neopagan Judeo Christian and Islamic traditions Pragmatic and straightforward it addresses the most pressing global dilemmas of our time environment globalization feminism and gender issues religious strife oppression poverty war and prejudice Theologically it systematically explores our many views of God good evil sin and suffering revelation spirituality in the digital age the spirit of love and community and so on However it is not a pleasant treatise on love It is a living faith in action theology free of rigid words Scriptures beliefs dogma or practices rituals With seven billion people on the planet many more to come cooperating and living loving together is a survival essential In a crisis our best nature surfaces but we seem unable to sustain a sense of true community and compassion for more than a few CNN weeks at a time It is a spiritual priority to seek a means to sustain a loving community for longer periods whether within the family the community the larger society or the world A theology of universalism offers a pathway of hope
