Review of Progress in Quantitative Nondestructive Evaluation Donald O. Thompson, Dale E. Chimenti, 2012-12-06 These Proceedings consisting of Parts A and B contain the edited versions of most of the papers presented at the annual Review of Progress in Quantitative Nondestructive Evaluation held at University of San Diego San Diego CA on July 27 to August 1 1997 The Review was organized by the Center for NDE at Iowa State University in cooperation with the Ames Laboratory of the USDOE the American Society of Nondestructive Testing the National Institute of Standards and Technology the Federal Aviation Administration and the National Science Foundation Industry/University Cooperative Research Centers This year's Review of Progress in QNDE was attended by approximately 370 participants from the US and many foreign countries who presented a total of approximately 350 papers As usual the meeting was divided into 36 sessions with four sessions running concurrently The Review covered all phases of NDE research and development from fundamental investigations to engineering applications and inspection systems and methods of inspection science from acoustics to x rays The Review continues to experience some fluctuations in size mostly under pressure from a decrease in funding for NDE research at the US Federal level but increased participation from foreign laboratories has more than made up the difference The Review is ideally sized to permit a full scale overview of the latest developments in a collegial atmosphere that most participants favor The opening plenary session this year concentrated on advances in imaging technologies and methodologies that have been made in recent years Dr K

NDE technique development whereas Part B is organized around the theme of materials Review of Progress in Quantitative Nondestructive Evaluation Donald O. Thompson, Dale E. Chimenti, 2012-12-06 In this volume parts 1 and 2 are contained the edited papers presented at the annual Review of Progress in Quantitative NDE held at the University of California San Diego August 1-6 1982 This Review possibly the most comprehensive annual symposium emphasizing both ongoing research and applications in quantitative NDE was sponsored by the Center for Advanced NDE at the Ames Laboratory of the U S Department of Energy in cooperation with the Materials Laboratory of the Air Force Wright Aeronautical Laboratories and the Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency Over 300 attendees representing various government agencies and the industrial and university communities participated in the technical presentations poster sessions and discussions The symposium benefited from the insight of two keynote speakers Dr Harris Burte of the Materials Laboratory AFWAL and Mr Ward Rummel of the Martin Marietta Corporation who presented complementary messages Dr Burte pointed out the need to identify windows to serve as guides for focusing NDE research The window concept may be thought of as an opportunity for the application of NDE technology to an important problem and through this application to identify knowledge gaps which must be filled by generic research This concept simultaneously provides a mechanism for the solution of a direct application problem and a set of strong guidelines for generic research directions Mr Rummel called attention to the value of lessons learned from var

Review of Progress in Quantitative Nondestructive Evaluation
Donald Thompson, 2012-04-03 Perhaps the largest symposium held annually in the area of quantitative nondestructive evaluation is the one which resulted in this book The 1981 Review of Progress in Quantitative Nondestructive Evaluation NDE was held August 2-7 at the University of Colorado in Boulder While the review was sponsored by the Materials Laboratory of the Air Force Wright Aeronautical Laboratories and the Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency as part of their sponsored research conducted through the Ames Laboratory of the U S Department of Energy nearly 300 attendees representing other government agencies and the industrial and university communities as well participated in the technical presentations poster sessions and discussions The program emphasized various areas of interest in quantitative NDE including topics related to the development of quantitative ultrasonic and eddy current techniques other emerging techniques considerations of improvements needed in the probability of flaw detection and engineering applications which follow from technology transfer of research results An example of this transfer is the utilization of the Born inversion algorithm for flaw sizing The keynote address NDE A Key to Enhanced Productivity was delivered by Dr Norman Tallan Chief Scientist at the Air Force Materials Laboratory Dr Tallan's presentation concerned the importance and potential payoff of moving the NDE inspection procedure forward to provide in process inspection and control for manufacturing This step requires the utilization of concepts and research pursued in quantitative NDE activities and the initiation of other key steps
