Revisiting Empty Houses:

The Birth of the Palestinian Refugee Problem Revisited Benny Morris, 2004-01-05 Benny Morris The Birth of the Palestinian Refugee Problem was published in 1988 Its startling revelations about how and why 700 000 Palestinians left their homes and became refugees during the Arab Israeli war in 1948 undermined traditional interpretations as to whether they left voluntarily or were expelled as part of a systematic plan This book represents a revised edition of the earlier work compiled on the basis of newly opened Israeli military archives While the focus remains the 1948 war and the analysis of the Palestinian exodus the new material contains more information about what happened in Jerusalem Jaffa and Haifa and how events there led to the collapse of Palestinian urban society It also sheds light on the battles and atrocities that resulted in the disintegration of rural communities The story is a harrowing one The refugees now number four million and their existence remains a major obstacle to peace

The Country House Revisited Tereza Topolovská , 2017-08-01 This monograph provides an insight into English country house fiction by twentieth and twenty first century authors with a focus on the works of E M Forster Evelyn Waugh Iris Murdoch Alan Hollinghurst and Sarah Waters The country house is explored within the wider social and cultural contexts of the period including contemporary architectural development The variety of literary depictions of the country house reflects the physical diversification of buildings which can be classified as such from smaller variants to formerly grand residences on the brink of physical collapse Within the scope of contemporary fiction architecture and poetics of space the country house given its uniquely integrating and exceptionally evocative qualities accentuates different conceptions of dwelling Consequently literary portrayals of the country house can be seen as both prefiguring and reflecting the contemporary practice of living

Baltimore Revisited P. Nicole King, Kate Drabinski, Joshua Clark Davis, 2019-08-09 Nicknamed both Mobtown and Charm City and located on the border of the North and South Baltimore is a city of contradictions From media depictions in The Wire to the real life trial of police officers for the murder of Freddie Gray Baltimore has become a quintessential example of a struggling American city Yet the truth about Baltimore is far more complicated and more fascinating To help untangle these apparent paradoxes the editors of Baltimore Revisited have assembled a collection of over thirty experts from inside and outside academia Together they reveal that Baltimore has been ground zero for a slew of neoliberal policies a place where inequality has increased as corporate interests have eagerly privatized public goods and services to maximize profits But they also uncover how community members resist and reveal a long tradition of Baltimoreans who have fought for social justice The essays in this collection take readers on a tour through the city's diverse neighborhoods from the Lumbee Indian community in East Baltimore to the crusade for environmental justice in South Baltimore Baltimore Revisited examines the city's past reflects upon the city's present and envisions the city's future

Revisiting Empty Houses Una Flett, 1988 The House On South Street - Revisited JOHN L. BISOL, 2016-02-14 Mark Twain said Truth is stranger than fiction but it is because Fiction is obliged to stick to possibilities

Truth isn't It's been over a decade since we last visited The House On South Street More of its background story has been revealed in dreams in fact and in confidence The missing pieces start to fall into place as the real characters are unmasked The house continues to brood in its somber way and yes it still kills The Settlement House Movement Revisited Gal, John, Köngeter, Stefan, 2020-12-16 This book explores the role and impact of the settlement house movement in the global development of social welfare and the social work profession It traces the transnational history of settlement houses and examines the interconnections between the settlement house movement other social and professional movements and social research Looking at how the settlement house movement developed across different national cultural and social boundaries this book shows that by understanding its impact we can better understand the wider global development of social policy social research and the social work profession The American Environment Revisited Geoffrey L. Buckley, Yolanda Youngs, 2018-03-01 This innovative book provides a dynamic and often surprising view of the range of environmental issues facing the United States today A distinguished group of scholars examines the growing temporal spatial and thematic breadth of topics historical geographers are now exploring Seventeen original chapters examine topics such as forest conservation mining landscapes urban environment justice solid waste exotic species environmental photography national and state park management recreation and tourism and pest control Commemorating the twenty fifth anniversary of the publication of the seminal work The American Environment Interpretations of Past Geographies the book clearly shows much has changed since 1992 Indeed not only has the range of issues expanded but an increasing number of geographers are forging links with environmental historians promoting a level of intellectual cross fertilization that benefits both disciplines As a result environmental historical geographies today are richer and more diverse than ever The American Environment Revisited offers a comprehensive overview that gives both specialist and general readers a fascinating look at our changing relationships with nature over time Mission Revisited Pieter N. Holtrop, 2010 In the light of the centennial of the World Mission Conference in Edinburgh 1910 2010 Dutch missiologists reflect on issues on the borderline between missiology and intercultural theology with some international guests joining the choir Organized in four parts their contributions open up new perspectives on the future of the discipline in terms of foundational theology contextuality gender and methodology Series ContactZone Explorations in Intercultural Theology Vol 10 California Revisited. 1858-1897 Thaddeus Stevens Kenderdine, 1898 Thaddeus S Kenderdine made his way from Philadelphia to Michigan in 1858 staying only a month before he determined to head west He remained in California for only a year returning to New York in 1859 This visit is described in A California tramp 1888 California revisited 1898 recounts his second trip to California after an absence of forty years an 1897 rail trip to a Christian Endeavor meeting in San Francisco with a stop in Salt Lake City He contrasts his two journeys west as well as the changes in San Francisco and its neighborhood He also visits Monterey San Jose Los Angeles Pasadena and San Pedro as well as the missions at San Fernando Santa Barbara San Juan Capistrano and San Miguel His stay in San Francisco coincides with beginning of Klondike gold fever and he revisits old mining camps in the Sacramento Valley before returning via the northern route with a stopover at Yellowstone Park
