Revelations Of Divine

Julian (of Norwich)

Revelations Of Divine:

Revelations of Divine Love Julian of Norwich, 2019-11-13 The fourteenth century anchorite known as Julian of Norwich offered fervent prayers for a deeper understanding of Christ's passion. The holy woman's petitions were answered with a series of divine revelations that she called shewings. Her mystic visions revealed Christ's sufferings with extreme intensity but they also confirmed God's constant love for humanity and infinite capacity for forgiveness. Julian of Norwich's Revelations of Divine Love have had a lasting influence on Christian thought. Written in immediate compelling terms, her experiences remain among the most original and accessible expressions of medieval mysticism. This edition contains both the short text which is mainly an account of the shewings and Julian's initial analysis of their meaning and the long text completed some 20 years later and offering daringly speculative interpretations.

Revelations of Divine Love Julian (of Norwich), 1911

Revelations of Divine Love Julian of Norwich, 1999-02-01 One of the first woman authors Julian of Norwich produced in Revelations of Divine Love a remarkable work of revelatory insight that stands alongside The Cloud of Unknowing and Piers Plowman as a classic of Medieval religious literature. After fervently praying for a greater understanding of Christ's passion, Julian of Norwich, a fourteenth century anchorite and mystic, experienced a series of divine revelations. Through these showings, Christ's sufferings were revealed to her with extraordinary intensity, but she also received assurance of God's unwavering love for man and his infinite capacity for forgiveness. Written in a vigorous English vernacular, the Revelations are one of the most original works of medieval mysticism and have had a lasting influence on Christian thought. This edition of the Revelations contains both the short text which is mainly an account of the showings themselves and Julian's initial interpretation of their meaning and the long text completed some twenty years later which moves from vision to a daringly speculative theology. Elizabeth Spearing's translation preserves Julian's directness of expression and the rich complexity of her thought. An introduction, notes, and appendices help to place the works in context for modern readers. For more than seventy years, Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English-speaking world. With more than 1,700 titles, Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines. Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors, as well as up-to-date translations by award-winning translators.

Norwich, 2018-08-14 Julian of Norwich c 8 November 1342 c 1416 also called Juliana of Norwich was an English anchoress and an important Christian mystic and theologian Her Revelations of Divine Love written around 1395 is the first book in the English language known to have been written by a woman The Revelations of Divine Love which also bears the title A Revelation of Love in Sixteen Shewings above the first chapter is a 14th century book of Christian mystical devotions written by Julian of Norwich It includes her sixteen mystical visions and contemplations on universal love and hope in a time of plague religious schism uprisings and war Published in 1395 it is the first published book in the English language to be written by a woman During her early life the Black Death hit the city of Norwich three times It is estimated that the plague killed about a third of England's population in one single epidemic. People died so quickly and in such numbers that the dead could not receive proper burial and in the worst of times lay stacked in carts like so much cordwood or in hastily dug pits on the edge of town or simply where they fell in the streets. Seeing these images may have affected Julian who was just six years old when the plague first hit Norwich. Although she does not speak of the plague directly, her book shows a deep sensitivity to suffering and dying.
