Revelations Expository Essays By And About Blacks:

Revelations Teresa M. Redd, 1991 A Socially Just Classroom: Transdisciplinary Approaches to Teaching Writing Across the Humanities Kristin Coffey, Vuslat Katsanis, 2022-08-16 This edited collection provides a range of transdisciplinary approaches to the teaching of writing across the Humanities through the lens of inclusion and equity in higher education In three parts From Disciplinary Practice to Transdisciplinary Application The Collective We Transparent Pedagogy in Praxis Power in Presence From Chalkboard to Pavement the chapters focus on teaching triumphs and challenges specific learning objectives and best practices theories and their applications and concrete examples of campus action within specific institutional or socio historical contexts In whole the book represents what a socially just classroom looks like from first year university writing classes to advanced graduate studies and the impact of learning beyond the university Building on the scholarship of equity in higher education the book forefronts transdisciplinary pedagogies with chapters representing language and literature creative writing cultural and ethnic studies women and gender studies and media studies While we understand social justice as a multifaceted and ever expanding effort we affirm the essential role of classroom instructors as the foundational actors in cultivating and sustaining inclusion and equity We also acknowledge the current challenges of teaching brought on by the COVID 19 pandemic which intensifies previously existing issues surrounding housing employment healthcare and the legal residency status of many students By fostering a conversation around writing pedagogy in a comparative and transdisciplinary context we encourage educators to translate the resources available in their fields in a collective effort to close the equity gaps At the same time we intend for this book to provide a context where younger faculty and diverse students can redefine the college classroom while empowering each other within their chosen institutions

African American Literacies Elaine B. Richardson, 2003 This book addresses the literacy problems of African American students providing educators with an African American centred theory of rhetoric and composition A Passion to Liberate Fritz Pointer, 2001 A literary biography of one of South Africa s most extraordinary and eminent men of letters Justine Alexander La Guma better known as Alex La Guma Concerned with the writing life of one of South Africa s most prolific eloquent and courageous authors it covers his contribution in the fight to overturn apartheid as well as his literary work and journalism Things of Darkness Kim F. Hall, 2018-09-05 The Ethiopie the tawny Tartar the woman blackamoore and knotty Africanisms allusions to blackness abound in Renaissance texts Kim F Hall s eagerly awaited book is the first to view these evocations of blackness in the contexts of sexual politics imperialism and slavery in early modern England Her work reveals the vital link between England s expansion into realms of difference and otherness through exploration and colonialism and the highly charged ideas of race and gender which emerged How Hall asks did new connections between race and gender figure in Renaissance ideas about the proper roles of men and women What effect did real racial and cultural difference have on the literary portrayal of blackness And how did the interrelationship of tropes of race and gender contribute to a modern conception of individual identity Hall mines a wealth of sources for answers to these questions travel literature from Sir John Mandeville's Travels to Leo Africanus's History and Description of Africa lyric poetry and plays from Shakespeare's Antony and Cleopatra and The Tempest to Ben Jonson's Masque of Blackness works by Emilia Lanyer Philip Sidney John Webster and Lady Mary Wroth and the visual and decorative arts Concentrating on the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries Hall shows how race sexuality economics and nationalism contributed to the formation of a modern white male identity in English culture The volume includes a useful appendix of not readily accessible Renaissance poems on blackness

First-Year Composition Deborah Coxwell-Teague, Ronald F. Lunsford, 2014-05-01 First Year Composition From Theory to Practice s combination of theory and practice provides readers an opportunity to hear twelve of the leading theorists in composition studies answer in their own voices the key question of what it is they hope to accomplish in a first year composition course In addition these chapters and the accompanying syllabi provide rich insights into the classroom practices of these theorists

Postcolonial Preaching HyeRan Kim-Cragg, 2021-02-11 In Postcolonial Preaching HyeRan Kim Cragg argues that preaching is the act of dropping the stone of the Gospel into a lake making waves to move hearts and transform the world wounded by colonial violence The ripple effect serves as a metaphor and acronym to guide to preaching that takes postcolonial concerns seriously Rehearsal Imagination Place Pattern Language and Exegesis RIPPLE Kim Cragg explains each ripple in this approach and exercise of creating and delivering sermons The author delivers fresh insights while drawing on some traditional homiletical perspectives in the service of a homiletic that takes the reality of racism migration and environmental degradation seriously Moreover Kim Cragg demonstrates the postcolonial sermon in action by including annotated homilies This book contributes to the very first wave of the application of postcolonial scholarship in preaching Given the continuing extent and influence of colonial worldviews and legacies this approach should become a staple in preaching over the next generation

Academic and Professional Writing in an Age of Accountability Shirley Wilson Logan, Wayne H. Slater, 2018-12-27 What current theoretical frameworks inform academic and professional writing What does research tell us about the effectiveness of academic and professional writing programs What do we know about existing best practices What are the current guidelines and procedures in evaluating a program's effectiveness What are the possibilities in regard to future research and changes to best practices in these programs in an age of accountability Editors Shirley Wilson Logan and Wayne H Slater bring together leading scholars in rhetoric and composition to consider the history trends and future of academic and professional writing in higher education through the lens of these five central questions The first two essays in the book provide a history of the academic and professional writing program at the University of Maryland Subsequent essays explore successes and challenges in the establishment and development of writing programs at four other major institutions identify the features of language that facilitate academic and professional communication look at the ways digital practices in academic and professional writing have shaped how writers compose and respond to texts and examine the role of assessment in curriculum and pedagogy An afterword by distinguished rhetoric and composition scholars Jessica Enoch and Scott Wible offers perspectives on the future of academic and professional writing This collection takes stock of the historical rhetorical linguistic digital and evaluative aspects of the teaching of writing in higher education Among the critical issues addressed are how university writing programs were first established and what early challenges they faced where writing programs were housed and who administered them how the language backgrounds of composition students inform the way writing is taught the ways in which current writing technologies create new digital environments and how student learning and programmatic outcomes should be assessed The Sociology of Language and Religion Tope Omoniyi, 2010-12-08 This is an eclectic collection of essays which successfully demonstrate how the Sociology of Language and Religion as a disciplinary paradigm responds to change conflict and accommodation The multiple religious coverage in the essays Judaism Christianity Islam as well as more or less global panorama Resources in Education , 1994-03
