Networked China: Global Dynamics of Digital Media and Civic Engagement Wenhong Chen, Stephen D.

Reese, 2015-05-08 The Internet and digital media have become conduits and locales where millions of Chinese share information and engage in creative expression and social participation. This book takes a cutting edge look at the impacts and implications of an increasingly networked China. Eleven chapters cover the terrain of a complex social and political environment revealing how modern China deals with digital media and issues of censorship, online activism, civic life and global networks. The authors in this collection come from diverse geographical backgrounds and employ methods including ethnography, interview, survey and digital trace data to reveal the networks that provide the critical components for civic engagement in Chinese society. The Chinese state is a changing, multi-faceted entity as is the Chinese public that interacts with the new landscape of digital media in adaptive and novel ways. Networked China: Global Dynamics of Digital Media and Civic Engagement situates Chinese internet in its complex generational context to provide a full and dynamic understanding of contemporary digital media use in China. This volume gives readers new agendas for this study and creates vital new signposts on the way for future research.

On Being Unfinished Patrick, Anne E., 2017-11-16 Gathered here for the first time are both published and unpublished writings of Anne E. Patrick, a leading feminist Catholic voice revered both as a teacher and as a critical scholar of theology, ethics, literature and the arts. Her scholarly publications broke new ground in a number of Catholic theological subdisciplines including feminist ethics, liturgy and contemporary expressions of religious life. This is an essential resource for anyone seeking to understand post-Vatican II theological development in the Catholic Church in the US.

Steering Human Evolution Yehezkel Dror, 2020-05-07 Humanity must steer its evolution. As human knowledge moves a step ahead of Darwin's theories, this book presents the emergence of human-made meta-evolution shaping our alternative futures. This novel process poses fateful challenges to humanity which require regulation of emerging science and technology which may endanger the future of our species. However, to do so successfully, a novel humanity craft has to be developed. Main ideologies and institutions need redesign; national sovereignty has to be limited; a decisive global regime becomes essential; some revaluation of widely accepted norms becomes essential; and a novel type of political leader based on merit in addition to public support is urgently needed. Taking into account the strength of nationalism and vested interests, it may well be that only catastrophes will teach humanity to metamorphose into a novel epoch without too high transition costs. But initial steps such as United Nations reforms are urgent in order to contain calamities and may soon become feasible. Being both interdisciplinary and based on personal experience of the author, this book adds up to a novel paradigm on steering human evolution. It will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of modern history, evolution sciences, future studies.

political science philosophy of action and science and technology It will also be of wide appeal to the general reader anxious about the future of life on Earth Comments on the Corona pandemic add to the book's concrete significance
